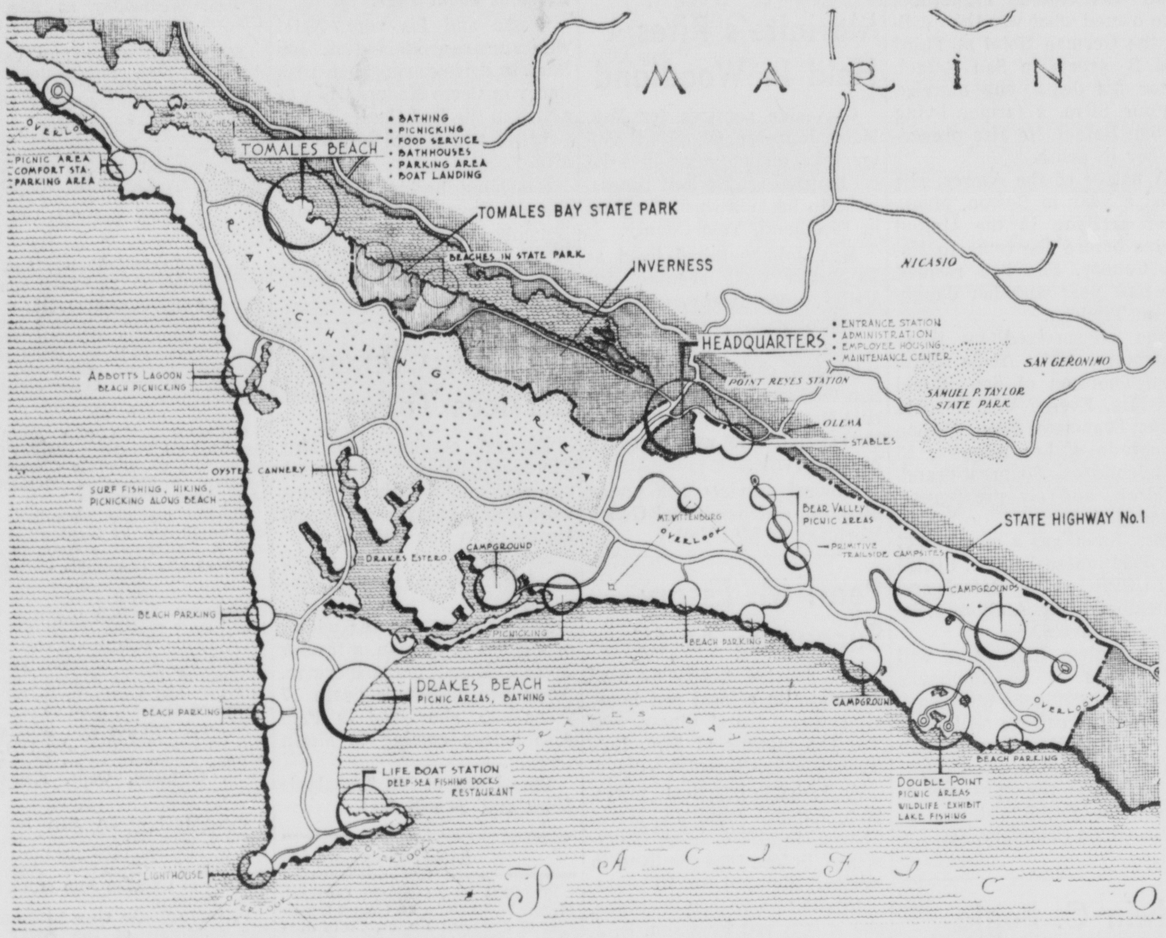
U.S. Gives Marin Details Of Pt. Reyes Park Proposal



PLAN FOR PT. REYES PARK — This is the proposed development of Pt. Reyes National Seashore Area as suggested by the U.S. Park Service. The 53,000 acre park plan, still in formative stages, was given to the Marin County Board of Supervisors today. A U.S. Senate subcommittee will hold a hearing on the project in Marin next week.

The National Park Service's development plan for a proposed 53,000-acre Pt. Reyes National Seashore Area was presented to the Marin County Board of Supervisors today.

The board was holding a special meeting this afternoon to accept and study the proposal.

A U.S. Senate subcommittee will view the peninsula from the air next Wednesday and will hold a day-long public hearing on the project next Thursday, starting at 9:30 a.m., at College of Marin.

The plan envisages a 53,000-acre park area, practically the entire peninsula, of which 21,000 acres in the center would be reserved for continued private ranching activities. The communities of Bolinas, Inverness and Inverness Park, plus room for their expansion, would not be included.

Park development would include roadways, camping, picnicking, bathing, riding and scenic areas connected by a principal road system with side roads into the recreational areas.

The main entrance to the park and its headquarters would be located about where the present Point Reyes Station-Inverness road turns sharply north at the end of Tomales Bay. The entrance roadway would lead into the major T-shaped road system.

The cross-bar road of the T would lead from the Pt. Reyes lighthouse to the tip of Tomales Point, northernmost part of the peninsula. The other road would lead from the enter of the cross bar near the end of Drake's Estero, south and east almost to Bolinas.

A major picnic, fishing, wildlife development is proposed for Double Point in the south portion of the peninsula, with

County Calls Bond Vote For New Hospital-Farm

Vets Fund Sought To Expand Juvenile Hall

The Marin County Board of Supervisors late yesterday voted to place a bond issue on the November ballot to finance a new county hospital and farm.

The board also voted to seek veterans' organizations' opinion on the use of veteran memorial funds for financing a juvenile hall addition. The money would be paid back over a period of three years from tax revenues — probably about five cents on each $100 assessed valuation each year.

The board also accepted the final plans and specifications for the hall and the farm and hospital.

$2 MILLION ESTIMATE

The amount of the bond issue was not stated, but it has been estimated the hospital will cost approximately two million dollars. County Counsel Leland H. Jordan must prepare a resolution formally calling for the special election issue on the November ballot.

Supervisors discussed the possibility of placing issue on the June ballot, but aside from the amount of time necessary in legal machinery, it was felt there would be more time to campaign for the bonds by the later election date.

REJECT RECOMMENDATION

In calling for these two methods of financing, the board rejected a committee recommendation that the two facilities be financed on a lease-option basis. A committee report, prepared by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen, was sharply criticized by County Auditor Leon A. de Lisle, and the ball was carried by Supervisors William D. Fusselman and Vera Schultz.

The letter from Jensen said department heads involved in the planning of the two facilities had inspected the plans and asked their approval. The board approved in two unanimous votes.

URGE LEASE

In addition, the letter said, "the department heads and committee members involved unanimously recommend that the board . . . proceed with the lease and lease-back arrangements."

The board also received from Jordan a recommended schedule to be followed if the lease plan were approved.

"I am personally opposed to this," de Lisle said, adding that a lease arrangement did not have to be recommended.

Fusselman then suggested that perhaps the matter could go to an election, or that the 42-cent tax rate used for the civic center could be pared to 32, with 10 cents going to the hospital and hall.

De Lisle said this would be an "ideal" arrangement, but later added that 14 cents would be needed to finance the hall over a three-year period. This is the approximate amount to be paid back to the memorial fund if veterans agree. Jensen and de Lisle will confer with veterans' organizations.

Fusselman said he believed there was not "enough steam" behind a bond election proposal in 1958, and that it was defeated because there were too many other issues on the ballot, including one for a county charter. "I'm sure bonds would pass," he said, and added that he would campaign for the issue.

He attacked the lease arrangement as one that would saddle the taxpayers with great expense over the long run.

"But costs will go up by November," Chairman Walter R. Castro interjected.

He added that he thought it

AFRICA TO RESUME HATED PASS SETUP

COMBINED AP & UPI

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa—Justice Minister F. C. Erasmus said police again will be ordered to demand that pass system for South Africa's non-whites. Opposition to the passes touched off the nation's current racial turmoil.

Erasmum said police again will be ordered to demand that Negroes show their passes. The pass law was suspended at the height of the violence.

Earlier, government officials served notice they will press their drive against Negro "inciters and intimidators" until South Africa's Negro work boycott is crushed.

An uneasy national holiday today interrupted the racial violence that has gripped the nation for 17 days. But extremist Negro leaders warned that anti-white feeling was reaching dangerous levels.

The stay-at-home strike by Africans hardly affected the holiday. But police announced they were prepared to move back tomorrow into Negro areas to "protect Africans" wishing to return to work. Such forays in recent days brought death and injury to scores.

Today's holiday—the equivalent of Columbus Day in the United States—was ushered in by a night of terror in which four Negroes were shot and wounded in the Nyanga Negro settlement on the outskirts of Capetown after charges by club-wielding police failed to dislodge them.

A schoolhouse was burned on the outskirts of Capetown while in the Durban area troops and police supported by armored cars seized an African hotel in the Lamontville Township and arrested 300 blacks who had driven out white officials on Monday night.

Today was the 308th anniversary of white settlement of the union.

RAIN POSSIBLE TONIGHT, SAYS WEATHER MAN

Marin's balmy weather may end this week with the possibility of rain forecast tonight and tomorrow and again over the weekend.

Temperatures in Marin just before noon today were about the same as they were yesterday at the same time. Today's reading in San Rafael had reached 76 about noon. The high yesterday was 84.

Terra Linda had a high yesterday of 81; Novato, 84; Woodacre 78, and Bolinas, a cool 62.

Legislature Asks Land For New Park

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A Senate joint resolution requesting the federal government to turn over military lands on both side of the Golden Gate to California for a state park won final approval in the Legislature yesterday.

By unanimous vote, the Assembly passed the Senate-approved measure by Marin Sen. Jack F. McCarthy and San Francisco Sen. Eugene McAteer. It asks Congress to give surplus military lands in Fts. Barry, Baker and Cronkhite on the Marin coast and other federal lands edging San Francisco shoreline of the Golden Gate for establishment of a Golden Gate Memorial State Park.

Earlier, the Legislature had approved $250,000 in the budget of the Division of Beaches and Parks for purchase of surplus lands in the same area. Beaches and Parks calls the

Sausalito Moves To Purchase Cove

The Sausalito City Council went on record last night as agreeing in principle to city purchase of Shelter Cove for the preservation of open water and for recreation.

The vote was 4-0.

John E. Koenig Jr. was acting mayor since Mayor Howard Sievers was out of town on business.

The council agreed that a price for the cove lots would be negotiated later between the council and Views Land Co., the owner, that the city would accept gifts offered by citizens, and that the city attorney be directed to have attorneys Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington and Sutcliffe prepare a resolution for a bond issue. The feasibility of purchase by lease-option also will be explored, councilmen decided.

The decision was reached after [illegible] hour's lively discussion.

Councilman Marjorie Brady said a committee working on the property for the city had raised $21,810 from property owners in the cove area, but has not yet approached residents in other parts of town. This amount includes the original sum of $15,000 given by Sally Stanford, whose Valhalla Inn restaurant is in the cove area.

Total price for the eight lots in the cove is estimated at $115,000, although Councilman Phillip S. Ehrlich Jr. said they might be purchased for less.

Sidney Rudy, attorney for Views Land Co., said, "We have a contract for the purchase of the property and the actual recording will take place between now and April 19, and we will have title."

Richard Gladstein, attorney for Miss Stanford, and Clifford Josephson of 406 Main street asked for denial of the use permit for Views Land to build on the property.

Mrs. Brady said: "We have not granted the use permit. Not granting is just as positive a position as denying."

Leonard Bjorklund, representing two land owners in the cove, asked Rudy how much profit his client is allowing himself, also the architects' and attorneys' fees.

Rudy said the profit was 10 per cent of the two pieces of property, and on the cove property there was $3,800 for legal and architects' fees. These fees on the piece of property north of Richardson street, he said, total $4,300.

Sally Stanford asked, "How much did they actually pay for the property?" The answer was $71,000.

Since the 45-day extension granted the city by Views Land Co. was to have run out April 14, Koenig asked for an extension to May 3 and Rudy agreed. Koenig said the extension would have to be beyond the April 19 meeting of the council since that meeting is traditionally taken up with installation of the new council.

Gas Taxes Rising

NEW YORK (UPI)—All government taxes on gasoline fuel have increased more than 54 per cent in the last 10 years, according to the Tax Foundation.

And in the period stretching back to 1941, state gasoline tax receipts alone have tripled, the Foundation reports.

MARIN WARNED TO EXPECT SONIC BOOMS

If you are plagued by an occasional sonic boom for the next few days, relax. It will be part of an operational readiness inspection under way at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Supersonic planes from Hamilton, Castle and Travis Air Force Bases as well as Navy jets from Alameda Naval Air Station will be staging war games throughout the remainder of the week.

"We will not deliberately go supersonic," a base spokesman said, "but occasionally a pilot is likely to get too enthusiastic in pursuit of a target plane and break the sound barrier."

Candlelight Thief Hits In San Rafael

A thief, using a church candle to light his way, prowled through the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael, then ransacked offices in the Odd Fellows Building and took about $120 in cash sometime last night.

Officials of the church at Fifth avenue and E street discovered the entry and called police about 8 a.m. today. Officers then found the American Optical Co., Odd Fellows office, Jenkel-Davidson Optical Co. and Broemmel Pharmacy had also been entered.

The church invasion was almost identical to the entry at the Episcopal Church of Our Savior in Mill Valley last Sunday night. The prowler left a trail of candle drippings at the Mill Valley church, breaking interior doors and windows and taking $54. The San Rafael church burglar also used a candle, but he got no cash.

SAUSALITO . . . CARL WOOLEY
Tells His Aims As Councilman
"I am certainly in favor of a master plan for Sausalito but the one we have has many shortcomings and flaws. It could use extensive modification. For instance, the proposed new zoning ordinance does not, in my opinion, fit the needs of our city. If adopted, it will throw a large percentage of our buildings into immediate non-conformity. It will be impossible to remodel at any time, or replace them in case of 60% or more damage by fire, or other causes. Most small income properties will, within a few years, have to return to one-family residences. Vacant lots now paying high taxes because of duplex zoning will be zoned single-family, with no reduction in taxes. These, and other stringent restrictions, will work great hardships on many citizens. One cannot escape the idea that this ordinance is a rehash of one drawn up for a new city on a level site. It shows little regard for our hillside layout and terrain." April 12 election in Sausalito

Strike Threat Over At San Rafael Hospital

Threat of a strike at San Rafael General Hospital has evaporated.

Members of Hospital Workers Union Local 250 employed at the San Rafael Hospital late yesterday accepted an offer by the hospital foundation's trustee's which provides for a $10-per-month across - the - board raise and a union shop, hospital administrator John H. Prescott announced today.

The union withdrew a request to the Marin County Labor Council for strike sanction, announced Hugh Cassidy, council secretary. It had planned a strike tomorrow unless agreement with the hospital board was reached.

Prescott said the hospital trustees had offered raises ranging up to $20 per month without the union shop clauses, but the union insisted on the clause's inclusion.

The union had had a contract with San Rafael General Hospital for four years, but did not previously have the union shop provision—which requires that all employees become members of the union, although they need not be members when hired.

The contract covers all hospital employees except administrative and nursing. It is retroactive to Feb. 15, the expiration date of the previous contract.

PT. REYES

two large campgrounds proposed in the mountainous areas just north of the point. Three picnic areas are planned in Bear Valley, plus primitive trailside campsites in that beautiful, wooded area.

There would be two major campgrounds and four beach parking and picnic areas along the sweeping shoreline of Drake's Bay, with a major picnic-bathing development at Drake's Beach and at the mouth of Drake's Estero.

Four more picnic-recreation areas are planned along the straight, white beach on the ocean side of the peninsula and a major Tomales Beach development is planned on Tomales Bay just north of the existing state park.

In addition there would be side roads up Mt. Wittenburg and to numerous "overlook points."

The 21,000 acres in the heart of the peninsula, most of which at present is used by dairy ranchers, would either be purchased outright and leased back to the previous owners, or the federal government would purchase a "scenic easement" from the ranchers providing for continued ranching of the property, but not for other development.

About 11,500 acres of dairy land, however, would be acquired for public use and dairying discontinued.

In a 17-page question-and-answers publication, the National Park Service estimates that the total assessed value of the entire 53,000 acres is abopt $1,500,000. More than half of this, $800,000, would be in the 21,000-acre ranch area. The service noted Marin County land and improvements are assessed at approximately 23 per cent of market value and said the total market value is about $6,500,000.

If the government decides to purchase the ranch areas and lease them back, "it probably would be on renewable 10-year leases with fees and payments being determined by the ranching use, property values, economic costs "and other economic factors," the Park Service report says.

A rancher leasing such property would be able to transfer his lease so long as the second rancher assumes the same obligations for continuing ranching activties.

Lessees would have to pay state and county taxes on possessory interest in the property, although the federal government would hold title to the land. There is a possibility in addition that the federal government would pay some in-lieu taxes. It has agreed to do this at Grand Teton National Park.

It is unlikely, the question-and-answer statement went on, that sufficient funds would be made available by the federal government for acquisition of the entire seashore project at one time. If not, the park service would attempt to acquire as soon as possible, the "key properties in the interest of preserving the most important or endangered natural values, and of obtaining land most immediately useful for public recreation."

Even this, however, would not be immediate. A detailed master plan for development and use of the area, including studies on which to base precise boundaries, would have to be drawn before Congress would even consider appropriating money. This would take at least a year, the Park Service stated.

Under normal procedures, it would take the Park Service about 10 years to develop the area to its full potential.

It would be up to the state to decide whether Tomales Bay State Park should be included in the federal development or continued as a state park. And it would be up to Marin County to decide whether Drake's Beach and McClure's Beach would be included.

The question of whether hunting of game and waterfowl would be allowed wouldn't be answered, however, until a decision is reached by state and federal authorities.

What will be the economic effects of the park on Marin County? The park service is conducting a survey to find out. The amount of tax revenues in 1958-59 from the private lands and improvements total $68,700, the service said, more than half of it ($35,100) from the proposed ranching area.

The park service shows that 56 persons and cooperations own property in the area. However, 26 of these are small tracts. Ninety-nine per cent of the property is owned by 25 persons or corporations and six of these own a total of 48 per cent of the entire area.

area Golden Gate Beach State Park.

However, if Congress acceeds to the joint resolution, the property could be donated to the state on the basis of its historic value. If it does not, the state still could buy the property at one half its assessed value.

Thus far only 280 acres of the 4,000-acre proposed park have been declared surplus.

Faculty Salary Raises Favored

Reed Union School District trustees last night decided they were generally in favor of increasing teachers salaries, but took no action until further 1960-61 budget sessions could be held, according to Supt. Paul R. Stouffer.

The proposed salary schedule would raise starting teachers from $4,600 to $4,800 annually. The maximum would be raised from $7,800 to $9,250.

Trustee Alfred J. Azevedo presented his report on the methods of arriving at principals' salaries. Trustees felt that adopting a ration salary schedule related to the highest teacher salary would be the best, Stouffer said. No action was taken.

Chauffeur, Heiress Try Again To Wed

DILLON, S.C. (AP)—An American heiress and her Romanian-born chauffeur who failed in an effort to wed in Paris last Christmas have come to the Carolina tobacco country seeking to seal their love in marriage.

Gamble Benedict and her dark - haired smiling sweetheart, Andre Porumbeanu, filed their application for a marriage license yesterday. The license will be available late today under South Carolina's 24-hour waiting period.

In New York, the Benedict family's lawyer said: "This time he will not get away with it. All necessary measures will be taken to effect her return home."

Miss Benedict is charged with being a wayward minor. She already was a ward of the court as an outgrowth of her trip to France last December aboard a small oil tanker with Porumbeanu.

BOND VOTE

would be "a waste of time" to seek a bond issue.

Mrs. Schultz said she felt the bond issue for a hospital failed because "the story was not taken to the people." She then proposed that the matter be placed on the ballot and that juvenile hall funds be sought from the county retirement fund. But other board members talked against the retirement fund plan, fearing, they said, the retirement fund board would never approve.

"We'd better have bond issues on both," said Fusselman. Then he added that "even the veterans' fund might be used. They just might want a memorial juvenile hall."

"They'll never go for it," said Castro.

Supervisor James Marshall said he thought both issues "should go to the people, and if that fails we can use another method."

Roy A. Ibach, chairman of the county probation committee which has had a hand in the development of the hall plans, told the board: "Our feeling at first was that the money should come out of the general fund. It seems that a 10-cent tax rate would take care of it, and that it could be paid for in a year. That way the taxpayer would not have the recurring expense of the lease arrangement. We're right back where we were last July when we tried to figure the cheapest way."

"Well, I want to see every effort made to get the juvenile hall now," Mrs. Schultz said. Then, in two separate motions, she proposed seeking use of veterans' funds for the hall and the bond issue for the hospital. Fusselman seconded both motions and the voting was unanimous.

Plans approved were those of Crawford and Banning of San Rafael for the hospital, at a fee of $152,922, and of Rolland B. Hammond of San Rafael at $20,680 for the hall. Part of these fees already have been paid.

North Marin Urged To Cut Water Waste

Water conservation in the North Marin Water District was high on the agenda last night as district directors elected Arnold Heise as president and set up committees for the ensuing 12 months.

Committees on construction, finance, personnel and methods and procedure were set up, with two board members appointed to each committee.

SECRETARY NAMED

Beryl R. Morrow, employed by the district as an engineer, was appointed board secretary.

The directors agreed there is no imminent danger of water shortage, but said the district's surplus is not sufficient to permit careless use of water.

Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager and chief engineer, was instructed to draw up an information program to be presenter to the public, possibly in the form of a pamphlet, explaining the need for water conservation and the best use of water during periods of economy.

MEETING SET

The directors also scheduled an informal public meeting for Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the district offices at 834 Vallejo avenue, to kick off a work program toward passage of the $3,790,000 bond issue to bring water to North Marin from the Russian River.

The water would be purchased from the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District and would guarantee the Novato area 10,000 acre feet of water annually.

A news agreement was also approved between the district and the Foxboro Co., which owns, services and maintains equipment at the district's water treatment plant. The agreement calls for continuance of the policy of work done on a cost-plus, hourly basis.

THIEF

Officers Richard Camper and Eugene Frederick said the thief had entered the Odd Fellows building by removing a screen from an open window of a storeroom. The other three medical and optical offices are in the same building.

The prowler got about $85 from Jenkel-Davidson and about $35 from American Optical. Drawers and cabinets were ransacked in the other offices, but nothing of value is missing, police reported.

Inspector Giampoli said the church showed no forced entry, and the prowler may have found a faulty door to get into the school portion of the church. Two windows inside the church school were broken. Investigators found a half-burned candle, which indicated the thief used that for illumination.

Hub Man Pleads Guilty Of Assault

Franklin D. Davis, 26, of San Anselmo, accused of stabbing another man in San Rafael last February, pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon yesterday.

Judge Jordan L. Martinelli of Marin Superior Court set April 25 as the time to hear a probation report and to sentence Davis.

Donald Atwood Travis, 25, of 331 C street, San Rafael, told police he and Davis got into an argument in the 800 block of Fourth street last Feb. 4. Travis said Davis then stabbed him.

San Quentin Official Gets New State Post

Virgil J. O'Malley, correctional officer at San Quentin Prison for seven years, has been appointed planning specialist for correctional facilities of the state Department of Correction, in Sacramento.

O'Malley will continue in his San Quentin duties for a short period, prison officials said.

The new post means O'Malley will aid in planning new institutions and equipment, and in their inspection.

O'Malley was correctional lieutenant and is now correctional captain at the prison. He has been with the department of correction since 1945, but took time in 1951-53 to serve as warden of Oregon State Prison in Salem.

O'Malley has been active in the county as a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club and the Marin County Peace Officers Assn. He is a member of the executive board of the Marin Power Squadron and vice commander of the San Rafael Yacht Club.

His other correctional assignments have included serving as prison industrial manager at Folsom, associate warden of custody at Deuel Vocational Institution then at Lancaster, and associate warden of custody at the Soledad Correctional Training Facility.

He was a correctional captain with the department of correction in New York City and assistant superintendent of Washington State Prison at Walla Walla.

No successor has yet been appointed at San Quentin.

In his new post as planning specialist, O'Malley will succeed Laurence M. Stutsman, who moves to chief of the classification and treatment division.

That post was vacated by Milton Burdman, named to the newly created position of chief of planning and development.

The new planning post was created to seek better methods of operating the state's prisons, which now have a record of 20,000 inmates.

Shop Reports Theft Of Motor, Compressor

Larkspur To Hire Five Additional Teachers

The Larkspur School District board last night authorized hiring of five new teachers to keep pace with an expected 150-200 pupil increase next September.

Supt. Vaughn D. Seidel said the additional teachers would not change average class sizes, now "pushing 40." The state considers 33 pupils per teacher a desirable maximum.

In a lengthy budget session, the board decided it did not want to eliminate from the school program a speech correctionist, psychologist, dental hygienist and nurses.

"The district is in dire need of finances, yet the board wants to do everything possible to put on as fine an educational program as it can," Seidel said.

After considering figures presented by the superintendent, the board decided the budget would allow enough funds to employ the additional five teachers.

Most of these would be needed at Neil Cummins School, where the teaching load is just over 30 pupils, will need no additional teachers, he noted.

Seidel also observed that if the experimental school lunch program involving pre-cooked heat-and-serve meals continues to prove successful, it would probably mean of a saving of about $4,000 for the district—almost enough to pay the salary of one teacher.

The board considered the possibility of renting the vacant Stewart home next door to Larkspur-Corte Madera School for use as district administrative offices and storage. This would free additional rooms in the school for class space.

There was no discussion of salaries or recommendations made previously by the salary committee of the district teachers Association, the superintendent said.

Novato Aspirants To Speak Tonight

Candidates for Novato City Council in the election on April 12 will speak their minds tonight at 8 o'clock at the West Novato School, when a "candidate night" will be sponsored by the Novato Forum.

Five candidates, three of them incumbents, are seeking election to three vacant council seats.

The incumbents are Everett Pozzi, M. E. (Babe) Silva and Harvey J. Vicchio. Seeking to unseat them are Eugene R. Trombley and William Loewen, both defeated in the city's first election on Jan. 12.

Novato Gets Monte Maria District Assets, Liabilities

E. Donald King, president of the Monte Maria Community Services District, which dissolved when Novato incorporated as a city, last night turned over all assets and liabilities of the district to the city.

The district was formed by residents of the 124 homes in the subdivision to improve and beautify the center strips in the area. The residents pledged to tax themselves for three years to pay for construction and maintenance of the strips.

The strips were landscaped by the Good Earth Landscaping Co. of Mill Valley at a cost of $5,000.

Reading a letter from County Counsel Leland H. Jordan, King explained to the city council that it now had the obligation to set up a special taxing district and levy the necessary taxes.

City Clerk Robert O. Bailey told the council he would include the tax in the 1960-61 budget which he is now preparing.

In other financial matters, the council approved claims totaling $2,948. Of this amount, $1,800 was for services by City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. The remainder covered the city liability insurance policy premiums, office supplies, printing, bonding of the city clerk and treasurer and other miscellaneous items.

The council directed Bailey to refer to the Marin County Department of Public Works a petition by 15 residents of Alice street asking for street lighting.

The petition, circulated by Frank H. Schuck, declared they had been paying taxes to the street lighting district and felt street lights were necessary to "discourage prowlers and peeping toms."

Lee Wise, manager of the Novato office of Pacific Gas and Electric Co., said the law requires lights be furnished within a lighting district on petition of 15 or more residents.

A letter from Grover M. Kelley of 717 Olive street also asked for street lighting on Olive between Chase street and Railroad avenue. The councilmen agreed to investigate the area.

In other action last night, the Novato council:

1. Approved expenditure of $466.37 for an IBM standard model electric typewriter and $130 for a reconditioned Burroughs bookkeeping machine. Councilman Everett Pozzi suggested to Bailey that the typewriter be purchased through a Novato dealer if possible.

2. Approved an inventory of street deficiencies within the city limits prepared by the county department of public works.

3. Voted to send the city's clerk-secretary, Mrs. Garry Cook, to a city clerk training school in Berkeley on May 4, 5 and 6 at a cost of $36.

4. Approved a contract with Harry Faustine for janitorial services at city hall at $22.50 a month.

5. Instructed Bailey to have installeda street sign designating Sun lane, on request of Ted Krutzer, a resident of the lane.

6. Put over for further study a request by the county department of public works that the city take action on a request from the subdivider of Hillside subdivision unit 2 for permission to leave an open drainage ditch in the subdivision.

7. Adjourned until April 18 at 8 p.m. This will be the first Monday following the April 12 city council election and a council meeting is required by law for canvassing of votes.

Australians Visit Marin Seminary

Thirty-eight Australians, on a 10-day tour of the United States, visited the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary at Strawberry Point yesterday. They will attend the Baptist World Allies Conference in Rio de Janiero after their U. S. tour.

All of the young church members plan to study for the ministry on their return to Australia, according to Harry R. Koontz, publicity director at the seminary.

Completion Near On Disposal Plant Job

Repair work on the sewage disposal plant in Gallinas Village is moving toward completion, according to reports heard last night by the Gallinas Village Community Services District board.

Legislature Passes Measure To Suppress Vehicle Smog

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California, with well over seven million vehicles, is going to require anti-smog devices on cars throughout the state.

The Legislature made that certain last night in taking the biggest single step yet against the eye-smarting pall of air pollution.

The heavily rural Senate, faced with a reapportionment drive in smog-irritated Southern California, passed the bill 34-3. A few hours later the big city Assembly concurred in Senate amendments, 57-10.

In Los Angeles, the director of the county air pollution district declared the enactment means Southern California will be rid of smog within five or six years.

"There is no question," said Smith Griswold.

Who will have to install smog suppressors?

Every new car sold in the state within a year after two or more devices are certified by a state board.

How about used cars and commercial vehicles?

That will be up to each county or air pollution control district. The devices will be required unless excluded by the county or district.

Unless exempted, used cars which change ownership would have to have the devices within one year, used commercial vehicles within two years, and all used cars within three.

How much will the devices cost?

Nobody can say for sure yet. Estimates range from $60 to $200. Best guess: $100 to $150.

The bill appropriates $500,000 to a state board within the Department of Public Health. The board will contract with private laboratories to test the suppressors.

Los Angeles' Sen. Richard Richards called the measure a "giant stride forward" in the war against dirty air.

NAMED 'DONAHOE ACT'

College Master Plan Nears Final Passage

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A 10-year master plan for higher education was only one step away today from final approval by the Legislature.

The Assembly last night in a rare after-dinner session, voted 70-0 to adopt a bill, already approved in the Senate, which would set the policy for the next decade in the growing development of state colleges and the University of California.

Earlier in the day, the lower house voted 65-0 in favor of a constitutional amendment setting up a separate 16-member board to administer California's 14 state colleges.

The so-called master plan bill for higher education, authored by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez) won approval from the Assembly despite efforts by Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D-Sacramento) to change it.

MacBride tried unsuccessfully to preserve the right of the state Division of Architecture to draw up plans for any buildings constructed in the future by state colleges. But his amendment was tabled on a voice vote.

In the form finally approved by the Assembly, the Miller bill contains some of the provisions originally drafted in a constitutional amendment which was dropped because of fears that it would weaken legislative control over state colleges.

Miller amended the bill in Assembly Ways and Means Committee yesterday to name it the "Donahoe Higher Education Act" to honor Assembly Dorothy M. Donahoe (D-Bakersfield). One of the original framers of the act who died in Sacramento Monday night.

The master plan, formulated by a blue-ribbon committee of educators over a one-year period, is designed to separate state college administration from the state Board of Education and prescribe major instructional territories of each system.

The 16-member board of trustees over state colleges would be appointed by the governor for eight-year terms and would be allowed to run the institutions in much the same way the University of California now is administered.

The bill also creates a coordinating council for higher education comprised of three representatives each from the University of California, state colleges, junior colleges and private institutions.

Bill Allowing Pedestrian Malls Passed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's Legislature has voted final approval to a comprehensive new act permitting cities ad counties to create pedestrian malls.

The bill, by Assemblyman Ernest R. Geddes (R-Claremont, went to Gov. Edmund G. Brown for his expected signature after the Assembly votd 61?0 yesterday to concur in Senate amendments.

The bill was sponsored by 65 cities with an eye toward helping downtown areas in their competition for customers with suburban shopping centers.

The legislation sets up a procedure for creating malls, bringing scattered state laws under one act. It provided that property owners displaced by the malls can seek damages.

Bay Crusade Ups 1960 Goal To $11.2 Million

The United Bay Area Crusade will aim at $11,250,000 in its 1960 "Big Give" drive, which will begin Sept. 19.

The Crusade's 300-member board of governors from all five counties set this goal — $810,000 more than was raised last year—at a meeting today at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco.

Employee groups who helped raise last year's record $10,501,000 learned of the 1960 goal at an awards luncheon immediately after the board of governors' meeting. Present were representatives of groups honored for being outstandingsly generous in their gifts last fall, members of the board of governors, Crusade agency board members and others.

The campaign committee recommended setting the goal 7.7 per cent higher than the total raised last year, because the cost of living has gone up and so have costs facing the Crusade's 263 member agencies, said W. Parmer Fuller III, general campaign chairman. Fuller is vice president of W. P. Fuller and Co.

Raising the higher goal also would provide for the possible admission of new agencies and help the Crusade keep pace with population growth in the Bay Area, Fuller added.

Emmett G. Solomon, chairman of the Crusade board, presided and thanked the award winning employee groups, as well as the trade unions and professional associations they represented. He also expressed appreciation to other generous employee groups which did not qualify for awards last fall.

The state House of Representatives finally has removed from the books an 1864 law calling for the detention of any person claimed as a fugitive slave.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Southerners Still Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern senators opposed to the House-passed civil rights bill kept hammering away today at its key voting rights section despite the heavy odds against them.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), leader of the Dixie forces, discounted talk that Senate passage of the measure is imminent.

He did not, however, rule out the possibility the Senate might complete action and send the bill back to the House by the weekend.

A 14-hour session yesterday produced only one vote. By a 64-29 tally, the Senate rejected an amendment by Sen. Sam J. Ervin (D-N.C.) to a provision of the bill which would permit federal judges to register Negroes and other minority groups who are victims of discrimination. Ervin's proposal would have required the judges to give advance notice to state officials and let them testify.

Group Backs Castro

NEW YORK (UPI) — A newly formed "Fair Play for Cuba Committee" charged today that a powerful section of the U.S. press is distorting news from Cuba against the regime of Premier Fidel Castro.

In a large advertisement in the New York Times, the group offered to send "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to anyone who wrote asking information.

The committee is headed by author Waldo Frank. Sponsors of the ad included Truman Capote, Simon de Beauvoir, Norman Mailer, Kenneth Tynan and Jean Paul Sartre, the committee said.

Minor Party In Peril

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's Prohibition Party won't get any help from the Legislature this year in its fight to stay alive.

The Assembly yesterday rejected a bill which would have permitted a political party with fewer than 10,000 members in the state or 100 in a county to qualify for the general election by ballot by getting write-in votes in the primary equal to one-tenth of its registered membership.

Bond Vote Slated

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California voters will get a chance, probably in the June primary, to pass upon a 400 million dollar bond issue to continue the veterans farm and home purchase program.

This was assured yesterday by Senate passage of a bill by Assemblyman Myron V. Frew (D-Dinuba) putting the bond issue on the ballot.

More Scholarships

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill to double the number of state scholarships given California students today went to Gov. Edmund G. Brown's desk.

The measure, if signed by Brown, would provide 2,560 state scholarships in the 1960-61 school year with further increases each year on a sliding scale to a maximum of 5,120 state grants in the 1964-65 school year and thereafter.

Latin Aid Urged

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Colombian President Alberto Lleras Camargo asked Congress today to help Latin America quickly before economic backwardness causes a shift to dictatorships or Communism.

Lleras warned there is grave risk if the United States is "too late or too little" in helping Latin America emerge from poverty.

The Colombian chief executive, on a four-day state visit as a guest of President Eisenhower, delivered a speech which was moderate in tone but unmistakably clear regarding Latin America's need for economic aid.

Allied Chiefs Talk

LONDON (AP)—French President Charles de Gaulle and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan met early today on various world issues expected to arise at next month's Big Four summit conference.

It was their second and last formal business session scheduled for de Gaulle's three-day state visit to Britain.

Disarm Hopes Dim

GENEVA (UPI) — The West said today that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's boasts of a "fantastic new weapon" in the Soviet arsenal made his announcement of troop reductions meaningless and underlined the necessity for ironclad disarmament controls.

British delegate David Ormsby-Gore told the 10-nation East-West disarmament conference that Khrushchev's announcement that Russia is cutting her troop strength by another 1,200,000 men in the next two years is not a real disarmament measure.

The 17th session of the conference lasted two hours and 22 minutes, but did nothing to break the East-West deadlock.

Top western cources said they had lost hope of any serious disarmament negotiations before the summit conference next month in Paris.

Shift In Missiles

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today approved plans for bolstering the Atlas and Polaris missile programs. Some continental defense programs, including the Super-Sage and Bomarc projects, will be cut back.

Air Force officials previously testified before Congress on the switch in Defense Department emphasis and the President approved the changes today.

Turks Acquit Cops

IZMIR, Turkey (AP)—A Turkish judge today acquitted three Turkish policemen charged with beating two U.S. Army sergeants after their arrest on suspicion of black market currency deals. The judge said there was no valid evidence to convict the policemen.

Stokowski To Retire

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Leopold Stokowski announced yesterday he will retire as director of the Houston Symphony Orchestra after the 1960-61 season.

Stokowski told a concert audience of his plans at the final performance of the season. He has been under contract here since 1955.

Kentfield Trustees Eye Bigger Budget

Kentfield School District trustees Monday examined a tentative "first-draft" budget calling for expenditures of $562,354 for the 1960-61 school year.

The current budget lists expenditures of $470,359.

The tentative budget includes $11,000 more in capital outlay than this year. The bulk of these funds will go for proposed ground improvements, student lockers and an intercommunication system at Kent School.

The board will meet again April 18.

Weather Rockets Fired

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government scientists have set up a network of weather rocket stations to check atmospheric conditions twice as high as weather balloons can reach.

The idea was tried for a month, Jan. 18 to Feb. 19, with daily rocket firings from Wallops Island, Va., and Point Mugu.

SUPERVISORS ROUNDUP

Minimum Lot Size Set For Big Area

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday voted to amend the county zoning ordinance to provide for interim minimum lot sizes of one acre in a vast area near Stinson Beach and Bolinas.

The interim plan would exclude much of the present built-up area of the two towns, but would include a large area known as Rancho Las Baulinas.

In taking the action, the board satisfied both the county planning commission, which recommended the action, and Felix M. Warburg of Belvedere, who also owns property at Bolinas. Warburg, working independently of the commission, previously had sought a four-acre lot minimum.

Warburg told the board that he and the commission now agree.

Hurford Sharron, chairman of the committee, said that while Warburg should be credited with "giving this thing a kick in the right direction, I think the people of the area should get credit." Both he and Warburg were commended by members of the board.

It was also learned that an application for zoning for a senior citizens' home would be null and void unless an exception is requested and granted prior to formal adoption of the amendment.

The official papers will be prepared by County Counsel Leland H. Jordan and Marvin W. Brigham, director of the department of public works.

In other matters, the supervisors denied a request from Walter Busher, county probation officer, for payment of $745.21 for overtime for seven of his deputy probation officers who had accumulated more than 40 hours of overtime.

It was pointed out that the request did not comply with the salary ordinance.

The board approved a recommendation by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen that compensating time off should be accumulated only where a special report of overtime has been completed and approved by the immediate supervisor. Such reports of overtime should not be made for 15-minute intervals, short lunch hours or other brief periods, the recommendation stated.

Jensen noted in another recommendation that the generally accepted policy was that no paid overtime be approved for professional county employees (such as engineers, doctors, probation officers, etc.), unless specifically authorized in advance by the board of supervisors for a particular project.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said that members of the probation committee should get copies of an audit of overtime in the probation department, prepared by Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell.

County Clerk George S. Jones commented that there was a "lot of laxity around" in county government on the matter of overtime, and it "ought to be checked into." He suggested a representative of the auditor or county administrator should check time books from time to time.

The supervisors also:

1. Approved a recommendation from County School Supt. Virgil S. Hollis for consolidation of tax elections in Dixie, San Jose and Stinson Beach School Districts with the June 7 primary elections. County Clerk Jones said that because of the requests for consolidated elections, the only practical solution was to have special ballots printed for each election. Separate rosters and ballot boxes will be provided, he said.
2. Approved compensation for election officers as suggested by Jones.
3. Received a copy of a letter from the Family Service Agency to the Mental Health Advisory Board urging the board obtain state grant-in-aid funds for Marin County through the Short-Doyle Act.
4. Re-appointed Ralph B. Rogers a commissioner of the Sleepy Hollow Fire District, since no one has filed for the vacancy.
5. Received a letter from Owens-Marin Yacht Sales Inc. urging the board to again add to its budget an allocation of $500 to the California State Chamber of Commerce.
6. Approved a recommendation from the county superintendent to permit Mrs. J. Lee Chaille, in charge of the federal census in the San Rafael area, to use office space in the county school administration building for census purposes.
7. Learned that the First Presbyterian Church of Novato has agreed to provide, rent free, storage for one of the large federal first aid stations previously located at Albert Field in San Rafael. Another has been placed at Pt. Reyes. The City of San Rafael had asked that the stations be moved.
8. Referred to the public works director a letter from City Manager A. E. Almcrants of Mill Valley asking for consideration and cooperation in the matter of improving street lighting at the Camino Alto-Miller avenue intersection.
9. Received a letter from the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council asking for the board position on the Pt. Reyes Park question and inviting the board to attend a forum on the matter at Reed School at 8 p.m. tomorrow.
10. Received a report from the advisory board of Zone 3 of the Marin County Flood and Water Conservation District that three members had approved a recommendation that the county endeavor to solve flood control problems on a county-wide basis; obtain available federal and state funds; and there be an annual county-wide levy to finance other flood control projects in the future.
11. Approved payment of $5,818 in legal fees for the Del Mar Special Assessment District.
12. Received a letter from Sen. Clair Engle asking the board to present its views on the Pt. Reyes Park proposal at the Senate hearing April 14 in Kentfield.
13. Referred to the probation committee a recommendation from the county superintendent that the name of the Juvenile Hall School be changed because records of each of the schools a pupil has attended appear on his transcript of records.
14. Decided that as many board members as possible would meet at the Edgewater Inn, Corte Madera, to discuss master planning problems with Corte Madera officials and take a field tour. The meeting has been set for 2 p.m., Saturday.
15. Decided to meet at 10 a.m., May 11, with the county personnel commission to discuss commission rules that have never formally been approved by the board.
16. Appointed Merl Dean Mauroni as a building inspector in the public works department at $458 monthly, and Louise M. Walter as supervising branch librarian at $376 monthly.

Senate Kills Probe Of Car Insurance

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A Senate committee yesterday turned thumbs down on a proposal to investigate the effect of setting up zones for automobile insurance rates in California.

Sen. Eugene McAteer (D-San Francisco), author of the resolution, said car insurance rates are higher in urban areas than in surrounding rural areas although the suburbanites commute into the cities for work.

He said this leads to "a lot of inequities" in insurance rates and that one way to solve this could be the zoning procedure.

Enlist In Navy

Pat C. Laufenberg, 18, son of Mrs. Dorothy Laufenberg of 192 Belvedere street, San Rafael, and Donald H. May Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. May Sr., of 402 Via Del Plano, Novato, enlisted in the Navy this week at the Marin County Navy Recruiting office, 1116 Fourth street, San Rafael, for a four year tour of duty. They were sent to the Naval Training Center in San Diego for nine weeks of recruit training.

Miller Park Attendant's Pact Junked

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday terminated its contract with Ben Wilson, an attendant at Miller Park on Tomales Bay.

Wilson has been in charge of parking cars and attending to a ramp under a contract with the county's department of public works.

The board said that the contract had to be terminated because of a ruling from the state attorney general's office that the county could not legally collect parking fees at the park.

Wilson had been paid 65 per cent of the fees and the county took 35 per cent. The arrangement had been in effect for about six months.

"For the time being, there will be no maintenance and no attendant out there," said Supervisor James Marshall.

2nd Hopeful Asks For Seat On Transit Board

James H. Rowe Sr. of 109 Orange street, San Rafael, yesterday became the second candidate to seek the position on the Bay Area Rapid Transit District Board of Directors being vacated by John C. Beckett.

He asked the Marin County Board of Supervisors for appointment to the position, noting in a letter that he was "familiar with existing transportation problems of the Bay Area."

Last week Price J. Hall of 48 Frances avenue, Larkspur, also asked the board for the appointment.

Beckett has announced his intention to resign from the board, "probably in May."

Hall was interviewed by the board yesterday afternoon and was told that a decision would be made when all applicants had been heard from.

Rowe, a resident of Marin County for seven years, has a 38-year background in architectural and structural engineering, he told the board. Twenty-one of those years were with the federal government.

He was active in supporting legislation in Southern California for an enabling act to help metropolitan districts with transportation problems.

He lived in Redwood City and San Francisco before moving to Marin.

Honor Among Thiefs

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI) —Highway patrolmen investigating the crash of an automobile into a tree quoted the driver, Alexander Valencia, 21, as saying he was behind the wheel only as a favor to his friend, Serapio Alvarado, 26.

Alvarado, a passenger in the car, was quoted as saying he had stolen the vehicle but didn't feel he ought to drive it since he didn't have an operator's license.

UNINVITED GUEST

Anybody Missing One Gentle Black Bull?

An 18-month-old Angus bull, given the gate by a West Novato rancher before springtime and 35 heifers could turn his head, will be auctioned off at the Marin County Humane Society at noon Saturday.

the bull's new host and executive secretary of the Humane Society.

With the onset of spring and such, the rancher decided the time had come for his uninvited guest to leave. Since last Thursday the 350-pound Angus has been penned in a corral on the county farm in Lucas Valley.

If the owner doesn't arrive to claim his meandering bull, the Angus will go to the highest bidder at Saturday's auction, to be held at 402 Third street, San Rafael, Morse said.

The one difficult aspect of the misplaced bovine, Morse reported, was that "no one is looking for it." The bull has an ear tag showing he has been vaccinated.

He's a gentle fellow, Morse and county farm attendants agreed.

Quentin Kids May Study In San Rafael

San Rafael School Supt. Frank L. Lucas tonight will attempt to work out an agreement with trustees of the San Quentin School District to send San Quentin seventh and eighth graders to San Rafael schools next fall.

Lucas received a nod of approval from a committee of the San Rafael Board of Education last night during a discussion of the San Rafael Elementary District Budget."

Lucas said the board gave informal approval to the plan which had been requested by the San Quentin board. He said one of the first things he will talk to the San Quentin trustees about will be charges.

Lucas said the matter probably will come up again during a regular board meeting Tuesday night.

The superintendent said he felt the board will be able to hold the 1960-61 tax rate to $1.63. Present rate is $1.50 and the ceiling approved at a recent election is $1.75.

The committee considered revising the salary schedule of elementary teachers to bring them in line wtih the high school salaries, Lucas said.

Most of the discussion centered around addition to the administrative staff. The committee said Lucas probably would take over the duties of board secretary to replace Victor Jones.

Young Job Hunter Runs Into Trouble

An 11-year-old San Rafael girl went job hunting at an upholstery shop on Francisco boulevard yesterday, then ran when the proprietor began asking her questions about her age and why she was not at school.

Police Officer Thomas Cheetham, called to the Adolph Briesh upholstery shop, learned that the girl climbed a wire fence and scampered through the drive-in theater at San Quentin wye, then headed toward Highway 101. Highway patrolmen intercepted her.

Fairfax Hopefuls Air Their Views

The three candidates vying for the two posts open on the Fairfax City Council aired their views on community issues last night before about 30 members of the Ridgeway Park Improvement Club.

Candidates Robert E. Nolan, Waldemar E. Radtke and Lawrence F. Walsh said they favored at least parts of the proposed city plan. A discussion period followed their statements.

The next meeting of the improvement group will be May 10 at the Arthur Shapiro residence, 151 Ridgeway avenue.

Two Bodies Found

REDDING (AP)—Bodies of a San Jose couple who vanished March 25 were found in the wreckage of their light plane 40 miles north of Redding yesterday.

The Stinson Voyager in which the victims, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Rook, had left for Redding was found on side of a steep, heavily timbered mountain.

DOG BESTED IN RACE PROVES POOR LOSER

A little dachshund dog, leading three highway patrolmen on a merry footrace, at Corte Madera wye, created a near-traffic jam about 5 p.m. yesterday.

Patrolman Duncan D. Snell said motorists were screeching to a stop just south of the wye as the dog toed the white line between the slow and middle lanes of the freeway, then ran to the east side and scampered parallel to the highway.

Patrolman Jerry Walkup was the first officer on the scene. Then Snell and Officer Al Bragg arrived. All three jumped out of their patrol cars and started after the dachshund. Three boys also joined the chase and helped catch the dog.

Tennis Court Plans Told

Plans for a proposed tennis court in Fairfax as a memorial to late Police Chief Andy J. Peri are moving toward completion.

Fairfax Recreation Commission members, meeting last night, heard reports that a citizens' committee is raising funds for courts. The Fairfax School District has approved lease of a lot below Central School for courts.

Commission members spent about two hours in discussion of development of Fairfax City Park. Improvement, to come under regular present city budget allotments, includes construction of a rock barrier around the area formerly used for festivals, planting of grass and shrubs, and possible construction of horseshoe pits and bocci ball facilities.

Prowler On Horseback Seen At Sleepy Hollow

Lester Howard Clark, an attorney of 1444 Butterfield road, called the sheriff about 1:30 a.m. today when he saw a man on horseback on his lawn, peering through the bedroom window.

While Deputy George Tsegeletos was talking to Clark, he heard hoofbeats along the road. He caught up with a horse about a quarter mile away, but there was no rider. The horse had no bridle or saddle.

Three deputies from the sheriff's office and an officer from the Marin County Humane Society corraled the horse and impounded it at the Sleepy Hollow Stables for the night.

There was no sign of the prowling rider.

Larkspur Site Approved For Billboard

Forced by the Corte Madera Town Council to remove a nonconforming billboard from a Highway 101 frontage site, Stockman took his cause to the Larkspur Planning Commission and got a sympathetic reception.

He told the planners he had leased a site on the west side of the freeway, several hundred feet north of the old Corte Madera site and just within the City of Larkspur, from the Northwestern Pacific Railroad. On it, he said, he wants to erect a 480-square-foot billboard visible to northbound and southbound motorists.

The commission gave him permission to do so.

Drunken Driver Gets $150 Fine

Norman L. Buchanan, 44, of 751 Calle de la Mesa, Novato, drew a $150 fine and nine months probation yesterday for his first drunken driving offense.

He must also spend 20 days in county jail beginning Friday night for violating probation on a previous drunkenness conviction. Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court gave Buchanan work-furlough privileges, and allowed him liberty during Easter weekend.

James Maxwell Wilson, 33, of South San Francisco also drew $150 fine and nine months probation for driving while intoxicated on Highway 101 last Saturday.

Parole Denied Two Inmates Of Quentin

Two San Quentin inmates convicted in Marin County — one of murder and the other of robbery—were denied parole by the Adult Authority last week, reported Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff.

Parole consideration was postponed another year for Wallace Cox, who is serving a life sentence for the 1941 slaying of a fellow inmate. Cox, who entered San Quentin in 1939 after conviction of auto theft, participated in the murder of an inmate whose throat was slashed in the prison basement. The victim's body was found stuffed in a ventilator.

Tried in Marin Superior Court, Cox was convicted of the slaying and sentenced to life. In 1952 he was paroled. Three years later he was convicted of attempted robbery in Los Angeles County and returned to San Quentin to resume the life sentence.

William Lawrence Hart, 23, who used a sawed-off shotgun to rob the Owl Drug Store in San Anselmo in July, 1958, was also denied parole. He is serving a one-year-to-life sentence.

Trial Slated For Accused Rapist

A 25-year-old San Francisco waiter and writer, accused of raping a 20-year-old North Beach artist among the rocks near Stinson Beach last September, will be tried by jury on May 10.

He is John Alva Gordon, who is charged with attempted rape and rape of the girl who was accompanied by her 19-year-old cousin from San Gabriel at the time. The girls said Gordon wielded a paring knife and threatened them. They told sheriff's deputies Gordon attacked the older girl while the cousin was forced to stand by.

Gordon appeared in Marin Superior Court Monday before Judge Harold J. Haley and pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity.

County Planners Continue Request

A request for architectural supervision of plans for an addition to the Goodman Building Supply Co. on Redwood Highway at Alto was continued until the next meeting Monday by the Marin County Planning Commission, so the county counsel can investigate the legality of the existing land use.

Mrs. Mary Summers, planning director, said the area in the lumbed company uses for a storage yard is not zoned as light industrial, and the use is in violation of the existing zoning ordinances.

U.S. Funds Asked For San Rafael Canal Dredging

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera) and Dan E. Andersen, San Rafael city manager, urged a federal appropriation for dredging San Rafael Canal in appearances yesterday and today before appropiations committee of the House and Senate.

Miller also urger appropriations for a survey of proposed Bolinas refuge harbor and completion of the Richardson Bay survey.

The Corte Madera congressman said he made the San Rafael project the No. 1 public works project in his six-county district, despite the fact it had not been included in the public works budget.

He and Andersen urged that $185,000 for the dredging be added to the public works bill as a line item.

In urging the appropriation, Miller declared his district "has the longest coastline by far of any congressional district in the United States." He also called attention to "strong local support evidenced for this project."

Andersen displayed pictures of San Rafael Canal, showing developments along it and possibilities if it is dredged to greater depth. He stressed the flood control role of the canal as well as its economic value.

Miller also cited the importance of the Bolinas and Richardson Bay projects.

He pointed out that the Richardson Bay survey had been nearly completed under a previous appropriation, and said $5,000 additional would finish the job. He asked $15,000 for surveys of the Bolinas refuge harbor project.

The congressman said Rep. Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.), chairman of the House committee, and Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), acting chairman of the Senate committee, "expressed great interest" in the San Rafael project.

The committee also heard a plea by Robert H. Langner, manager of the Marine Exchange, for $600,000 to speed up the comprehensive San Francisco Bay survey under way by the Army Corps of Engineers.

Langner, representing the Bay Region Marine Affairs Conference, presented a list of proposed projects exceeding by $5,100,000 the amount allocated for such projects in the President's budget. The list included the $185,000 for San Rafael Canal, but did not include the Richardson Bay and Bolinas surveys.

BUT SITE IS SHIFTED

Trampoline Center Project Wins Approval In Novato

Trampolines for Novato were approved last night by the city council after the site was bounced from a front corner of the Nave Shopping Center to an unobstrusive spot at the rear of Brice Brothers Market.

Appearing before the council to oppose the proposed location of a trampoline center near their Plaza Loma homes were James McConnell and John Forrest.

Al Silver, secretary of the Jumpolene Corp., which plans to install the center, said he was willing to accept any spot the council would approve for him, although he felt the noise objection was being exaggerated.

"I assure you, these kids aren't going to yell 'Whee!' on every jump," he told the neighboring residents. "They're too pooped after a jumps to make any noise at all."

With the help of B. D. Dobbs, principal planner for the Marin County Planning Commission, the council finally located the trampoline area on the southerly corner of the shopping center in the rear of the market.

Details of the exact location of the project and matters of architectural supervision of construction can be worked out later, Dobbs said.

For the second time, the council turned down an application by Louis B. Diaz for an amendment to the zoning ordinance to permit multiple dwellings on his three and three-quarters acres at Center road and Diablo avenue.

The application, turned down by the council some weeks ago, had been again denied by the county planners. Last night's presentation of the request constituted an appeal.

In upholding the planners' rejection of the Diaz request, the council made it possible for the request to be made again for two years.

The council continued until its May 3 meeting a request by Henry Kaehler to allow his contractor's building to remain on a duplex subvision on Second street north of Olive avenue.

The postponement was granted so Kaehler can investigate further a piece of property he said was suitable for his needs and for which he was negotiating.

In other action pertaining to planning, the Novato council:

1. Approved a 240-square foot sign for Lee Brothers market, under construction on Grant avenue. Although the sign is oversize according to county requirements, the county planners had approved it "on its merits."

2. Granted a use permit to allow construction of a Baptist Church in Loma Verde subdivision within the city limits.

3. Amended the zoning ordinance by emergency reading to permit commercial improvements on the Western California Telephone Co. property fronting on Diablo avenue and Novato boulevard. The property, according to Dobbs, had been accepted as commercially zoned and used commercially for many years, but through an oversight had never been legally designated as commercially zoned.

4. Approved construction of improvements including streets and gutters in St. Francis Heights Unit 2, prior to final approval of the subdivision map. The same procedure, allowed by the county planning commission over the objections of its staff, enables the contractor, John Novak, to proceed without filing a construction bond.

OWWWWWWW! — Lloyd Morgan wanted to do it himself. Morgan, manager of Fairfax Lumber Co.'s Home Improvement Center, wanted to nail up his own poster announcing the center's first anniversary and do-it-yourself show Friday and Saturday. How not to get the result he got will be demonstrated at the show. (Ken Molino photo)

Fairfax Firm To Present Do-It-Yourself Program

Customers of Fairfax Lumber Co.'s Home Improvement Center will get a bonus Friday and Saturday when the center stages a first-year anniversary celebration.

Scheduled for the two-day event are specially priced merchandise, demonstrations and displays of tools and building supplies by factory representatives, free gifts for all and prizes including a three-day trip for two to Las Vegas.

The center opened last April as part of the expansion program which has made the company a center for lumber, millwork and hardware supplies and do-it-yourself provisions. The lumber company has been in operation since 1922 and has been under the present management since 1945.

Board Approves Sewer Service To Rec Center

The Tiburon Sanitary District board has agreed to serve the Southern Marin Recreation Center until it is annexed into the sanitary district, according to commission secretary Robert A. Sterling.

Commissioners unanimously voted disapproval of transfer of treatment capacities from one area to another within the district.

COUNCIL CANDIDATE LEE PIERACCINI SAYS:

These are my general aims and feelings on matters that will be facing the Council during the next few years:

The needs and desires of all the citizens of Sausalito must be carefully weighed on subjects that affect all the citizens. This weighing of judgment should stem from the value to be received as it relates to the cost involved to each citizen, whether by specific tax increase or by the use of presently accumulated funds.

Civic improvements and advancements should be made steadily, but orderly, within our ability to pay.

Emphasis should be made to make use of the talents and abilities of our own citizens as well as our elective and appointive offices.

Strong efforts should be expended in attracting new desirable business and light industry. In this respect our zoning ordinances must be carefully designed to properly protect present property owners, not to discourage new property owners to invest and broaden the scope of our local economy. Increased revenue to the City for use in improvements and advancements can only come from higher tax rolls, not higher tax rates.

Our waterfront and our people constitute our most valuable assets. The use of our waterfront should be for the benefit of our people, both economically, esthetically and recreational.

I believe that it is inherently and morally wrong for the City Government to pass on to the next tax-paying generation heavy indebtedness for obsolete works that do not fit that generation.

We must give very careful, sound, forward thinking to all capital expenditures in order that we may be sure our children and their children view their inheritance with pride and gratitude.

A political platform during election times is sometimes a tricky device. I am not a politician and the above words are not a platform. They are words that reflect my honest desires in serving my fellow citizens if I am elected to the City Council.

SAUSALITO CITY ELECTION APRIL 12

Services Unit In Terra Linda Appoints Aide

Mrs. Charlotte Gurin of 628 Bamboo Terrace last night was appointed general manager and clerk of the Terra Linda Community Services District.

The district board of directors accepted "with regret" the resignation of Jack Brandon of 649 Bamboo Terrace, who held the position since the district was created in 1958. Brandon resigned to campaign for election as director on the June 7 ballot. The board gave him a letter of commendation.

Brandon, who previously was manager of the Terra Linda League which preceded the services district, has been sharply critical of some board policies, particularly as they concern possible annexation of Terra Linda to San Rafael.

Mrs. Gurin, 38, is the wife of Norman Gurin, a soils engineer for Dames and Moore, San Francisco. They have one child, Patricia, 9.

She has served for one month as paid secretary to the board. She receives $25 a month for that job and will get another $25 a month as clerk and general manager.

In other business, the board:

1. Adopted a fire hydrant law that will require contractors to obtain a permit from the Terra Linda Fire Department, as well as from the Marin Municipal Water District, for use of district fire hydrants. The law makes the contractor liable for any damage to a hydrant.

2. Gave official support to the establishment of a seashore recreation area on the Pt. Reyes Peninsula after a written request from the Pt. Reyes National Seashore Foundation.

3. Gave an engraved gavel to John P. Namle, a director, in recognition of his services as board president during 1958 and 1959. Namle, who term is expiring, is a candidate for re-election.

Building Permit Total Down In Belvedere

Permits for three new houses in Belvedere were taken out last month in the amount of $82,360 and permits for six alterations in the amount of $27,691, according to City Manager Britton Rey.

Weissich Gives Warning On Misleading Ads

The person who mailed "misleading advertising" to solicit money from Marin businessmen last week will be prosecuted in criminal court if he does not make the necessary corrections, Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich declared today.

Furthermore, anyone who sent in money may get a refund by asking for it.

Weissich got this assurance yesterday from Richard Lundegard of Pleasant Hill, who mailed the advertisements to various merchants last Thursday.

Weissich said Lundegard's letters of solicitation constitute misleading advertising, a violation of the state Business and Professional Code. At first glance, the advertisement appears to be a bill for yellow-page telephone directory listings, although the fine print says otherwise.

Weissich met in his office yesterday with Lundegard and his attorney, Harry Glassman, Richard L. Shirley of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, and E. G. Beeley of the San Francisco Better Business Bureau.

Weissich said Lundegard agreed to submit to him by Friday proposed changes in forms and stationery of the advertisement to make sure it is no longer misleading.

"If they do not make the changes, I will file a criminal complaint against Mr. Lundegard," said Weissich.

The district attorney said Lundegard gave this assurance: If anyone feels he has been mislead or wants his money back, all he has to do is ask for it. Lundegard will refund the money.

Bishop To Officiate At School Groundbreaking

Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, will officiate at ground breaking ceremonies for the San Rafael Military Academy's new auditorium at 4 p.m. tomorrow.

Bishop Pike will be accompanied by Bishop Henry H. Shires, suffragen bishop (retired) of the California diocese, it was announced today by academy business manager A. C. Agnew.

Paul Ciampi, president of the academy's board, and headmaster E. M. Hitton will also participate in the ceremonies.

The auditorium, a $96,000 building to be located on the portion of the academy grounds formerly occupied by tennis courts, will have a seating capacity of 500. President Ciampi said it will be the first unit of an expansion program which is planned also to include a new administrative building.

RUSH EXPECTED

Deadline Monday On Tax Payments

About four million dollars in tax payments must pour into the county tax collector's office by Monday night if taxpayers want to avoid penalties.

M. F. Donohue, county tax collector, today warned taxpayers that the deadline for payment is 5 p.m. Monday. The deadline is set by law as April 10. But since it falls on a Sunday this year, taxpayers get a day of grace. They may take their payments to the courthouse or mail them in, with the postmark not later than 5 p.m. Monday.

As of yesterday, $2,508,000 of the second installment taxes had been paid, Donohue reported. This leaves about four million dollars still to go.

"Everything points to a last-minute rush," he said.

The total tax bill for Marin this year was $16,104,000.

The tax collector reported that this year, more tax bills have been reported lost and more post-dated checks are being mailed than in past years. Donohue pointed out that he is not allowed to take post-dated checks. In some instances, he has been mailing them back to the senders.

Motel Owner Gives Clue To Fugitive

DENVER (UPI) — A suburban motel owner disclosed yesterday that a man he now believes was Joseph Corbett Jr. tried to rent a room from him the night of Feb. 9, shortly after millionaire Adolph Coors III disappeared under circumstances indicating he was kidnaped.

Corbett last Wednesday was placed on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted men as a fugitive from a California prison. He also is wanted for questioning about Coors' disappearance.

(Corbett was convicted of the murder of Sgt. Alan L. Reed of the Western Air Defense Force in Larkspur on Dec. 22, 1950. He escaped from Chino Prison five years ago.)

The motel owner, Fred Schmidt, said he was so suspicious of the man at the time he notified the Jefferson County sheriff's office. However, Schmidt said he did not connect his would-be patron with Coors' disappearance until last week when Corbett's picture was first published locally and he was linked with the Coors case.

Schmidt then reported the incident to the FBI, whose agents have questioned him since at length.

Sausalito Restaurant Gets Permit For Mooring Buoys

The Sausalito City Council last night approved by 3-to-1 vote the placing of three mooring buoys on city property adjoining the Ondine Restaurant.

Benjamin Dreyfus, representing the restaurant, was told the city would charge a rental to be set by the council, and that it would be for a trial period of one year. The buoys are not to be used for excursions, Dreyfus was told.

Councilman George E. Keeney voted against it, declaring, "The first thing we're going to have is a honkytonk. Next thing you know, someone will want to put balloons up on the roof."

Dreyfus said, "We have constant requests from monied people who desire to dine at Ondine, but have no place to tie up. It's merely an accommodation for the larger and finer boats which we cannot tie to a fragile little float."

Frank Pistolesi, who owns apartments across the street from Ondine, objected to the buoys on the grounds they would block the view and add to the parking problem.

Dreyfus, who originally asked permission to put in five buoys, withdrew his request for two of them so all buoys could be placed behind the restaurant building and thus not obstruct the view.

The Sausalito council also:

1. Authorized the city engineer to obtain bids for construction of a tennis court at South View Park.
2. Called for bids to be opened May 5 for construction of a parking lot at Bridgeway and Bay street, assuming that there is no objection from the subcommittee studying the matter. The lot is to hold 157 cars and is estimated to cost $14,000.
3. Approved warrants totaling $35,310.
4. Authorized City Manager Charles A. Brown to work out a plan whereby people parking on the city's monthly plan parking lot might have windshield stickers allowing them to park any place in the area.
5. Voted 3-0, Councilman George E. Keeney abstaining, to refer to a committee revisions to the ordinance regulating the use of boats, arks or barges as dwellings. The primary purpose is to look into regulation of water pollution.
6. Adopted an ordinance entering into contract with the state employees retirement system, as of May 1.
7. Voted 3-1, Keeney opposing, that the city manager and building inspector be insteructed to refuse a building permit to Alta Mira Hotel to enlarge its dining area by 400 spaces until the correct use for the zoning of the hotel is decided.
8. Authorized the city manager to investigate setting up a fire hazard inspection program, and to investigate the water pressure when the city is fighting a large fire.
9. Approved Rudy Lang Jr.'s request to change name of Sacramento avenue to Ebbtide avenue.

Motherwell To Gamble

WASHINGTON (AP) — Larry Lord Motherwell will seek a new California trial, even though it could lead to the gas chamber, his attorney said yesterday.

The construction worker was sentenced in Sierra County Superior Court to life imprisonment for the 1958 murder of Mrs. Pearl Putney, 72, a widow from Washington, D.C.

Motherwell's attorney, John T. Reges, said here that his client insists on filing for a new trial although a second conviction could lead to San Quentin Prison's gas chamber.

QUESTIONED BY AUDIENCE

Belvedere Candidates Discuss The Issues

Belvedere residents turned out 300 strong last night to hear nine candidates for three seats on the Belvedere City Council expound their views on four subjects of prime interest to Belvedereans.

1. The western tideland development off Belvedere Island;
2. Annexation of Tiburon;
3. The fall sewer bond issue election;
4. Rising taxes.

Candidates bypassed the 20-minute self-interrogation period set for the evening and let the audience take over with written questions.

The aspirants were divided on the western tidelands development issue, ranging from Vice Adm. Frank E. Beatty's view that "it is not in keeping with the spirit of Belvedere" to Dr. John H. Flint's question, "Can we afford to purchase this land for recreation? . . . There are other issues that take precedence."

Candidate Robert M. Joses agreed with Flint and added, referring to a remark made the previous evening at the Belvedere City Council, "If anything built with an open structure is immoral, so are all the carports in Belvedere." Laughter followed.

All nine candidates disapproved of Belvedere's annexing Tiburon for various reasons, including Robert A. Davies' assertion that "Belvedere has a future population of 2,900 and Tiburon of 10,000 . . . If we annex, Belvedere would have one city councilman and Tiburon four."

Herbert H. Scheier and Merritt K. Ruddock agreed that benefits would have to be proved before money was spent on investigation. Horace L. Hill said, "Let's keep Belvedere small."

Dr. Flint started the answers on the sewer bond issue, saying that we have no alternative and I am all for it." All agreed.

Incumbent Councilman E. G. (Ned) Weed led a discussion of changing the city manager system by saying "I see no reason to change." All agreed.

The question of rising taxes was carefully criticized by all candidates, but not one had a concrete suggestion on how to lower them. General consensus was "an increase is inevitable but we shall try to hold them down."

Following the question and answer period, the two organizers, Mrs. Chester Vargas and Mrs. James Heynemann, received an ovation from the crowd.

Judge Richard M. Sims was moderator.

Hospital Board Backs 2 Nursing Programs

The board of trustees of San Rafael General Hospital Foundation has endorsed the establishment of a licensed vocational nurse program at the College of Marin, according to John H. Prescott, hospital administrator.

The trustees also endorsed a proposed two-year associate in arts graduate nurse program, Prescott said.

Larkspur May Adopt Zoning Law Tonight

The Larkspur City Council is scheduled to hold a public hearing tonight on the city's proposed new zoning ordinance, but it may not come off.

At their latest meeting, councilmen gave strong indication the measure would be adopted tonight as an interim emergency ordinance, then sent back to the city planning commission for "refinement."

Lesly A. Daveler, city council candidate and former planning commission member, urged interim adoption "for the purpose of controlling building activity" before a permanent new ordinance is enacted.

The council, to convene at 8 o'clock in Larkspur City Hall, again will take up the problem of Redwood High School traffic congestion on William avenue. City manager Ronald E. Piper will propose that the city corporation yard, now located behind the city hall, be moved to city-owned land at the Larkspur dump near Henry C. Hall School.

The council will receive a request by Greenbrae boardwalk residents for city maintenance of the boardwalk access road. Piper will recommend acceptance of Jones way into Larkspur's street system.

Larkspur's proposed share of the 1960-61 budget for the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission will be studied, along with a request by the commission's Fourth of July fireworks committee for an increased city contribution.

Council Delays Action On Sausalito Project

Rob Rose must wait two more weeks for a decision on whether he will be permitted 10 shops, a restaurant and a cocktail lounge on his El Portal property, the Sausalito City Council decided last night.

Rose applied last October for a variance and use permit.

The council decided to study further, with Rose, the lack of offstreet parking for the proposed establishments.

Rose asked the council for action on his request for a variance from offstreet parking on two shops only. He was then asked by acting Mayor John E. Koenig Jr. if he would be willing to have the council consider just the building which formerly housed the post office.

"Something is better than nothing," Rose said. The post office has been vacant since October, he added. "We ask permission to continue the commercial use of the post office. It is a hardship case. We cannot provide any offstreet parking space."

Koenig said he would be willing to move that the variance from offstreet parking requirements be granted Rose in connection with the use of the old post office building.

Councilman Marjorie Brady said she thought Rose had waited a "long, long time very patiently. However, I think Mr. Rose would be the first to recognize we cannot maintain a policy which developments have forced us to change. We're not the same town we were a year ago because of the tremendous increase in traffic."

Councilman Phillip S. Ehrlich Jr. said he was not ready to decide.

Rose asked for a "quarter of a loaf"—just the post office property. Koenig moved for this, but the council split 2-2, with Mrs. Brady and Ehrlich voting "no." Mayor Howard Sievers was absent.

Mrs. Marian Frick, in the audience, recommended a parking district be set up. She said she felt each business in downtown Sausalito would be willing to contribute to it.

Rose said he is all for parking districts but "we don't know the area or the conditions of a proposed parking district, and we are not able to buy a pig in a poke at this time."

Willard Hall, from the floor, declared: "I am a businessman. You can't penalize people that way. The post office was more or less cluttered with people. No shop will have that many people coming in." "Another thing," he added. "If you're not going to do any business tonight, why don't we adjourn until after the election and go home?"

Councilman George E. Keeney moved that a variance from offstreet parking requirements for the restaurant, cocktail lounge and one shop be denied. This was on a separate application. But the motion did not come to a vote.

Panel Discussion Set On Flood Control Jobs

The Marin County Flood Control will hold a panel discussion at 8 p.m. Monday on the results of flood control projects for the future.

The meeting was called at the request of the county board of supervisors, will be at the department of public works, 1711 Grand avenue, San Rafael.

OAKLAND BOUT

Fans Boo Verdict Against Scanlon

By JIM GILMARTIN

The fuming mad co-managers of Irish Bobby Scanlon have placed the City of Oakland on "off limits" status and today vowed their lightweight fighter will never again set foot on the East Bay community.

Their anti-Oakland attitude reached the boiling point last night after Oaklander Johnny Gonsalves was awarded a split decision over Scanlon in 10 rounds.

"That," stormed Nick Kobseff of Nicasio, "was strictly a hometown decision. To put it bluntly, it stunk." His partner, Lou Sabella, nodded in agreement and told Scanlon, "Take a good look around this auditorium because it's the last time you'll see it." Kobseff and Sabella recently took over management of Scanlon and this was their taste of the disappointments of boxing.

Most of the fans in attendance booed the verdict and tossed paraphernalia into the ring —including a wooden chair!

FAVOR SCANLON

An informal poll of sports writers gave Scanlon the edge —five to three. The I-J card had Bobby a 98-96 winner. Art Rosenbaum of the Chronicle, Eddie Muller of the Examiner, Gordon Raddue of the Richmond Independent and United Press International agreed. Voting for Gonsalves were Jack Fiske of the Chronicle, Harvey Rockwell of the News Call-Bulletin and Scotty Sterling of the Oakland Tribune.

The official balloting went like this: Judge Jack Silver, 98-93 for Gonsalves; Referee Matt Zidich, 98-95 for the winner and Judge Elmer Costa 98-97 Scanlon. It was the winner's second split decision over Scanlon.

The I-J gave Scanlon his two-point edge for a sizzling seventh round and his aggressiveness. Scanlon scored at least six solid shots in the seventh for the only real heavy bombardment of the fight.

BOBBY AGGRESSIVE

What action that took place was prompted by Scanlon who constantly pursued his lanky and more experienced foe. Bobby got in trouble when Gonsalves tied him up and cuffed his ear into a purple bruise. "I guess that's how they score points," said the dejected Scanlon who was making a comeback after a nine-month layoff.

"Sure I'd like to fight him again," he added, "but not in Oakland."

Bobby admitted "My timing was off a bit, but I was in good condition. I just got a little tired in the 10th round." It was in that session that Bobby did most of the grabbing and Gonsalves turned aggressor, at one time wrestling Scanlon to the canvas.

Neither man was in serious trouble at any time.

Trainer Freddie Apostoli of Fairfax said Scanlon will take a three-week rest and then start training again, although his next opponent has not yet been lined up.

Said Apostoli: "I thought Bobby did a good job and deserved the decision. His timing was a bit off, but his left jab and hook were working good."

Pre-fight publicity said Gonsalves was undergoing hypnotic treatment to change his style from that of a patty-cake puncher to a tiger. Obviously it didn't work, for Gonsalves was still the same old slap, run, grab Gonsalves.

Scanlon, 24, outweighed the 30-year-old Oaklander 136¼ to 135½. Gross gate was $9,527.

Preliminaries:

Folley Scores 6th Straight Ring Win

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Heavyweight contender Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., won his sixth straight ring victory last night, a unanimous decision over unranked Clarence Williams of Hayward.

49ers To Open Home Schedule Against Giants

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League have announced a six-game home schedule for the 1960 season.

The schedule includes: Sept. 25—New York Giants; Oct. 2—Los Angeles Rams; Oct. 30—Chicago Bears; Nov. 6—Detroit Lions; Dec. 11—Green Bay Packers; Dec. 18—Baltimore Colts.

Forty-Niner officials said their "open date" in the new league set-up would be Nov. 13. They added that there was a possibility the Dec. 11 game with Green Bay may be placed on Dec. 10, depending on television commitments.

Cousy Hot, Sparks Celts To Victory

BOSTON (AP)—Bob Cousy, snapping out of a bad slump, scored 21 points and made 10 assists last night in leading the Boston Celtics to a vital 127-102 victory over the St. Louis Hawks in the National Basketball Assn. playoffs.

The decision gave Boston a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven series that shifts to St. Louis tomorrow night. The seventh game, if necessary, will be in Boston Saturday afternoon.

Redwood Defeats Oakland Preps

Redwood's Giants exploded for three runs in the seventh inning yesterday to eke out an 8-7 victory over McClymonds High in Oakland.

Will Giant Trades Backfire On Them?

PHOENIX (AP)—Familiar faces could haunt the San Francisco Giants Tuesday when they open their 1960 season in brand new Candlestick Park.

They face the St. Louis Cardinals and it was some ex-Giants who provided the Missourians with a 9-6 exhibition game victory yesterday in the only preseason contest between the two clubs.

Daryl Spencer's home run sparked the Cardinals to a five-run ninth inning. Spencer traded to St. Louis with Leon Wagner for Don Blasingame in a winter exchange, bashed his solo homer with one out and the score tied 4-4.

BROGLIO WINS

Bill White, traded by the Giants after the 1959 season, got two hits in four times at bat and Wagner drew two walks and singled in four appearances. The winning pitcher was another former Giant, Ernie Broglio.

Friday the Dodgers and Giants meet at Bakersfield, Saturday at Fresno and Sunday at Sacramento.

San Francisco probably wound up its pre-season dealing with the acquisition of veteran first baseman Dale Long via purchase from the Chicago Cubs. The price was believed near the $25,000 mark.

Long provides more of the bench strength that Manager Bill Rigney sought. Earlier he acquired Jim Marshall from the Boston Red Sox. Both newcomers are left-handed hitters with power. Long appeared in 110 games for Chicago last season and batted .236, hitting 14 homers and driving in 37 runs.

San Francisco showed power against the Cards. Jimmy Davenport, Orlando Cepeda and McCovey all homered. It was the first of the spring for McCovey, the 1959 rookie-of-the-year.

Drake Swimmers Edge San Rafael

Freestyle ace Pete Sagues won the 100 and 50-yard events in the times of 54.3 and 23.9 seconds yesterday to pace Drake High School's swim team to a 53-42 victory over San Rafael at Drake's pool.

Drake also won Class B, 45-32.

Other varsity winners were: Lindenbaum (D), 400 free, 5:10.3; Stokeley (SR), 100 butterfly, 1:00.7; Dawson (D), 200 free, 2:12.2; Yuvan (SR) 100 back, 1:08.4; Hendry (D), 100 breast, 1:10.1; Miller (SR), diving; Crossler (D), 200 individual medley, 2:35.4. San Rafael won the medley relay and Drake the freestyle relay.

FEW LIKE NEW NAME FOR OAKLAND TEAM

The City Council last disapproved it 4-1.

"I haven't come across anybody who likes it," Mayor Clifford E. Rishell said.

Councilman Robert L. Osborne, one of the owner-directors of the club, declared if the name were allowed to stand he would be tempted to sell out his interest in the team.

Senors—from the Spanish "senores"—was suggested by Policewoman Helen A. Davis, one of 10,000 persons submitting names in a contest by the Oakland Tribune and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Report Dykes Out As Tiger Manager

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Times said today Jimmie Dykes' days as manager of the Detroit Tigers appear to be numbered. President Bill DeWitt of the Tigers quickly denied the story.

The Times said Dykes and DeWitt do not see eye-to-eye and "an explosion may be forthcoming" when the Tigers experience their first serious slump.

Palmer Solid Masters Pick; Venturi 2nd

Palmer, the year's leading money winner with more than $26,000 in earnings, himself places the barrel-chested Souchak at the head of the half-dozen or so whom he regards as players to beat for the title.

"I figure the men who are tough on the tour will be toughest here," said the 30-year-old Ligonier, Pa., professional, winner in 1958 and loser by two strokes last year.

"I have to go with fellows like Souchak, Ken Venturi, Dow Finsterwald and Gene Littler."

Bookmakers have a slightly differing and a more definite view of the outcome of the four-day, 72-hole medal play over the Augusta National course.

SOLID CHOICE

They have made Palmer the solid favorite at 6-1, followed by Venturi, who blew the championship as an amateur in 1956, at 8-1, Cary Middlecoff and three-time winner, Sam Snead are bracketed at 10-1. Then comes an out-of-shape Ben Hogan, and Souchak, 12-1, and Finsterwald and South Africa's Gary Player, 15-1. Other prices range from 20-1 to 100-1.

Player, the young British Open champion, heads the strong foreign delegation which includes Canada Cup individual winner, Stan Leonard of Canada, and leading players from Australia, Spain, Brazil and England.

The weather ceased to be a factor. The 6,850-yard, par 72 course, drenched by a week of rains, was whipped by strong biting winds and warmed by a benign sun yesterday. The weather man promises clear, cool weather — temperature in the low 70s—for the rest of the week.

Hey, Skipper, Take Us Out To The Ball Game

San Francisco Bay Area yachtsmen plan to make major league history next week by sailing to Candlestick Park for the Giants' home baseball games.

Some 30 of them in three yachts and a landing craft rendezvoused 600 yards from home plate Tuesday to make sure they could establish a beachhead.

The three yachts from the city's Great Golden Fleet anchored in about five feet of water off centerfield and put ashore in the landing craft on a spit of land jutting from the stadium parking area.

Tomorrow the Navy will attach a floating dock—a 60 by 18-foot pontoon—to the spit to enable the yachts to discharge their passengers directly before anchoring in the cove. The pontoon is a loan for the first week. After that the yachtsmen hope to interest a boatman in shuttling passengers from anchorages to land.

Sidney Keil, secretary of the Great Golden Fleet and one of the originators of the seagoing commuting scheme, said every boat owner in the Bay Area is welcome to use the pontoon.

"Right now I'd say a couple of hundred people will get to the opener Tuesday by boat," Keil remarked.

They'll miss an expected land traffic jam but may cause a boat jam, Keil feared, if too many mariners showed up.

Fullmer Brother Fights Kerwin In TV Tiff Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A hotel ballroom will be the lavish setting of a 10-round fight tonight between Jay Fullmer, brother of middleweight champion Gene, and Gale Kerwin.

Kerwin, who fights out of Valley Stream, N. Y., is billed as welterweight champion of Canada. Both are in the lighter brackets of the welterweight class and probably will go in at about 140 pounds for their match to be nationally televised (ABC, 7 o'clock PST).

Fullmer, 23, has won 19 of 24 fights, including seven by knockout. Kerwin, 24, was victorious in 28 of 38 ring appearances.

CHEVROLET

OVER BACK-COUNTRY ROADS AT 45 WITH A SKY-HIGH LOAD OF TIMBER

That's a 6303 medium-duty Chevrolet powered by a 283-cu.-in. V8. But there's sure nothing medium-duty about the load. Mr. J. E. Blankinship, Arkansas logging contractor, says both of his torsion-spring 6303's "move along at 40 to 50 miles per hour with 55,000 pounds gross weight and maintain a 5-trip-a-day schedule with no trouble at all." Figure the money you save when you've got a medium-duty truck that can cover 30,000 back-country miles a year with a high-tonnage load!

We've never seen anything like the amount of praise truck owners are heaping on Chevy's new torsion spring suspension. Owners like the fact the truck handles a whole lot easier, can move faster off the road without beating the driver to death and shaking loose all the sheet metal. They like the idea of extra thousands of miles before trade-in! . . . Drive a '60 Chevy just once. It's a whole new experience.

Chevy middleweight averages 200 miles of back roads a day dogging timber out of the woods and delivering it to the mill at Crossett, Arkansas.

GONSALVES SCORES WITH JAB

Race Slated For Sunday In Petaluma

A new special event for the Redwood Empire, the National Junior Individual and Team 25-Kilometer Championship, will be held at Petaluma this Sunday.

A fine field of runners is expected to be on hand for the starting gun, according to Ed Fratini, meet chairman, who will be assisted by Arnold Scott, Louis Kaiser and other long-distance race enthusiasts. Thomas Laughran, long-distance running commissioner for the Pacific Assn. of the A.A.U., the organization sanctioning the race, will be present for the event.

Runners will start on the jaunt of about 15½ miles at 1 p.m. Start and finish will be at the Vallejo Adobe.

The new event takes the place of the Spartans Marathon which was run over the same course at Petaluma for 25 years. This year's race is sponsored by the Spartans Athletic Club.

Wes Hildreth of Mill Valley, a student at Harvard University and frequent top competitor in the Petaluma and Dipsea races, flew in from Cambridge Monday night and will take part in the run.

Giants Sign Famous Name—McGillicuddy

SANFORD, Fla. (AP)—The famed name of McGillicuddy is back in baseball.

Donald McGillicuddy, 21-year-old great, great nephew of the late Connie Mack, has been signed to a contract with the Springfield, Mass., Giants, farm club of the San Francisco Giants in the Class A Eastern League.

McGillicuddy, whom Giant scouts have appraised as being an unusually bright prospect as a first baseman, is in the Marines until April 15.

Redwood Swimmers Set Three Marks, But Lose To Tam

Tamalpais Indians won the team honors but Redwood's Giants walked off with a lion's share of individual glory yesterday in the opening of the Marin County Athletic League dual swimming meet season at Tam's pool.

The Indians won Class A by a 53-42 margin and the Class B Tamites prevailed 66-11, but Redwood's varsity natators accounted for three of the four pool records broken in the meet.

Redwood's Dick Chambers set two records with a 4:21.9 clocking in the 400-yard freestyle and 2:22.2 performance in the 200 individual medley. Ken Frost of Redwood broke the 100 breaststroke mark in a sizzling 1:08.6 and Tam's Rick Snow accounted for the final record with his 2:05.8 time in the 200 free.

Stoneham Bubbling With Optimism As Season Opener Draws Near

CONNOLLY

"There could be trouble ahead. We're not looking for it, nor expecting it. But we're ready for it, if it comes, and I'm sure we will hurdle it without too much alarm being felt."

Those are pretty firm words coming from Horace Stoneham at Phoenix. In a phone fanning bee last evening the Giant boss went over his 1960 Giant lineup, player for player, position for position and in no uncertain terms expressed himself as confident, satisfied and really determined that a bright future is in store for S.F. fans.

"All a clubowner can do is prepare cautiously and solidly," Stoneham states. "I think we've done it that way.

"Don't worry too much about Willie McCovey, our first baseman. "He hasn't knocked down any fences and he hasn't mimicked Babe Ruth. But the kid is a solid hitter, an improved fielder and a lot wiser and smarter than some of you base ball writers think.

"LAST SPRING," Stoneham continued, "McCovey looked awful. "We thought the extra weight would help him and I still think it will. But we've tried to keep McCovey from having too much pressure placed on his shoulders. Now that we have Marshall to help him out, he will be relieved of a lot of tension, and I'm sure will find himself right at the start of the season.

"I'd say McCovey isn't going to disappoint Giant fans in 1960."

About Don Blasingame, the new Giant second baseman, Stoneham was very positive.

"HE'S NEARING the peak of his training. I'd rather have Don ready for the opener than tired from starring in spring exhibitions. Just watch him from the kickoff. His fielding has been superb and as a pivot companion to Eddie Bressoud, I think we have as nice a second base combination as we could ever get."

WE THINK Bressoud will be the standout defensive shortstop in our league and one of the most timely and dangerous batters in the clutch. Eddie never wavers. He's steady and reliable and now has the confidence his second base companion affords."

When Stoneham gets wound up on a phone he really spreads himself and with the Independent-Journal footing the bill he was rather loquacious.

"WE GAVE orders to take Jimmy Davenport along cautiously and I think Bill Rigney has done that very thing," Horace declared.

Davenport is no scary personality and while he dislikes caution, he has obeyed his bosses and has not taken any unnecessary chances.

"JIMMY DOESN'T know what fear means," the Giant owner says. "And we had to explain the dangers of injuries during exhibition games. We wanted Jimmy to be in shape for our season's opener. And I think Rig has done an excellent baby sitting job, keeping an eye on him all the time."

Catching in some quarters has been regarded as the Giants' one weak spot, or at least weaker than other spots. But this opinion is not shared by Stoneham.

"SURE I'D like to have a Yogi Berra around," he says. "And maybe we have in young Bob Schmidt. The sky is the limit with this kid as I size him ready for the opener if we need him up, and if he wants more time to be safe, I think he has nothing to worry about."

"WE'RE SET right in every spot in the outfield and with Willie Mays, Willie Kirkland, Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou around, it really is a great combination. But I think these fellows have convinced the league as a whole, that they rank with the finest, so there isn't much more to be said. But I really believe Willie Mays will be his old self in our new park."

"WE SHOULD get the best pitching in the National League," he says. "We have numbers and we have quality. The combination is truly gratifying. Our lefthanders are standouts and of course I'd be silly to say anything but great when I talk about our righthanders."

So if one has to wonder about the Giants, the one guy who is vitally concerned is Horace Stoneham. And when he lets his hair down and gives out such as he has to this writer, then I'd say the Giants are ready, eager and willing to back him and his judgement and his bankroll up to the hilt.

Fish-Game Unit Meet Starts Tomorrow

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The Fish and Game Commission meets in Sacramento tomorrow and Friday for the first go-round in setting hunting regulations, seasons and limits for 1960.

As was mentioned previously in this column, taking of one hen pheasant in Northern California will be one of the lively and controversial topics.

But there may be even bigger news on pheasants and, who knows, if the commission takes some action on it, the shooting of one hen per hunter in the north might be accepted.

We're referring to a proposal to change a much-discussed and long-studied pheasant policy proposal. After years of study, re-evaluation and re-evaluation of the re-evaluated studies, the department proposed a new pheasant policy last fall. Action on it has been delayed but a vote should be taken in May.

At this month's meeting, the commission will discuss changes in the proposal.

Originally, the proposal set out to do what most other states (who didn't have Seth Gordon as a fish and game director) did—that is, to take the accent off put-and-take pheasant hunting.

Other states have found that releasing of the expensive, mature birds doesn't bolster brood stocks in natural habitat areas and doesn't start brood stocks in non-habitat areas such as Southern California.

After seeing the changes now proposed in the proposed policy, it would appear the commission did well to wait for its adoption. It finally is making a lot of sense, in our opinion.

The new proposal provides that, after 1963, put-take hunting would be confined to two cooperative areas in Southern California, and this at a charge of $2 per day per hunter.

The department noted that game farm pheasants have made up only 10 per cent of the statewide kill and have not been much help lately with brood stocks. Co-ops have been receiving a disproportionate share of each year's game farm production of pheasants as other areas suitable under the pheasant policy dwindled.

Elimination of put-take pheasant hunting in Northern California would save $120,000 and another $40,000 could be saved by combining the three southern game farms into one, at Chino.

The department admitted $2 a day per hunter would not begin to cover the costs of raising and releasing pheasants but this is the maximum charge currently allowed. It noted changes in this law might be made in the future.

Win In Wisconsin Adds Punch To Kennedy Drive

Demo Hopefuls Both Top Nixon In Votes

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Victory over a formidable opponent in the Wisconsin primary election put new punch and power today behind Sen. John F. Kennedy's bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The result was clear-cut, but not as big as his aides had hoped.

Kennedy said, however, "I would think the Democratic leaders would find it very helpful."

'CAN ATTRACT VOTES'

The election demonstrated, he claimed, that he can attract votes among the farmers, labor unions, and non-Catholics.

Kennedy, a Massachusetts Catholic, defeated Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, a Protestant. For years, Humphrey has championed the Midwest farmers.

In yesterday's election, he was supported by top leadership of the Wisconsin AFL-CIO.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, unopposed in the Republican primary, did not come into the hard-fought campaign. He ran third.

With 3,404 of the state's 3,446 precincts reported, the unofficial tabulations showed Kennedy 468,501; Humphrey 366,394; Nixon 366,869.

This gave Kennedy slightly more than 56 per cent of the Democratic vote and victories in six of the 10 congressional districts.

It also allocated 20 Wisconsin delegates votes in the Democratic National Convention to Kennedy and 10 to Humphrey. Each also will receive a half-vote from the ballot shared by the state's two national committee members, who split their support.

Even before the final count was in, the vote broke the previous record, set in 1952 of 1,018,149.

SECOND VICTORY

Coming on the heels of his spectacular sweep in New Hampshire last month, this was Kennedy's second straight victory in an important presidential primary.

Wisconsin was not a spectacular triumph for him.

He said that winning six district races, plus a majority of the popular vote, would constitute a victory for him. "Anything else would be gravy," Kennedy said.

There was no gravy.

But Kennedy said he was delighted with the result. He added, "I never took the view that we could win all 10 districts despite the pollsters. If we end up with 57 per cent of the Democratic vote we will be doing very well."

Humphrey said the election caused him no pain.

"I suppose numerically I'm the defeated candidate," he said, "but if I'm defeated I certainly don't hurt. In light of the predictions made, we have every reason to believe we did well."

The vote for Nixon also was open to interpretation. He had no opposition to stir GOP interest and he did not campaign in Wisconsin.

Four years ago, 438,000 Republicans cast ballots for President Eisenhower in a virtually uncontested election. In 1952, the late Sen. Robert A. Taft rolled up 315,000 GOP votes to 262,000 cast for Earl Warren, then governor of California.

The size of the "cross over" ballot, in which Wisconsin Republicans may vote in the Democratic primary, and vice versa, will never be known.

In Sheboygan where Catholic voters constitute 22 per cent of the total, he had 55.5 per cent of the vote. He took 44.3 per cent in Madison which has 22 per cent Catholics, and 48.3 per cent of the vote in Lacrosse where the Catholic vote is 23 per cent.

As for his draw with the farmers, Kennedy pointed to his victory in the Seventh District, an agricultural area.

He was a big winner in three of Wisconsin's major industrial areas, Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha. The AFL-CIO leadership in the state opposed him and urged union men to support Humphrey.

Both Humphrey and Kennedy took the occasion to comment happily on the vote for Nixon.

START SAVING DAYLIGHT ON APRIL 24

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Daylight Saving Time begins again April 24—bringing with it some confusion over transportation schedules, protests from farmers and approval from lovers of the outdoors.

Many communities in 27 states, including California, will set their clocks an hour ahead to get an extra hour of sunlight during the summer months. Daylight saving time starts officially at 12:01 a.m., Sunday, April 24.

It will remain in effect in 18 of the states and the District of Columbia through Oct. 30. Localities in eight states, including California, will adhere to the old five-month period.

Hundreds Forced To Leave Homes By Rampaging Rivers

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Rising rivers in the Midwest and Northeast forced hundreds to flee their homes today and threatened some areas with the worst floods in nearly 20 years.

The Mississippi River rose to new crests in hard-hit western Illinois, but observers doubted that any more levees would be broken.

Army engineers aid the river would crest at 24.3 feet today at Quincy, Ill., and 23.4 feet tomorrow at Hannibal, Mo.

But the runoff from two earlier levee breaks near Quincy was expected to ease the pressure on other dikes along the river.

Work on the levees went on through the night from Quincy to Louisiana, Mo., in an effort to shore up the dikes before the new crests are reached.

National guardsmen and volunteer rescue workers raced from crisis to crisis along the Missouri River as the Big Muddy cracked dozens of small dikes and flowed over hundreds of acres of Missouri bottomland.

A small farm levee protecting Corning, Mo., broke early today and water began seeping into the tiny Missouri River town. Most of Corning's 200 residents moved out several days ago and a convoy of trucks began taking out the few remaining families.

The Missouri flowed a mile wide between Glasgow, Mo., and the state capital at Jefferson City, carrying wheat and fresh soil with it as it headed toward its confluence with the Mississippi near St. Louis.

Officials said river towns were well protected, but feared that thousands more acres of rich river bottomland would wash away before one of the worst Midwestern floods subsides.

Meanwhile, Connecticut and upstate New York residents faced their worst flood threat since the hurricane Diane deluge in 1955, and their second worst in 22 years.

Emergency crews threw up a sandbag barrier along the rapidly rising Connecticut River, but other swollen streams flowed over their banks to block roads and inundate thousands of farm acres.

At least 800,000 acres of Illinois and Missouri farmland were under water and the figure mounted hourly as new breakthrough were reported in small, badly weakened dikes.

But loss of life and damage to property other than farm buildings was almost negligible.

Galveston Integrates Its Lunch Counters

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Most downtown Galveston, Tex., stores opened integrated lunch counters today while Nashville, Tenn., merchants studied a biracial committee recommendation they desegregate part of their restaurant facilities.

The moves were made in the face of growing racial tension in much of the South more than two months after the sit-downs started at Greensboro, N.C. One variety store has closed its lunch counter in that city.

New demonstrations were reported in Florida and Georgia yesterday while 50 more Negroes were convicted at Orangeburg, S.C., and eight were sentenced in Memphis, Tenn.

Store managers and religious and civic leaders conferred in Galveston and announced it was decided "it is in the best interest of the entire community to open lunch counters to all patrons."

At Nashville, the mayor's biracial committee studying lunch counter sit-ins recommended downtown stores refusing to serve Negroes desegregate a portion of their restaurant facilities.

The committee said it felt integration of part of the dining facilities would reduce racial tension, and recommended a 90-day trial period.

Hub Asks County Aid For Drake Boulevard Repairs

The City of San Anselmo yesterday received the assurance of the Marin County Board of Supervisors that the two governmental subdivisions will work together to find a solution to the costly repairing of Sir Francis Drake boulevard.

The Hub City, through its administrator, Douglas Flautt, asked for "monetary assistance to provide for the proper maintenance and reconstruction of that portion of Sir Francis Drake boulevard, Red Hill and Miracle Mile inside the city. Total cost was estimated by City Engineer John C. Oglesby at $218,812.

Also present at the board meeting were Mayor Arthur W. Smith and Councilmen William Franchini and Carleton G. Little.

The board instructed Marvin W. Brigham, director of the county department of public works, to confer with Oglesby and come up with a report for the forthcoming 1960-61 fiscal budget.

"There is no question about the need for the work," said Supervisor William D. Fusselman. "We don't know what we can put in the budget, but your request is just, and certainly I will do what I can to support you."

Flautt declared:

"I am sure the board realizes the extent of use that these streets are put to by traffic which originates outside of the corporate limits of San Anselmo. A recent count showed some 40,000 cars pass through . . . the Hub each working day.

"In checking with the state Division of Highways, we find that their planning office may not consider Sir Francis Drake in the designation of the new route (from Highway 101 west) because of the cost . . .

"I suggest a long-range plan of sharing the cost."

Sausalito Building Permit Total Up

William L. Hynes, Sausalito building inspector, said today that permits for new construction as well as for alterations and repairs were much greater last month than during March of 1959.

There were seven permits for 11 units of new construction, amounting to $157,400, and 14 permits for alterations and repairs in the amount of $37,000.

In March of 1959 there were 13 permits for alterations and repairs totaling $10,805, and four permits for seven units of new construction totaling $73,000, Hynes said.

AN INNOVATION this year at the 8th annual Antiques Show to be held at the IDESST Hall in Sausalito April 21 through 24 wil be "Grandmother's Cupboard", headed by Mrs. Eleanor Perry, chairman, above a member of the Rector's Guild of the Church of Our Saviour, Mill Valley. She promises it will be filled with all kinds of home made goodies to take home. (Steve Allen photo.)

'Cupboard' At Antiques Show To Feature Famous Recipes

When "Grandmother's Cupboard" opens for the first time at the Eighth Annual Antiques Show and Sale this year in Sausalito, April 21-24 it will feature many famous recipes from members of the Rector's Guild of the Church of Our Saviour, sponsoring group.

Mrs. Eleanor V. Perry will make two of her own grandmother's recipes, Mrs. John Botha, who married a Dutchman of English descent and moved to South Africa where she lived for many years and made a hobby of collecting Dutch recipes. The two recipes given below have been favorites in the family and Mrs. Perry is pleased to present them at the Eighth Annual Antiques Show and Sale in Sausalito.

ZOETE KOEKIES

- 4 lbs. flour
- 3 lbs. brown sugar
- 1 lb. butter
- ½ lb Crisco or other shortening
- 1 lb. ground almonds
- 4 eggs
- 1 tbsp. baking soda
- 1 tbsp. cloves
- 2 tbsp. cinnamon
- 1 wine-glass Claret wine

First rub flour, sugar, butter, spices and soda together. Add beaten eggs. Last, add wine. Knead well together. Best mixed overnight. Roll out with rolling pin and cut into shapes. Bake in rather brisk (450°) oven for about 20 minutes.

KOESISTERS

- 3 cups flour
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 2 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 tsp. mixed spices
- 4 eggs, well beaten
- ⅓ cup fat, or butter melted
- 1 cake yeast

Knead all well together and let stand one-half hour. Roll out on board about ¼ or ½ inch thick. Cut with pastry wheel about 1 x 1½ inches. Let fry in deep fat until light brown. Dip immediately into hot syrup made of 3 cups brown sugar and 2 cups water, well boiled and flavored with cinnamon. These keep for months.

Mrs. Philip Smith, chairman of this year's four-day event, is expecting the largest crowd ever because of the expanded space in the Sausalito locale. A snack bar will also present goodies to eat during the open hours of the show from noon to 10 p.m. daily.

Thrill The Family Easter Morn With Egg Buns For Breakfast

EASTER EGG BUNS FOR EASTER BREAKFAST

If you want to thrill the children on Easter morning and delight husbands and guests as well, greet them at breakfast with these Easter buns baked around an egg. The egg is dyed pale yellow with Easter egg dye but not cooked before baking. While the bun bakes the egg cooks. For eating, lift out the egg and shell it as you would any hard cooked egg. Present the bun, all snug and warm in a petal napkin fold. Decorate the top with Easter egg dress-ups that come in the package of pure certified food color.

EASTER EGG BUNS

- 1 cup milk
- ½ cup sugar
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup corn oil
- 1 package active dry yeast or 1 cake compressed yeast
- ¼ cup warm (not hot) water
- 2 eggs, well beaten
- 5 cups flour
- 6 uncooked eggs in shell.
- Pure certified food color

Scald milk; remove from heat. Add sugar, salt and corn oil. Cool to lukewarm. Sprinkle yeast over warm water in a large mixing bowl; stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk mixture and eggs. Add 3 cups flour and beat until smooth. Gradually add remaining flour, or enough to make soft dough. Turn dough out on lightly floured board. Knead well (about 10 minutes), or until dough is smooth. Place in bowl which has been lightly oiled with corn oil. Brush top of dough lightly with corn oil to prevent crusting. Cover and let rise in warm place, free from draft, until double in bulk, about 1½ hours. Punch dough down and turn on lightly floured board. Divide in half. Form ½ dough into a round, place on greased cookie sheet. Cover and let rise, until double in bulk, about 1 hour. Form other half of dough into 6 small rounds. Place rounds on greased cooky sheet. Let dough rest 15 minutes. Meanwhile, follow package directions on the Easter egg dye and color eggs. Cut dough half way through in center top, place a colored egg in each cut. Cover and let rise until double in about 1 hour. Bake in slow oven (325°F.) about 45 minutes for the large bread, about 25 minutes for the small buns. Makes 1 round loaf and 6 Easter egg buns.

To make glazes or finishes try:

1. Sprinkle with sugar before second rising.
2. Combine 1 egg white and 1 tablespoon sugar and use as a wash before placing in oven.
3. Mix 2 tablespoons milk with 1 egg yolk and use to brush over shapes just before baking.
4. Bake plain and then cover immediately with a glaze made this way. Combine ½ cup dark corn sugar, 2 tablespoons margarine or butter and ¼ cup sugar in a saucepan and bring to a boil. Pour over freshly baked hot bread before removing from baking sheets.
5. Cover with confectioners' sugar frosting made with ¾ cup sifted confectioners' sugar and 1 tablespoon top milk or water. Decorate with lightly toasted almonds, if desired.

To make the petal napkin fold:

Select napkins about 12 inches square. Wash them and while they are still wet, starch them in a light solution of instant cold water starch (¼ cup instant cold water starch dissolved in 2 quarts water). Roll in a towel, unroll and iron smooth. Place napkin on a flat surface, bring the four corners in to meet at a center point. Repeat step with the new formed square. Turn folded napkin over, bring four points to center again. Turn back to original side. Pull out topmost points to form petals. Place roll in center.

THESE EASTER Egg Buns were adapted from the many European Easter breads made with a whole egg, shell and all, nestled within the rich yeast dough.

New Macroni And Cheese Recipe Has Wheat Germ

Macaroni and cheese is a time-honored standby, but it's likely to invoke a "what again?" complaint from fussy folks in the family unless the taste appeal is varied from time to time. And here's an appetizing, easy and economical way to do it.

This recipe is perked up with dehydrated minced onions, pimientoes, dry mustard and Worcestershire sauce; and it is enriched with toasted wheat germ, which also adds a nut-like flavor overtone. It's a hearty dish, since the macaroni and cheese are good protein foods. Wheat germ adds more quality protein, B vitamins, iron and phosphorus, among other nutrients.

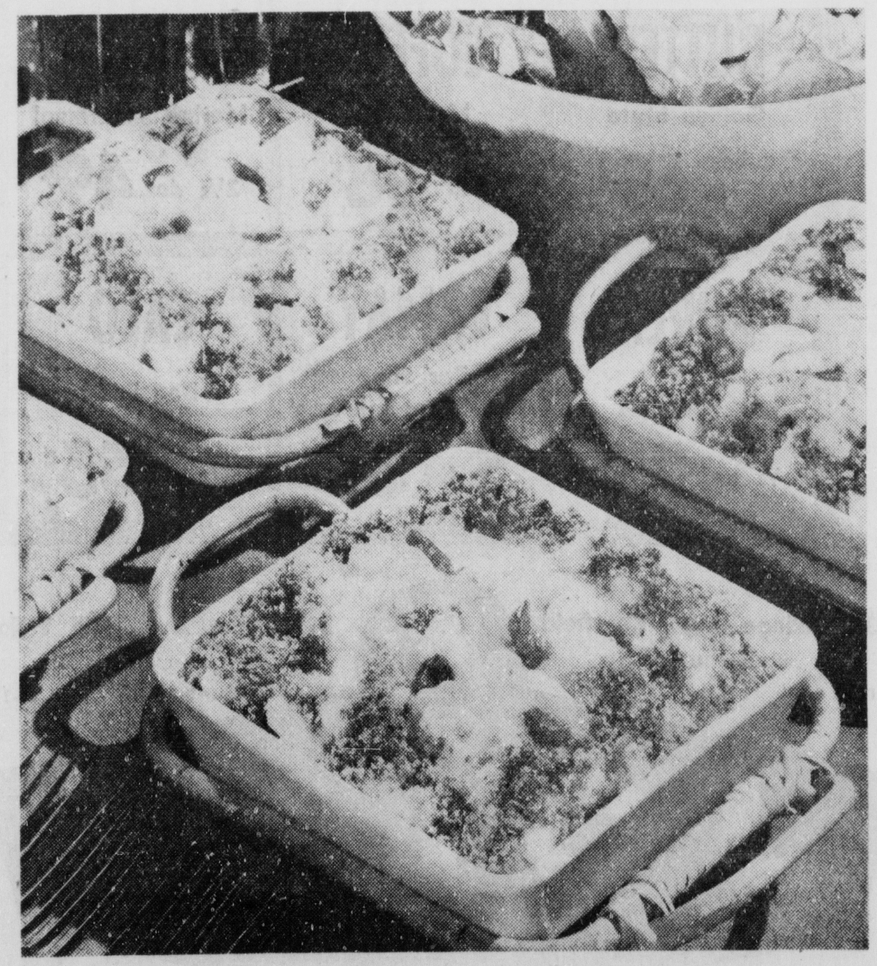
Yielding six servings, the recipe can be baked in individual casseroles or a 1½ quart baking dish. You can double the recipe if one or more members of the family are wont to ask for seconds, and they probably will.

Generous servings of tossed salad, served with the macaroni and cheese, offer a colorful, crisp contrast, and lend the nutritional balance of green vegetables.

MACARONI AND CHEESE

- ¼ cup butter or margarine
- 3 tablespoon flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 2 cups milk
- 1 7-ounce package elbow macaroni, cooked.
- ½ pound American cheese, shredded (about 2 cups).
- 1 teaspoon dehydrated minced onions
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard.
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimientoes.
- ⅔ cup wheat germ.

Melt butter or margarine; blend in flour and salt. Stir in milk and cook until smooth and thickened, stirring constantly. Stir in remaining ingredients, except ⅓ cup wheat germ. Pour mixture into buttered individual or 1½ quart casserole. Sprinkle with remaining wheat germ. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) until hot and bubbly around edges, about 25 minutes. Yield; 6 servings.



MACARONI AND CHEESE, enriched with wheat germ and flavored with dehydrated minced onions, dry mustard, pimientoes and Worcestershire sauce, is a tasty, economical and nutritious meatless main course.

Zonta Club Elects Officers; Told Of Rapid Transit, Civic Center

The San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District and plans to alleviate commuter transportation problems, were explained by Richard J. Shephard, administrative assistant of the district, at the luncheon meeting of the Zonta Club of Marin County at the Wye Club in San Rafael with Mrs. Courtland Benites, presiding. Guests were Mrs. Maynard Redmond and Mrs. Nora Helton.

Mrs. Margaret Hedden, vice president, introduced Shephard who said the Bay Area in 120 years has come to its present population of 3,500,000, but in the next 20 to 25 years, it will increase to 7,000,000, with a problem of traffic congestion, particularly at peak hours.

Established by the legislature in 1957, the Rapid Transit District is a five county public agency, governed by a 16 man board. The first of three steps in this undertaking is now taking place—planning the system, next will come construction and the third is operation. Shephard said that this necessitates consultants in egineering, economics and finance, and that the system will be unlike any in the world.

It is planned that in Marin County, the route will go through San Rafael, and as far north as Ignacio, with a tunnel under the hills in Sausalito.

At the recent meeting in the Loch Lomond home of Mrs. John McPhail, Mrs. Hedden presided. Mrs. Jean Hand of Corte Madera, a member of the Las Vegas Zonta Club was a guest. Report of the nominating committee was given: Mrs. Hedden was named for president; Dr. Anne Brady, vice president; Miss Virginia Shattuck, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Williams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Americo Oberto, treasurer; Mrs. Oliver R. Hartzell, Miss Stella Hughes and Mrs. Richard Keating, board members. These officers were unanimously elected and will be installed at the meeting on April 21.

The speaker was Mrs. Vera Schultz, a club member, and supervisor from the third District of Marin County. She told of attending a conference on education at Asilomar.

Mrs. Schultz state a long-range plan has been adopted with the building of the Civic Center on a pay-as-you-go basis. The new Civic Center will be ready for occupancy in 18 months, with weather permitting, otherwise in 24 months; the cost will be $1.64 per square foot less than was paid for the court house annex.

The supervisor declared Marin is unique in that it has not one cent of bonded indebtness. The pay-as-you-go plan has saved the taxpayers 1,500,000 dollars in bond interest. The lease and lease back plan is being used in building both the county farm and juvenile hall. The spiraling tax rate is caused by various districts; school, fire, sanitary and lighting.

Marin is seventh from the bottom or No. 51 in per capita cost of county government. The county has 600 employees — the number has doubled in seven years. Mrs. Schultz stated that the county needs more industries and commercial establishments to help with the tax load. She explained there are four reasons which make it difficult to attract these industries: high price of land; high price of water and the inadequacies of it; not enough level land; inadequate transportation.

Mrs. Schultz spoke of the proposed Pt. Reyes National Seashore Foundation. She said even if it means a loss of taxes to the county, will be more than compensated by the money spent on recreation.

School P-TA Leaders At San Rafael Meet

Education was compared to a triangle by a school official speaking before 200 Marin County school administrators and Parent-Teachers Association leaders at a Wednesday meeting at San Rafael High School.

Richard L. Foster, former acting superintendent of Marin County Schools and now superintendent of the Jefferson Elementary School District in Daly City, said that three sides of the "Triangle" were: School boards, Administrators, and the P-TA. He stressed that each side should support and counterbalance the other two in order to provide maximum in educational opportunities for children.

Two sections discussing "P-TA Influence without Interference" concluded that maximum effectiveness can be gained when school policies are clearly defined to P-TAs and respected by them. Parents, on the other hand, should not interfere in the hiring and firing of school personnel, and should always work through recognized channels in attempting to effect other changes.

"Funds are necessary in order to carry out the objects of P-TA," was the conclusion of the section discussing "Use and Misuse of P-TA Funds."

In his concluding remarks, Foster credited P-TA in Marin County for many of the advances already made in education, and challenged the organization to strive even harder in the future for better educational standards. "What is happening in classrooms today," he said, "will determine what happens in the world in years to come."

Capacity Crowd Attends Beta Sigma Phi Style Show

An April Fool theme was carried out Friday afternoon at the fashion luncheon staged by Mill Valley's Mu Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at Ondine's Restaurant in Sausalito.

A capacity crowd of fashionably dressed women attended the event sponsored by the chapter as a benefit for "Marin Parents of Hearing-Handicapped Children, Inc."

Opening the parade of styles provided by a Belvedere shop and modeled by chapter members was a real April Fool trick when the first model turned out to be a man (one of Ondine's proprietors) dressed as a woman.

Programs in black and gold were cut-outs of the traditional fool in cap and bells, a motif repeated in wands carried by some of the models.

Extraordinary as a commentator, since it was his first experience in the role, was Ed Tangen of San Rafael. "We asked him to do the commentary," said general chairman Mrs. Doyle Lockabey, "because of the outstanding job he did as an impromptu auctioneer for the sale conducted recently in Sausalito to benefit a family there who suffered severe losses in a fire."

A brand new swim suit with jacket in the pink and white gingham made so popular this year by Brigitte Bardot, was pretty on Mrs. Fred Martinez.

Becoming to Mrs. J. A. Jacobs was a two-piece powder blue linen-like fabric with cross stitch pattern in the skirt repeated on the blouse, and two outstanding sweater dresses, the brown silk dress and white wool sweater modeled effectively by Mrs. Lockabey, and a white dress with navy sweater banded in white, trim on Mrs. Sidney Vogensen.

A striking ensemble modeled by Mrs. William J. Wright was a champagne corduroy skirt with pastel striped blouse and full length corduroy coat.

Most unusual among the formals and lovely on Mrs. Byron Tardiff was a strapless silk organza in deeper and lighter toast fashioned with billowing skirt and softly draped bodice.

Camping And Gardening Enjoyed By Girl Scouts

Camping in a primitive cabin at Girl Scout Camp Ski Oaks, Fairfax, eighth graders of Troop 285 from San Anselmo fulfilled requirements for the Campcraft Badge, which is the last step towards their completion of the Curved Bar Rank, the highest award in Girl Scouting.

Joining them for a hike to Bon Tempe filter plant were the eighth grade members of Corte Madera Troop 173, who are also completing their Curved Bar Rank, with the assistance of their leader, Mrs. Howard Perry. Together, with two troops, both working on the Conservation Badge, toured the plant with James Turman as their guide. Troop 285's weekend trip was completely planned by the girls, with Mrs. Robert Jones and Mrs. Warner Bagley accompanying them.

Giving their mothers a preview of day camp activities, the Brownie Scouts of Terra Linda Troop 266 played hostess for a Mother-Daughter Cookout at Sky Oaks, at their last March meeting. The third graders who had attended last summer's day camp session built the fires, and they all enjoyed an afternoon of trail blazing, singing and roasting hot dogs. Helping the 16 girls with the arrangements were their leaders, Mesdames W. B. Hardin, S. W. Dragnich and T. S. Strathairn, outdoor chairman.

Brownie Scout Troop 98 and Intermediate Scout Troop 148, who attend the new Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur, purchased 10 "Pinkie" rose bushes for the school, as part of their Community Life requirements for Fly-Up and Second Class Rank. After both troops presented the bushes to Mervin Gootherts, principal, the fifth graders did the planting. Their leaders are Mesdames Joseph Johnson, James Lannert, Robert Easter and Lawrance Kramer.

Brownie Scouts from Mill Valley Troop 293 and Marinwood Troop 8 were March visitors at Marin General Hospital. Besides seeing the emergency operating room, physiotherapy room, laundry, kitchen and other hospital facilities, the girls enjoyed refreshments in the hospital coffee shop.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, April 6th, the 97th day of the year, with 269 more to follow in 1960.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mercury, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1866, veterans of the Union Army organized the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) in Decatur, Ill.

In 1909, after 23 years of effort, Robert Peary became the first civilized man to reach the North Pole.

In 1917, the United States declared war on Germany.

In 1955, Queen Elizabeth II summoned Sir Anthony Eden to Buckingham Palace to inform him he was to succeed Sir Winston Churchill as prime minister.

A thought for today: U.S. President Woodrow Wilson said: "There is such a thing as a man being too proud to fight."

Do State Teachers Colleges Teach Canards About Press?

Most people live by rules. Many of these are set down for us in laws. Others by social custom. Still others are called ethics.

The moral principles and practices known as ethics have real meaning to those who practice them. They are the basis for many professional decisions, for personal actions, and for public contacts. Breaking them may not even be visible to an outsider, but there are many, many individuals who would subject themselves to personal criticism and loss rather than go against these principles.

Practically all professions, doctors, lawyers, architects, accountants, teachers and newspapermen among others, have such ethical standards. Therefore it is disturbing to us when one of these groups apparently disregards the ethical standards of another. Particularly so when we newspapermen are the ones being attacked.

In recent weeks we have run across example after example of teachers informing classes that newspapermen violate their ethics. The hoary canard which they have been trotting out is that newspapermen are controlled by the wishes of the advertisers.

We have been fighting back on the local level, attempting to talk to teachers and to classes, individually or in groups, explaining that one of our most revered ethical policies is the divorcing of the advertising and the news columns.

It makes sense, even to the advertisers, that we should not permit our advertisers to control the news. If the people know they can rely on the news columns to present the facts uncensored, they will have more tendency to rely on the advertising columns as well. As the reliability of the newspaper increases, so does the value to the advertisers.

Why then, do we seem to be under attack in classrooms of the county? This has puzzled us. Last week we found a clue.

A professor from one of the state colleges, the institutions which teach the teachers, was speaking in Marin to a group which had nothing to do with education. He, in answer to a question, used the opportunity to make an attack on the press, particularly in relationship to the influence of advertisers.

It struck us like a bolt from the blue. Perhaps the reason teachers have the wrong information about newspapers is that the state teachers colleges are teaching the wrong information. It appears they are using a broad brush to smear the whole newspaper profession.

We would not want to be accused of the same destructive blanketing in all state colleges, so we'd like to pose a few questions:

Newspapers have become a valuable teaching aid in many of our schools, how long has it been since the state teachers colleges have reviewed the material being taught about newspapers?

Is any real attempt being made to teach new teachers about the press or are the students merely given snatches of incomplete information from which they draw their own conclusions?

We don't claim to be perfect. But we strenuously object to untrue attacks from sources which should be dedicated to truth.

This situation should have serious consideration from the State Board of Education on down. And we hereby offer any help we can give to the state, the colleges, the county, the districts, the schools or the individual teachers in trying to set the record straight.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

TENANTS ARE THE VICTIMS

A landlord who pleaded guilty to 61 violations of the law in a 5-story Harlem tenement, was given 120 days in jail.

In imposing sentence, the judge referred to the man as "about as bad a landlord as we could have." The violations included a broken chimney, a rusty fire escape, dirty broken walls and ceilings, and an accumulation of rubbish and ashes in the cellar.

In another court, during the same week, one magistrate imposed 325 fines totalling $9,195 for similar violations involving hazardous leaks in ceilings, roach-infested apartments and illegal increase in the number of tenants.

All through history those who defy God's laws of charity and of justice show pitiful disregard for their fellowman.

Help lessen man's inhumanity to man in small ways as well as large by spreading on a far wider scale a divine sense of love and truth.

"Christ died for all, in order that they who are alive may live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them."
(II Corinthians 5:15)

Teach me, O divine Redeemer, to respect the rights of others.

By FRANCIS STILLEY
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody has his pet peeves, such as: When the television set goes blooey just before the ball game.

People who gripe all the time about their troubles.

People who don't want to listen to gripes about other' troubles.

Children who do not seem to perceive their elders' great wisdom, understanding, intelligence, fairness, generosity, magnificent achievements, wit humor — or why I sometimes holler at mine.

Trying to shave in the morning when something has gone wrong with the hot water heater.

Trying to save any time when there isn't any hot water.

Just having to shave at all.

The driver who has fits to get around you on the highway, then gets in front and pokes along so you can't get around him.

Cool coffee.

Warm beer.

Barbers who ask for detailed instructions as to how you want your hair cut, then do whatever they please.

The long-shot horse that ALMOST comes in first — after you've bet him on the nose.

Failure to answer letters from friends within six months.

The necessity of getting up in the morning. The necessity of having to go to work. The necessity of explaining not being able to work faster and better. The necessity of explaining to the family why there's no more pay from the inspired, competent, ingenious and utterly great work I perform.

REPORT ON CONGRESS

Next 100 Days Vital For Major Legislation

By CLEMENT W. MILLER

The next 100 days could be memorable ones in the Congress.

Major legislation in many areas of need should be moving along rather rapidly now that the House has disposed of civil rights legislation for this year.

The civil rights debate not only kept the House occupied in discussing merits of the legislation. It also caused emotional blocks for many members who were reluctant to advance any other business until the civil rights question was settled.

The House Civil Rights Bill was approved by a 311 to 109 roll call vote last week, following 10 days of debate. The bill has been sent to the Senate where action may have been taken by the time you are reading this. Or, it could drag on for weeks.

The House bill provides for voting referees to enforce constitutional voting rights through the courts. (I voted for the bill, as well as for strengthening amendments offered prior to final passage.)

Here are some of the key issues to be settled in the next three months:

AID TO EDUCATION—The Senate has passed an education bill providing for federal assistance for classroom construction and teachers' salaries. A House measure has been approved by the Education and Labor Committee and is now awaiting Rules Committee clearance for House action. Final form of the bill is uncertain.

MINIMUM WAGE — Hearings began last week in the House Education and Labor Committee on measures to raise the minimum for workers in interstate commerce to $1.25 an hour and extend it to 7.5 million more people. Senate committee hearings were held last year. Final outcome: uncertain.

SOCIAL SECURITY—Hearings have been underway for two weeks in the House Ways and Means Committee on proposals to broaden Social Security coverage, including health benefits, disability payments and general increases increases in the program. Final outcome is uncertain; health coverage is becoming a major issue.

BOND INTEREST Increases — The Administration continues to press for increases in the bond interest-rate ceiling, but opposition has grown in recent weeks. The outcome is still uncertain. This is one of the major battlegrounds of the year.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEE Pay — Hearings have been underway in the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee for two weeks now, and are scheduled to continue until April 30 on measures to increase pay for postal and classified employees.

MUTUAL SECURITY—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee last week opened hearings on the President's $4.1-billion foreign aid program. House hearings are about over. Some reductions seem certain.

FARM LEGISLATION — Both House and Senate Agriculture committees have been considering overall farm legislation. This is one area in which basic policy disagreement between the Congress and the Administration gives little encouragement for presidential signing of a bill into law this year. The Administration has not made specific proposals although the President has sent Congress general "guidelines."

HOUSING — The House Banking and Currency Committee last week approved legislation aimed at remedying the tight-money slowdown in the home construction market and to make financing easier. House action is expected soon. This bill has great implications for the North Coast's lumber industry.

POSTAL RATE Increases — The Administration has again asked for increases in first-class postal rates. Hearings are scheduled following the pay hearings.

Other legislation on which action is scheduled includes: Mexican farm labor, immigration, appropriations, student disclaimer affidavits, highway aid, GI peacetime education, area redevelopment, corporate and excise tax extension, regulatory agency rules, foreign investment incentives, passports, and construction site picketing.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Michael Harris Spoke Too

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The Independent-Journal's account of the candidates' night program at the Sausalito Women's Club listed the names of the timekeeper, the moderator, the program chairman, an absent candidate and seven of the eight speakers. The only name omitted was that of Michael Harris, whose thoughtful talk and direct answers to questions were among the best received by the audience.

He urged that the city buy Shelter Cove. He called for the completion of the downtown plan so an intelligent approach could be taken in tackling the downtown parking and traffic problem. He called for thoughtful amending of the proposed zoning ordinance so it could offer reasonable protection to Sausalito without unreasonable restraints.

I know the Independent-Journal prides itself on the fairness and impartiality of its coverage of local campaigns. The hundreds of Harris supporters will appreciate the correction of this unintentional omission.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By CARLETON WILLIAMS

Riflemen, Fisherman Should Be Able To Compromise Hamilton Problem

As one who was shooting squirrels out of the tops of Tennessee hickory nut trees by the time I was big enough to carry a .22 rifle, it is hard to realize there are those to whom the operation of a gun is a mystery.

However, such seems to be the case among, of all people, the personnel of the Air Force I am told that many airmen haven't fired a gun since their basic training days and that few qualify as marksman, the lowest grade on the shooters' totem pole.

The fact was sadly demonstrated during the Korean War by one of our pilots, shot down in enemy territory, who was hiding in the woods while an enemy patrol beat the brush for him.

ACCORDING TO HIS own admission later, the patrol passed so close he could have reached out and clubbed them one by one with his pistol.

Instead, he chose to use the business end of the .45 and emptied it at them point blank.

His score was a perfect zero After the first couple of shots they apparently realized they were safer there than at home and merely waited for him to empty the rooty-toot before putting the arm on him and hustling him off to their pokey.

All of which points up a certain need for the Hamilton Field rifle and pistol range — the only national match range, incidentally, in the area — and which the Bay Area fishermen are trying to close down because they insist it interferes with their fishing.

It also explains why the Air Force has recently stepped up its pistol and rifle training program and are going all-out for marksmanship.

THE BEEF BEGAN some weeks ago when the Air Force asked the army engineers to prohibit boats from entering a two-and-one-half mile long pie-shaped wedge of water and mud beyond the range. Stray shells from the guns of careless tyros, they said, make the water unsafe for traffic.

Naturally, the hook-and-worm boys, to whom taking away even a cupfull of fishing water is the same as coming out four - square against motherhood, hit the ceiling.

The circulated petitions asking the army to deny the closure and have begun a letter campaign to congerssmen and senators demanding the status quo in San Pablo Bay.

Even though some of my best friends are fishermen, I must say at least some of them pulled a Sneaky Pete when they circulated the petitions at the recent sports and boat show at Bermuda Palms.

One of the visitors to the show, asking what the petition was all about, was told that the Air Force was closing the waters so "the top brass could set up a private duck club."

Offhand, I would estimate they could get at least 500,000 ex-GI's to sign the petition on this basis alone.

THE FACTS ARE the area should have been closed to boat traffic the day the range was opened in 1937. The regulation, however, was somehow lost and only recently found by an eager beaver looking up regulations on his own time.

My Air Force spies, operating in the area since the closure was requested, tell me only one corner of the restricted area is ever used by fishermen, and this on rare occasions. As a matter of fact of some 200 boats counted last weekend, only one, they tell me, ventured into the restricted zone.

THE FACTS ARE that the rifle range cannot be moved as the rod and gun boys have suggested. I verified this by flying over the area last week as a sort of one-man planning commission.

Even if they had the location, the hard cash isn't forthcoming from the hallowed halls of Congress. The rifle butts cost some $300,000 back in the days when cement was not mixed with gold dust and the cost today would probably put a small sputnik in orbit.

As a compromise to the mess, the Air Force boys are suggesting to the fishermen that they get together and talk the matter over. They have suggested closing down the range on certain days and are inviting the rod and gunners to share the range with them.

No one has asked my advice, but it seems logical that the two groups could get together and work out a solution that would keep both the shooters and the fishermen happy.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Rockefeller Lurks In Background As Polls Show Nixon Slipping

It isn't just a shadow he sees, but the solid figure of the governor of New York who is neither seeking the Republican presidential nomination nor turning from it.

The fact is that Rockefeller is not to be ruled out as the man who could still come from behind — and win on the last ballot at the Chicago convention.

NIXON HIMSELF, who is not at all disposed to count himself already nominated, does not dismiss it as something that couldn't happen. It would be bad strategy for him to do so under any circumstances.

But there is another reason why Rockefeller remains in the picture. There are two "ifs" — two haunting question marks — which stand in the way of the certainty of the Nixon nomination:

1 — The continued decline of Nixon strength in the public opinion polls in trial heats against Sen. Kennedy and Adlai Stevenson with the prospect of more such news to come.

2 — The danger that the Vice President will make a weak showing in the uncontested Republican primaries.

NIXON PEOPLE are somewhat worried although Nixon himself is not going to be panicked into major campaigning before the convention. But if his decline in the polls becomes too sharp, he is going to be hurt. How badly hurt remains to be seen.

The decline is already becoming embarrassing. Only three months ago the Vice President led every Democrat in every trial heat. Kennedy had edged up a little, but it was still Nixon 53 per cent to Kennedy's 47 per cent, a tidy margin. A month ago Kennedy pulled even and last week Nixon fell back to 47 per cent and Kennedy went to 53 per cent. Also, a survey by Louis Bean, economist and political statistician, showed Stevenson leading both Kennedy and Nixon in four of the largest cities.

If this should keep up — and there is no guarantee it won't, Nelson Rockefeller could begin to look mighty attractive and there would be Republican leaders, who cold-shouldered him a few months ago, having second thoughts. Rockefeller wouldn't have to do anything to abet it; just tend to his knitting in Albany — and wait.

Now, Nixon is a resourceful politician. He isn't going to stand glued to third base. But the fact that these "ifs" now hover over the near-certainty of his nomination give the Rockefeller supporters some glimmerings of hope.

BROKER— James Gallagher, associated with Marin County real estate firms for five years, has opened his own realty office at 310 Sir Francis Drake boulevard, San Anselmo. Associated with Gallagher will be Joseph Sturiale and Charles Greenslade of San Rafael and Mrs. Nell Lilly of Larkspur.

Senate Downs Bill Requiring Text Costs

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A resolution calling for detailed cost breakdowns on publishers' bids for state textbooks was unanimously rejected by the Senate Rules Committee yesterday.

Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael), Senate minority leader, said the proposal by Assemblyman Edwin L. Z'berg (D-Sacramento) struck at private enterprise by forcing publishers to reavel their operations.

Z'berg argued that the Legislature cannot make an intelligent decision on bids unless it knows how they are arrived at.

The resolution was adopted by the Assembly last week by a bare majority.

The Legislature, amid demands for more information on why private texts cost 21 per cent more than those printed by the state, refused to vote extra money for private texts.

The state Board of Education had approved purchasing a series of "superior" privately printed readers at a cost of some four million dollars over the cost of state-printed books.

In doing so the board overturned the state's 29-year policy of printing its own texts from leased plates.

The Legislature turned down the 2½ million dollars that was needed this year to buy the extra books, but approved a 12.3 million dollar textbook appropriation.

Hours Announced For Tam High Pool

Weather permitting, the Tamalpais High School swimming pool will open Monday and remain open daily through the week with the exception of Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

Hours are from 1 to 5 p.m. These hours are special for the Easter vacation week, Charles Crawford, recreation director, said.

Beginning April 23, the pool will be open regularly on weekenks, weather permitting, the same hours, until summer vacation. A fee will be charged, Crawford said.

Dixie School Board Meets Tomorrow

Plans for the June 7 tax election and dedication of Lucas Valley School will be discussed by the Dixie School District board at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the district office. The meeting was originally scheduled to be held April 13.

Also on the agenda are summer school plans, employment of probationary personnel, contracts for a landscape architect at Hoffman School and inspector for the Vallecito School addition.

TELETYPES, PHONES

New System To Boost Libraries' Services

This summer, if you're a bookworm or want to know the latest figures on the number of Afghanistanian yaks, a network of teletypes and phones will ferret out books and information from 16 libraries—at no extra cost to you.

Libraries in five counties, including two in Marin, will begin a Federally financed demonstration project aimed at cutting costs while raising the number of library services and available books.

An estimated 473,000 persons could benefit from the two-year $100,000 program—a program linking small libraries, rather than the more common plan of pushing the facilities of a large library to the outskirts.

A teletype network will link libraries and their branches in San Rafael, Ukiah, Santa Rosa, Petaluma, Vallejo, Napa, Fairfield, and the state library in Sacramento. Special telephone arrangements will tie in Sausalito, Sebastopol, Sonoma, St. Helena, Vacaville, Benicia and Cloverdale.

The plan will allow the two Marin libraries to specialize in the arts: Petaluma, geography; Santa Rosa, business, finance, government and law; Sonoma, agriculture. Ukiah will build up its collection on forestry and wood products; Vallejo will specialize in technology.

For the library user, it will mean that a book or magazine not available in one library will be brought from another on the teletype-phone system by daily truck delivery. Library officials hope to have library cards interchangeable within the system so readers can browse wherever their specialties are housed.

Libraries will "weed out" out-of-date and seldom-used materials, pool them in one collection, and store them in a central location for use when a teletype or phone message says they are needed.

The system will benefit not only the library user, but also every taxpayer, believes Mrs. Virginia Keating, Marin County librarian. A proposed system of centralized purchasing and processing is expected to save participating libraries about two-thirds of the federal grant in the two years. The processing necessary to put a book on the shelf often costs as much as the purchase price, library officials said.

Other features of the project: A roving children's librarian will be available to advise librarians of smaller collections; a collection of 100 educational films will be housed in Fairfield but available through cooperating libraries.

The system will attempt to make the facilities of a big-town library available to small-towners.

Attends Convention

Mrs. Louise Lamb of Corte Madera is attending a convention of Mutual of New York, life insurance firm, in Dallas, Tex. Before her return Sunday she plans to spend a few days sight-seeing and visiting friends in New Orleans.

Marin City Move Won't Upset Voting

Mrs. Gene Beard, secretary, read a letter from County Clerk George S. Jones to this effect.

The council voted to engage in an active campaign to get Marin City residents to register for voting, Mrs. Beard said.

There will be no April town meeting, she announced. The next town meeting was set tentatively for May 2, at which time discussions will be held concerning private homes and apartments that are to be built at Marin City.

It was announced that James Morgan, president of the Marin City Youth Council, will meet with a committee of young men at 2 p.m. Saturday to help clean, up, paint and repair the community center gym.

For the first time in hundreds of years, no flax was grown commercially in Northern Ireland in 1959.

Supervisors Slate Fluoridation Forum

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday voted to sponsor a public forum on fluoridation, but set no date for it.

The action came after Mrs. William Loran of Mill Valley, chairman of the Children's Dental Health Committee of Marin County, read a statement castigating Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy Jr., county medical officer, for "disseminating incorrect information which we feel can have only a damaging effect on the voters."

Whether water supplied to users in the Marin Municipal Water District should be fluoridated will be on the June 7 ballot.

Mrs. Loran said the committee's campaign for fluoridation is based on three points: It is effective, it is safe and it is cheap.

"All other statements about fluoridation—for or against — cannot shake the irrefutable facts supporting these three points," she said.

She said Dr. Dufficy's information has been "delivered to the board of supervisors, to the medical and dental professions, to the county board of education, to the newspapers, and possibly elsewhere."

"Last month," she said, "in his 17 statements entitled 'Artificial Fluoridation of Marin Water,' published from his office . . . Dr. Dufficy made numerous charges to cast a poor light on fluoridation by fear of its effects." Dr. Dufficy's charges that the American Medical Assn and the American Dental Assn. have not endorsed fluoridation have been repudiated," she said.

Mrs. Loran said Dr. Dufficy's "claim to speak as a private citizen seems to us far-fetched since it clearly is impossible for a public figure to speak as a private figure in a field in which he is judged by laymen to have competence."

PROPOSE PANEL

Although the supervisors "has proclaimed disinterest in fluoridation . . . we propose that members of a panel of five men of science . . . challenge Dr. Dufficy to prove his statements," she went on.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman, before a vote was taken, suggested that Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, county health officer, be invited to appear on a voluntary basis to give her views. This was suggested at a previous meeting of the board when Fusselman was absent. (Supervisor Vera Schultz later said the motion and the vote had been left out of the minutes.)

"I say she should appear only if she wants to," said Fusselman.

DIFFICULT POSITION

"These recent developments put Dr. Albrecht in a difficult position," Mrs. Schultz said. "I think the best thing to get a balanced position is to have a forum."

"I agree," said Fusselman. "I just wanted to remove any objection to have Dr. Albrecht appear on a voluntary basis."

The vote to hold a forum was unanimous, but the motion did not contain any statement such as suggested by Mrs. Loran that a panel of scientists quiz Dr. Dufficy. The vote simply approved a public forum at which both sides would be debated, with the board of supervisors sponsoring the meeting and taking no action.

NEXT TIME HE BETTER TAKE 'CHUTE ALONG

Embassy counselor Sudio Gandaram was still on board when the four engines of Sukarno's plane were started up and the gangway was removed.

After some hasty signaling, the platform was pushed back to the door. But as Gandaram stepped toward it, the prop wash hurled the structure backward and the diplomat nearly pitched into space.

When the gangway finally was worked back into position, Gandaram got on it but the plane lurched forward and sent it reeling again. Gandaram clung to the top as airport workers struggled to keep it from toppling.

Mill Valley's Fire Horn Not Working

The Mill Valley Fire Department will sound the city hall siren for the next three weeks to call out volunteer firemen, because the valve in the fire horn is out of order and is being repaired, Fire Chief Leslie Armager said today.

Armager said the siren will be sounded with five blasts of 30 seconds duration to call volunteers. "We will be unable to notify the particular area," he said, "but just notify that there is a fire."

Saturday in San Rafael High School auditorium. Tickets will be on sale at the door for those not having season tickets. Group reservations may be made with Mrs. Wallace McDonald of Kentfield.

Grammar Schools Give Courses In Languages

Eleven of the county's 24 elementary school districts offer at least one foreign language to their pupils. And these 11 include the greater proportion of county pupils.

In a report to the Marin County Board of Education Monday night, and in an interview yesterday, Richard H. Hinze, assistant county superintendent of schools, gave much of the credit for such programs to parental interest and pressure, and school district willingness to experiment.

All but one district in the county with more than 900 pupils in average daily attendance offer foreign languages in the elementary grades, Hinze said. The exception is the San Anselmo District, which is "exploring" the possibility.

Spanish is the most popular language, with all of the districts offering it at some grade level. French is offered in seven districts, German in three districts.

Russian is offered in the Kentfield district, because of teacher availability, one of the prime considerations in foreign language programs in all the schools, Hinze said.

The 11 districts offering foreign languages on some level are Dixie, Kentfield, Larkspur, Mill Valley, Novato, Reed-Union, Ross, San Jose, San Rafael, Sausalito. All but Mill Valley and Novato offer languages in the seventh and eighth grades.

The Dixie district offers some language in grades 2, 3, 4, 6, 7 and 8.

There are six schools in the Dixie district; foreign language classes are available for students in those grades, but not all schools in the district have such classes, he said.

Hinze said he had no figures on the number of students in the language programs and could not compare it to the growing national trend of teaching languages at the elementary level. The Marin program includes 16 schools.

Eight of the 11 districts offering languages give it during the regular school day; two offer it before or after school; one district combines both plans.

Seven of the 11 districts are "looking into it" to see if a change in the program is indicated, Hinze explained. Few studies on the effectiveness of teaching languages in the grades are available, so experimentation is necessary, he said.

Major problem in the programs is cost, both for materials and special teachers. In addition, there is some question whether it is beneficial for a student to study a foreign language in the grades unless he continues it later.

Another problem with such programs appears on the high school level, he added. High schools are watching development of elementary language programs because they will have to adjust their curriculum to accommodate students who already have some language training.

New Tiburon Firehouse Approved

A new Tiburon fire station to be built at the intersection of Trestle Glen boulevard and Paradise drive has been approved by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The commission voted unanimously to recommend granting a use permit for the new building on the condition that it is subject to architectural supervision.

Enthusiastic approval was given for construction of an office and storage facility on the site of the Tennis Club adjacent to the Little Reed Park in Belvedere.

Commissioner Margaret Azevedo, calling plans for the proposed building "very attractive" made the motion to accept the plans that was approved unanimously by the commission.

Two Airmen Deny Assault Charge

Two Hamilton Air Force Base airmen pleaded innocent Monday in San Francisco Municipal Court to charges of assault.

A preliminary hearing for A/1c Lawrence L. Dow and A/2c Eugene W. Bell was set for April 26 at 10 a.m. The two men were arrested last Thursday night after an altercation in the Universal Restaurant on Grant avenue in San Francisco.

Woman Admits Forging Checks

Mrs. Dorothy J. Boothe, 26, Novato secretary-bookkeeper, pleaded guilty Monday to three counts of forgery and one count of grand theft.

She was charged with forging checks and grand theft from real estate man Robert C. Campbell of Novato, for whom she worked last August through January. Sheriff's inspectors said Campbell's losses amounted to about $1800.

Judge Harold J. Haley sitting in Marin Superior Court ordered Mrs. Boothe to appear in court next Monday for a report from the probation office and for sentencing. She is free on bail.

APPEARANCE PROVES DECEPTIVE

The streamlined body of the Citroen, built in France and shown above, with wheels located near corners without excessive body overhang, at first glance gives the appearance of being small — in the sports car size range. There's nothing small about the car—its 123-inch wheelbase matches that of the Rolls Royce and is only three inches short of the wheelbase of the Lincoln. Citroen's oil-air suspension system and automatic compensation for loads give the French import a beautifully smooth ride quality. Citroen is handled in Marin by Shamrock Motors, 375 Miller avenue, Mill Valley.

Kentfield Woman Gets Democratic Appointment

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Kentfield was one of 14 national Democratic committee members appointed today to the arrangements committee for the party's July convention in Los Angeles.

Democratic Party chairman Paul M. Butler, who made the appointments, said the committee will meet April 18-20 in Los Angeles to inspect convention facilities, the Associated Press reported from Washington. Butler is chairman of the arrangements group.

One function of the committee is to recommend to the national party committee selections for temporary chairman, keynote speaker, permanent chairman and chairman of the committee on resolutions and platform.

California, as host state, got two seats on the arrangements committee. The other Californian is Paul Ziffren, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Smith has been a national committeewoman since 1956 and was a delegate to the national convention in that year, when she backed Stevenson.

Trucking On Up

DETROIT (UPI)—Trucks haul 1,600,000,000 tons of freight a year — more than any other type of carrier, according to the 1959 edition of Motor Truck Facts.

The statistical handbook also reveals that truck transportation now employes 7,400,000 persons or one out of every 10 workers in the nation.

Our Modern Kids Are Far Too Busy For Schoolyard Fistfights

Does your son have many real fistfights?

Let's look at boys' fist fights:

As a child did you go to a school where the playgrounds were not organized, and where your recesses and noon hours were spent roaming with your gang, looking for trouble? I went to such a school a short time. I roamed with my gang. We had many fights. We learned to be bullies, or cowards.

Nowadays nearly all schools plan the playground activities carefully. Every boy is on a team. He knows where he should go, and what he should do. He works off steam trying to win the game — not trying to knock the head off another boy.

Teachers are on hand. They stop trouble before it gets started.

Also, there are fewer fights after school lets out. One reason probably is that our sons are very busy. They have hobbies. They take part in sports like Little League. They lack time to loaf around, and squabble.

Another reason for the change is Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts. Millions of boys belong to them. They learn about helping one another. They develop high standards of honesty, decency, fair play. There is no place for fist fights in Scouting.

Does this mean our boys are sissies?

No. The truth is they are bigger than we were at the same age. They are stronger. They have better coordination. They can walk farther, climb higher and run faster than we could. They're husky, healthy kids. They're just a bit more civilized than we were.

A good thing, isn't it ?

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "At what age should a boy go camping? My son is 11. He recently joined the Boy Scouts. His troop has many weekend outings. I have been afraid to let him go. Isn't he too young for camping?"

F.J.K.

(A) Not if his troop has a good scoutmaster, and the scoutmaster goes along. Boys learn some important lessons on the outings. Scout affairs usually are well planned, and reasonably safe. Your boy is growing up. Let him go.

FHA Eyes Lower Down Payments

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Housing Administrator Norman P. Mason said yesterday the Federal Housing Administration is restudying the possibility of lowering minimum cash payments on houses bought with FHA-backed mortgages.

Congress last year authorized lower down payments on houses costing $13,500 or more. FHA chief Julian H. Zimmerman refused last autumn to use the authority. He said until credit conditions eased it would not stimulate the sale and building of new homes.

Mason, Zimmerman's boss, indicated that improved availability of home loans in the past two months has led to a second look at lowering the down payments.

Home Again

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP) — Except for the jail cook, deputies might still be questioning a lost 9-year-old boy who refused to state his name or home address. The cook recognized the youngster as the son of a friend, prepared him a big plate of ham and eggs, and directed deputies to his home.

Enrique Jorda To Talk To Students

The conductor of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra will answer questions on various facets of the musical world in the lounge of Pennafort Hall on the Dominican College campus at 4 p.m. tomorrow.

Enrique Jorda has been invited by the Dominican College Music Club to address and answer questions of the students, alumnae and friends of the music department, said Sister M. Dominic, O.P., piano instructor at the college. Refreshments will be served during the meeting.

He Gets Promotion

Opera Groups Planning Association

NEW YORK (AP)—The Metropolitan Opera, the Chicago Lyric Opera and the San Francisco Opera are planning to form an association to provide mutual aid to present a united front in coping with their problems.

Among the aims of the three major U.S. opera companies are cutting costs, sharing artists and repertory and popularizing opera in this country.

The proposed association also would deal with the problem of hard-to-handle artists who cause managerial headaches. Bargaining with unions and arranging tours are other items for joint consideration.

Rudolf Bing, general manager of the Metropolitan, revealed the project Monday. He had discussed it in February with Kurt Herbert Adler, general director of the San Francisco Opera, and Miss Carol Fox, general manager of the Lyric Opera of Chicago.

Bolinas Property Owners Group To Meet On April 16

Members of the newly formed Bolinas Property Owners Assn. will meet April 16 to discuss articles and bylaws of the group aimed at providing a "strong, united voice for the expression of opinions by the property owners. . . ."

Temporary chairman of the group, John Hamilton, explained at the organizational meeting in March that the association wants "orderly development and preservation of Bolinas' rural and recreational character."

Regular officers and directors will be elected at the meeting at 8 p.m. in the Bolinas Community Center. Other temporary officers are Mrs. W. G. Messimer, secretary, and M. L. Ryan, treasurer.

The articles and bylaws committee consists of Arthur DeLorimier, M. A. Dowdall, W. E. Hettman and Robert Knauss.

Mrs. James Jenkins, Mrs. Gene McDaniel, Dr. Charles Ryan, Norman Ford and Richard Downey are on the nominating committee.

Fairfax Building Permit Total Dips

Building permits totaling $109,980 were issued in Fairfax during March, $20,125 less than for the same month last year, according to City Clerk Alice Leonesio.

Dragsters' Driving Records Watched

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The department of Motor Vehicles warned yesterday it would "watch closely" the driving records of all dragsters and hot-rod racers.

Department director Robert McCarthy, in a news statement, challenged all teen-age drivers and members of hot-rod clubs to "demonstrate that you are the responsible individuals and citizens you so often claim to be in defending your hot-rod sporting events."

He called on the clubs to expel members who demonstrate "their unfitness to drive."

San Rafael's fire fighting capacity moves north to keep pace with the rapid expansion into Terra Linda Valley. Plans for this station, at the Professional Center across Highway 101 from Terra Linda, won the approval of the San Rafael City Council Monday night. Architects Malone and Hooper of San Francisco were authorized to draw up plans and specifications so that bids can be called. Estimated cost is $50,000. The city's third firehouse, named in honor of the late Councilman Joseph F. Sauer, should be ready early next year.

Senate Unit Kills Smog Control Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill allowing San Francisco Bay Area air pollution officials control over all local agencies of the six-county district apparently is dead for this session of the state Legislature.

Chairman James McBride (D-Ventura) said no one had asked for a hearing on the bill and "I couldn't even get one vote on it."

The bill, approved last week by the upper chamber local government committee and passed to the Senate floor, was sent to Finance Committee on a motion by Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael).

McCarthy said he had received a communication from the Marin County Board of Supervisors opposing the measure.

Board Opposes Bill To Up Smog Unit's Power

P40—230 BOARD OPPOSES ..

Action yesterday in Sacramento by State Sen. John F. McCarthy to block legislation which would grant Bay Area air pollution authorities more control was reaffirmed yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The board previously had gone on record as opposed to a bill that would give smog officials more power over public agencies.

In a last-ditch effort to save the bill, Matthew Walker, attorney for the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, told the board the bill was not designed to take away local power, and asked the board to reverse itself.

County Fire Chief Charles Reilley told the board he was opposed to the bill. He said it "would take away Marin's authority, and control would fall to the air pollution board."

Supervisor William Gnoss, a member of the air pollution control board, said, "Just to bring this matter to a head I move we rescind our previous action." The vote was 3 to 2, with Supervisors Vera Schultz favoring Gnoss' motion.

More Agriculture Stipends Asked

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A long-range increase in the state agricultural scholarship program has been approved by the Assembly.

The house passed, 65-1, a bill by Assemblyman Charles B. Garigus (D-Reedley) to add 100 scholarships each year until the total reaches 400. There will be 100 in 1960-61.

Radio Panel To Discuss Forand Bill

Should persons over 65 drawing social security benefits receive medical care as part of those benefits?

This is the question that will be debated on tomorrow's broadcast of "Marin Sounding Board" on KTIM from 9 to 10 a.m. Two physicians, a labor leader and a senior citizen will discuss the pros and cons of the Forand Bill.

Moderator Kitty Oppenheimer will have as her guests: Dr. Warren Bostick, member of Marin County Medical Society and president-elect of the California Medical Assn.; Dr. Michael Franzblau, Terra Linda skin specialist; Hugh Cassidy, Marin County Labor Council secretary-treasurer, and William Voorheis of San Rafael, a director of the Marin Senior Assn.

The panel will answer questions submitted by listeners during the program.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Bill Too Big? Have Your Employer Withhold More

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

Do you have a big tax bill to pay this year in addition to what your employer has already withheld from your 1959 paychecks?

Peter J. Wikel

If you do, then consider making a written agreement with your employer to have a greater amount withheld from your 1960 paychecks so that you will not have a big bill to pay in 1961.

Withholding, at the regular rates, only covers the tax on your income from salary or wages and is inadequate, if you have a large salary or earnings from sources not subject to withholding.

The law provides that you can agree with your employer to have him take more than the regular rate of withholding out of your paycheck so that you will have your taxes fully paid at the end of the year.

Your employer must be willing and you and your employer must make an agreement, in writing, in such form as your employer may require, to have your employer take a stated extra amount of withholding from your wages. Your employer handles this just exactly the same way as other withholding and you also handle your reporting of this extra withholding on your tax return the same as any other withholding. This will let you pay your 1960 income tax in 1960, as you receive your income, and not all in a lump sum in 1961.

If this applies to you, then make such an arrangement with your employer now, so that you can spread the payment over as long a period as possible.

Oakland's Coach To Be Honored

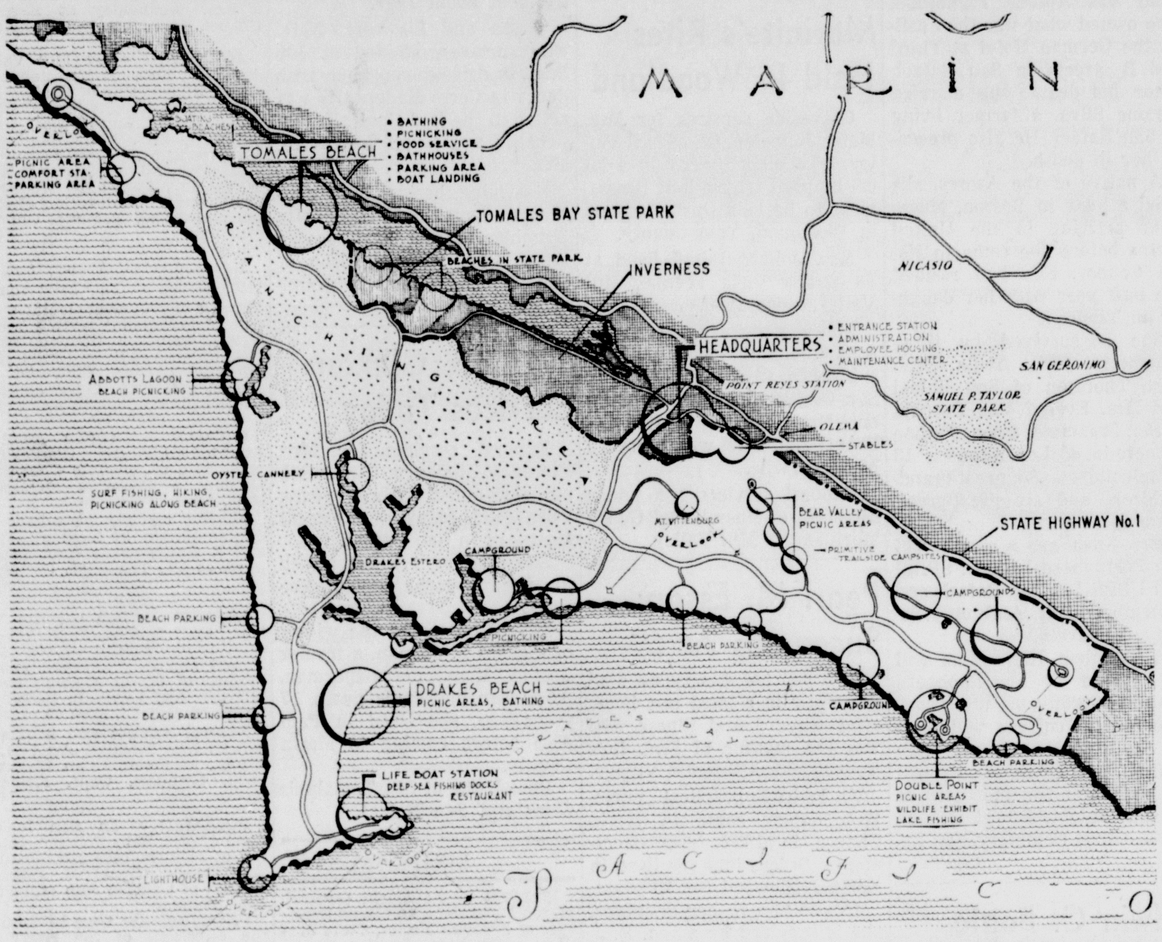
U.S. Gives Marin Details Of Pt. Reyes Park Proposal



PLAN FOR PT. REYES PARK — This is the proposed development of Pt. Reyes National Seashore Area as suggested by the U.S. Park Service. The 53,000 acre park plan, still in formative stages, was given to the Marin County Board of Supervisors today. A U.S. Senate subcommittee will hold a hearing on the project in Marin next week.

The National Park Service's development plan for a proposed 53,000-acre Pt. Reyes National Seashore Area was presented to the Marin County Board of Supervisors today.

The board was holding a special meeting this afternoon to accept and study the proposal.

A U.S. Senate subcommittee will view the peninsula from the air next Wednesday and will hold a day-long public hearing on the project next Thursday, starting at 9:30 a.m., at College of Marin.

The plan envisages a 53,000-acre park area, practically the entire peninsula, of which 21,000 acres in the center would be reserved for continued private ranching activities. The communities of Bolinas, Inverness and Inverness Park, plus room for their expansion, would not be included.

Park development would include roadways, camping, picnicking, bathing, riding and scenic areas connected by a principal road system with side roads into the recreational areas.

The main entrance to the park and its headquarters would be located about where the present Point Reyes Station-Inverness road turns sharply north at the end of Tomales Bay. The entrance roadway would lead into the major T-shaped road system.

The cross-bar road of the T would lead from the Pt. Reyes lighthouse to the tip of Tomales Point, northernmost part of the peninsula. The other road would lead from the enter of the cross bar near the end of Drake's Estero, south and east almost to Bolinas.

A major picnic, fishing, wildlife development is proposed for Double Point in the south portion of the peninsula, with

County Calls Bond Vote For New Hospital-Farm

Vets Fund Sought To Expand Juvenile Hall

The Marin County Board of Supervisors late yesterday voted to place a bond issue on the November ballot to finance a new county hospital and farm.

The board also voted to seek veterans' organizations' opinion on the use of veteran memorial funds for financing a juvenile hall addition. The money would be paid back over a period of three years from tax revenues — probably about five cents on each $100 assessed valuation each year.

The board also accepted the final plans and specifications for the hall and the farm and hospital.

$2 MILLION ESTIMATE

The amount of the bond issue was not stated, but it has been estimated the hospital will cost approximately two million dollars. County Counsel Leland H. Jordan must prepare a resolution formally calling for the special election issue on the November ballot.

Supervisors discussed the possibility of placing issue on the June ballot, but aside from the amount of time necessary in legal machinery, it was felt there would be more time to campaign for the bonds by the later election date.

REJECT RECOMMENDATION

In calling for these two methods of financing, the board rejected a committee recommendation that the two facilities be financed on a lease-option basis. A committee report, prepared by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen, was sharply criticized by County Auditor Leon A. de Lisle, and the ball was carried by Supervisors William D. Fusselman and Vera Schultz.

The letter from Jensen said department heads involved in the planning of the two facilities had inspected the plans and asked their approval. The board approved in two unanimous votes.

URGE LEASE

In addition, the letter said, "the department heads and committee members involved unanimously recommend that the board . . . proceed with the lease and lease-back arrangements."

The board also received from Jordan a recommended schedule to be followed if the lease plan were approved.

"I am personally opposed to this," de Lisle said, adding that a lease arrangement did not have to be recommended.

Fusselman then suggested that perhaps the matter could go to an election, or that the 42-cent tax rate used for the civic center could be pared to 32, with 10 cents going to the hospital and hall.

De Lisle said this would be an "ideal" arrangement, but later added that 14 cents would be needed to finance the hall over a three-year period. This is the approximate amount to be paid back to the memorial fund if veterans agree. Jensen and de Lisle will confer with veterans' organizations.

Fusselman said he believed there was not "enough steam" behind a bond election proposal in 1958, and that it was defeated because there were too many other issues on the ballot, including one for a county charter. "I'm sure bonds would pass," he said, and added that he would campaign for the issue.

He attacked the lease arrangement as one that would saddle the taxpayers with great expense over the long run.

"But costs will go up by November," Chairman Walter R. Castro interjected.

He added that he thought it

AFRICA TO RESUME HATED PASS SETUP

COMBINED AP & UPI

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa—Justice Minister F. C. Erasmus said police again will be ordered to demand that pass system for South Africa's non-whites. Opposition to the passes touched off the nation's current racial turmoil.

Erasmum said police again will be ordered to demand that Negroes show their passes. The pass law was suspended at the height of the violence.

Earlier, government officials served notice they will press their drive against Negro "inciters and intimidators" until South Africa's Negro work boycott is crushed.

An uneasy national holiday today interrupted the racial violence that has gripped the nation for 17 days. But extremist Negro leaders warned that anti-white feeling was reaching dangerous levels.

The stay-at-home strike by Africans hardly affected the holiday. But police announced they were prepared to move back tomorrow into Negro areas to "protect Africans" wishing to return to work. Such forays in recent days brought death and injury to scores.

Today's holiday—the equivalent of Columbus Day in the United States—was ushered in by a night of terror in which four Negroes were shot and wounded in the Nyanga Negro settlement on the outskirts of Capetown after charges by club-wielding police failed to dislodge them.

A schoolhouse was burned on the outskirts of Capetown while in the Durban area troops and police supported by armored cars seized an African hotel in the Lamontville Township and arrested 300 blacks who had driven out white officials on Monday night.

Today was the 308th anniversary of white settlement of the union.

RAIN POSSIBLE TONIGHT, SAYS WEATHER MAN

Marin's balmy weather may end this week with the possibility of rain forecast tonight and tomorrow and again over the weekend.

Temperatures in Marin just before noon today were about the same as they were yesterday at the same time. Today's reading in San Rafael had reached 76 about noon. The high yesterday was 84.

Terra Linda had a high yesterday of 81; Novato, 84; Woodacre 78, and Bolinas, a cool 62.

Legislature Asks Land For New Park

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A Senate joint resolution requesting the federal government to turn over military lands on both side of the Golden Gate to California for a state park won final approval in the Legislature yesterday.

By unanimous vote, the Assembly passed the Senate-approved measure by Marin Sen. Jack F. McCarthy and San Francisco Sen. Eugene McAteer. It asks Congress to give surplus military lands in Fts. Barry, Baker and Cronkhite on the Marin coast and other federal lands edging San Francisco shoreline of the Golden Gate for establishment of a Golden Gate Memorial State Park.

Earlier, the Legislature had approved $250,000 in the budget of the Division of Beaches and Parks for purchase of surplus lands in the same area. Beaches and Parks calls the

Sausalito Moves To Purchase Cove

The Sausalito City Council went on record last night as agreeing in principle to city purchase of Shelter Cove for the preservation of open water and for recreation.

The vote was 4-0.

John E. Koenig Jr. was acting mayor since Mayor Howard Sievers was out of town on business.

The council agreed that a price for the cove lots would be negotiated later between the council and Views Land Co., the owner, that the city would accept gifts offered by citizens, and that the city attorney be directed to have attorneys Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington and Sutcliffe prepare a resolution for a bond issue. The feasibility of purchase by lease-option also will be explored, councilmen decided.

The decision was reached after [illegible] hour's lively discussion.

Councilman Marjorie Brady said [illegible] committee working on the property for the city had raised $21,810 from property owners in the cove area, but has not yet approached residents in other parts of town. This amount includes the original sum of $15,000 given by Sally Stanford, whose Valhalla Inn restaurant is in the cove area.

Total price for the eight lots in the cove is estimated at $115,000, although Councilman Phillip S. Ehrlich Jr. said they might be purchased for less.

Sidney Rudy, attorney for Views Land Co., said, "We have a contract for the purchase of the property and the actual recording will take place between now and April 19, and we will have title."

Richard Gladstein, attorney for Miss Stanford, and Clifford Josephson of 406 Main street asked for denial of the use permit for Views Land to build on the property.

Mrs. Brady said: "We have not granted the use permit. Not granting is just as positive a position as denying."

Leonard Bjorklund, representing two land owners in the cove, asked Rudy how much profit his client is allowing himself, also the architects' and attorneys' fees.

Rudy said the profit was 10 per cent of the two pieces of property, and on the cove property there was $3,800 for legal and architects' fees. These fees on the piece of property north of Richardson street, he said, total $4,300.

Sally Stanford asked, "How much did they actually pay for the property?" The answer was $71,000.

Since the 45-day extension granted the city by Views Land Co. was to have run out April 14, Koenig asked for an extension to May 3 and Rudy agreed. Koenig said the extension would have to be beyond the April 19 meeting of the council since that meeting is traditionally taken up with installation of the new council.

MARIN WARNED TO EXPECT SONIC BOOMS

If you are plagued by an occasional sonic boom for the next few days, relax. It will be part of an operational readiness inspection under way at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Supersonic planes from Hamilton, Castle and Travis Air Force Bases as well as Navy jets from Alameda Naval Air Station will be staging war games throughout the remainder of the week.

"We will not deliberately go supersonic," a base spokesman said, "but occasionally a pilot is likely to get too enthusiastic in pursuit of a target plane and break the sound barrier."

Commissioners Elected In 3 Fire Districts

The Tiburon Fire Protection District yesterday received a new commissioner, and in two other fire district elections, incumbents were returned to office.

Harry M. Bragg, 39, of 2218 Mar East street, Tiburon, was elected to the Tiburon board with 241 votes. He will succeed retiring chairman John F. Stanton.

NOVATO VOTING

In the Novato fire District, voters returned Peter J. Ferrarese, manager of the Novato office of the First National Bank in San Rafael, to office. He received 247 votes, and Keith C. Craig, a highway patrolman, received 114. There are approximately 5,000 registered voters in the 35 precincts which make up the Novato district.

In the Tamalpais Valley Fire District, incumbents Frank L. Smith with 159 votes and J. A. Stuber with 129 were returned to office. Morris Batz received 30 votes and there were write-ins for Robert D. Smith, 15; Richards D. Smith, 1, and William Nellis, 1. A total of 179 votes were cast out of a possible 1,800.

TRAIL IN TIBURON

Runners-up in the Tiburon election were Dick De Berry, 191 votes and Don D. Ishmael, son of the former fire chief, 24 votes. Anne Ellinwood received one write-in vote. A total of 457 votes out of a possible 1,502 were cast.

In the Alto Fire District incumbent William Cunha was the only candidate, so there was no election.

Candlelight Thief Hits In San Rafael

A thief, using a church candle to light his way, prowled through the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael, then ransacked offices in the Odd Fellows Building and took about $120 in cash sometime last night.

Officials of the church at Fifth avenue and E street discovered the entry and called police about 8 a.m. today. Officers then found the American Optical Co., Odd Fellows office, Jenkel-Davidson Optical Co. and Broemmel Pharmacy had also been entered.

The church invasion was almost identical to the entry at the Episcopal Church of Our Savior in Mill Valley last Sunday night. The prowler left a trail of candle drippings at the Mill Valley church, breaking interior doors and windows and taking $54. The San Rafael church burglar also used a candle, but he got no cash.

SAUSALITO . . . CARL WOOLEY
Tells His Aims As Councilman

"I am certainly in favor of a master plan for Sausalito but the one we have has many shortcomings and flaws. It could use extensive modification. For instance, the proposed new zoning ordinance does not, in my opinion, fit the needs of our city. If adopted, it will throw a large percentage of our buildings into immediate non-conformity. It will be impossible to remodel at any time, or replace them in case of 60% or more damage by fire, or other causes. Most small income properties will, within a few years, have to return to one-family residences. Vacant lots now paying high taxes because of duplex zoning will be zoned single-family, with no reduction in taxes. These, and other stringent restrictions, will work great hardships on many citizens. One cannot escape the idea that this ordinance is a rehash of one drawn up for a new city on a level site. It shows little regard for our hillside layout and terrain." April 12 election in Sausalito

Strike Threat Over At San Rafael Hospital

Threat of a strike at San Rafael General Hospital has evaporated.

Members of Hospital Workers Union Local 250 employed at the San Rafael Hospital late yesterday accepted an offer by the hospital foundation's trustee's which provides for a $10-per-month across - the - board raise and a union shop, hospital administrator John H. Prescott announced today.

The union withdrew a request to the Marin County Labor Council for strike sanction, announced Hugh Cassidy, council secretary. It had planned a strike tomorrow unless agreement with the hospital board was reached.

Prescott said the hospital trustees had offered raises ranging up to $20 per month without the union shop clauses, but the union insisted on the clause's inclusion.

The union had had a contract with San Rafael General Hostpital for four years, but did not previously have the union shop provision—which requires that all employees become members of the union, although they need not be members when hired.

The contract covers all hospital employees except administrative and nursing. It is retroactive to Feb. 15, the expiration date of the previous contract.

two large campgrounds proposed in the mountainous areas just north of the point. Three picnic areas are planned in Bear Valley, plus primitive trailside campsites in that beautiful, wooded area.

There would be two major campgrounds and four beach parking and picnic areas along the sweeping shoreline of Drake's Bay, with a major picnic-bathing development at Drake's Beach and at the mouth of Drake's Estero.

Four more picnic-recreation areas are planned along the straight, white beach on the ocean side of the peninsula and a major Tomales Beach development is planned on Tomales Bay just north of the existing state park.

In addition there would be side roads up Mt. Wittenburg and to numerous "overlook points."

The 21,000 acres in the heart of the peninsula, most of which at present is used by dairy ranchers, would either be purchased outright and leased back to the previous owners, or the federal government would purchase a "scenic easement" from the ranchers providing for continued ranching of the property, but not for other development.

About 11,500 acres of dairy land, however, would be acquired for public use and dairying discontinued.

In a 17-page question-and-answers publication, the National Park Service estimates that the total assessed value of the entire 53,000 acres is abopt $1,500,000. More than half of this, $800,000, would be in the 21,000-acre ranch area. The service noted Marin County land and improvements are assessed at approximately 23 per cent of market value and said the total market value is about $6,500,000.

If the government decides to purchase the ranch areas and lease them back, "it probably would be on renewable 10-year leases with fees and payments being determined by the ranching use, property values, economic costs "and other economic factors," the Park Service report says.

A rancher leasing such property would be able to transfer his lease so long as the second rancher assumes the same obligations for continuing ranching activties.

Lessees would have to pay state and county taxes on possessory interest in the property, although the federal government would hold title to the land. There is a possibility in addition that the federal government would pay some in-lieu taxes. It has agreed to do this at Grand Teton National Park.

It is unlikely, the question-and-answer statement went on, that sufficient funds would be made available by the federal government for acquisition of the entire seashore project at one time. If not, the park service would attempt to acquire as soon as possible, the "key properties in the interest of preserving the most important or endangered natural values, and of obtaining land most immediately useful for public recreation."

Even this, however, would not be immediate. A detailed master plan for development and use of the area, including studies on which to base precise boundaries, would have to be drawn before Congress would even consider appropriating money. This would take at least a year, the Park Service stated.

Under normal procedures, it would take the Park Service about 10 years to develop the area to its full potential.

It would be up to the state to decide whether Tomales Bay State Park should be included in the federal development or continued as a state park. And it would be up to Marin County to decide whether Drake's Beach and McClure's Beach would be included.

The question of whether hunting of game and waterfowl would be allowed wouldn't be answered, however, until a decision is reached by state and federal authorities.

What will be the economic effects of the park on Marin County? The park service is conducting a survey to find out. The amount of tax revenues in 1958-59 from the private lands and improvements total $68,700, the service said, more than half of it ($35,100) from the proposed ranching area.

The park service shows that 56 persons and cooperations own property in the area. However, 26 of these are small tracts. Ninety-nine per cent of the property is owned by 25 persons or corporations and six of these own a total of 48 per cent of the entire area.

area Golden Gate Beach State Park.

However, if Congress acceeds to the joint resolution, the property could be donated to the state on the basis of its historic value. If it does not, the state still could buy the property at one half its assessed value.

Thus far only 280 acres of the 4,000-acre proposed park have been declared surplus.

Faculty Salary Raises Favored

Reed Union School District trustees last night decided they were generally in favor of increasing teachers salaries, but took no action until further 1960-61 budget sessions could be held, according to Supt. Paul R. Stouffer.

The proposed salary schedule would raise starting teachers from $4,600 to $4,800 annually. The maximum would be raised from $7,800 to $9,250.

Trustee Alfred J. Azevedo presented his report on the methods of arriving at principals' salaries. Trustees felt that adopting a ration salary schedule related to the highest teacher salary would be the best, Stouffer said. No action was taken.

Chauffeur, Heiress Try Again To Wed

DILLON, S.C. (AP)—An American heiress and her Romanian-born chauffeur who failed in an effort to wed in Paris last Christmas have come to the Carolina tobacco country seeking to seal their love in marriage.

Gamble Benedict and her dark - haired smiling sweetheart, Andre Porumbeanu, filed their application for a marriage license yesterday. The license will be available late today under South Carolina's 24-hour waiting period.

In New York, the Benedict family's lawyer said: "This time he will not get away with it. All necessary measures will be taken to effect her return home."

Miss Benedict is charged with being a wayward minor. She already was a ward of the court as an outgrowth of her trip to France last December aboard a small oil tanker with Porumbeanu.

would be "a waste of time" to seek a bond issue.

Mrs. Schultz said she felt the bond issue for a hospital failed because "the story was not taken to the people." She then proposed that the matter be placed on the ballot and that juvenile hall funds be sought from the county retirement fund. But other board members talked against the retirement fund plan, fearing, they said, the retirement fund board would never approve.

"We'd better have bond issues on both," said Fusselman. Then he added that "even the veterans' fund might be used. They just might want a memorial juvenile hall."

"They'll never go for it," said Castro.

Supervisor James Marshall said he thought both issues "should go to the people, and if that fails we can use another method."

Roy A. Ibach, chairman of the county probation committee which has had a hand in the development of the hall plans, told the board: "Our feeling at first was that the money should come out of the general fund. It seems that a 10-cent tax rate would take care of it, and that it could be paid for in a year. That way the taxpayer would not have the recurring expense of the lease arrangement. We're right back where we were last July when we tried to figure the cheapest way."

"Well, I want to see every effort made to get the juvenile hall now," Mrs. Schultz said. Then, in two separate motions, she proposed seeking use of veterans' funds for the hall and the bond issue for the hospital. Fusselman seconded both motions and the voting was unanimous.

Plans approved were those of Crawford and Banning of San Rafael for the hospital, at a fee of $152,922, and of Rolland B. Hammond of San Rafael at $20,680 for the hall. Part of these fees already have been paid.

Official At Last

WAUTOMA, Wis. (AP) — The Wautoma City Council finally got around to passing an ordinance combining the offices of comptroller and city treasurer.

Mrs. Gina Nelson, treasurer, is sort of happy that it's been made official. She's been performing the duties of both offices for the last 19 years.

North Marin Urged To Cut Water Waste

Water conservation in the North Marin Water District was high on the agenda last night as district directors elected Arnold Heise as president and set up committees for the ensuing 12 months.

Committees on construction, finance, personnel and methods and procedure were set up, with two board members appointed to each committee.

SECRETARY NAMED

Beryl R. Morrow, employed by the district as an engineer, was appointed board secretary.

The directors agreed there is no imminent danger of water shortage, but said the district's surplus is not sufficient to permit careless use of water.

Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager and chief engineer, was instructed to draw up an information program to be presenter to the public, possibly in the form of a pamphlet, explaining the need for water conservation and the best use of water during periods of economy.

MEETING SET

The directors also scheduled an informal public meeting for Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the district offices at 834 Vallejo avenue, to kick off a work program toward passage of the $3,790,000 bond issue to bring water to North Marin from the Russian River.

The water would be purchased from the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District and would guarantee the Novato area 10,000 acre feet of water annually.

A news agreement was also approved between the district and the Foxboro Co., which owns, services and maintains equipment at the district's water treatment plant. The agreement calls for continuance of the policy of work done on a cost-plus, hourly basis.

Officers Richard Camper and Eugene Frederick said the thief had entered the Odd Fellows building by removing a screen from an open window of a storeroom. The other three medical and optical offices are in the same building.

The prowler got about $85 from Jenkel-Davidson and about $35 from American Optical. Drawers and cabinets were ransacked in the other offices, but nothing of value is missing, police reported.

Inspector Giampoli said the church showed no forced entry, and the prowler may have found a faulty door to get into the school portion of the church. Two windows inside the church school were broken. Investigators found a half-burned candle, which indicated the thief used that for illumination.

Hub Man Pleads Guilty Of Assault

Franklin D. Davis, 26, of San Anselmo, accused of stabbing another man in San Rafael last February, pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon yesterday.

Judge Jordan L. Martinelli of Marin Superior Court set April 25 as the time to hear a probation report and to sentence Davis.

Donald Atwood Travis, 25, of 331 C street, San Rafael, told police he and Davis got into an argument in the 800 block of Fourth street last Feb. 4. Travis said Davis then stabbed him.

San Quentin Official Gets New State Post

Virgil J. O'Malley, correctional officer at San Quentin Prison for seven years, has been appointed planning specialist for correctional facilities of the state Department of Correction, in Sacramento.

O'Malley will continue in his San Quentin duties for a short period, prison officials said.

The new post means O'Malley will aid in planning new institutions and equipment, and in their inspection.

O'Malley was correctional lieutenant and is now correctional captain at the prison. He has been with the department of correction since 1945, but took time in 1951-53 to serve as warden of Oregon State Prison in Salem.

O'Malley has been active in the county as a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club and the Marin County Peace Officers Assn. He is a member of the executive board of the Marin Power Squadron and vice commander of the San Rafael Yacht Club.

His other correctional assignments have included serving as prison industrial manager at Folsom, associate warden of custody at Deuel Vocational Institution then at Lancaster, and associate warden of custody at the Soledad Correctional Training Facility.

He was a correctional captain with the department of correction in New York City and assistant superintendent of Washington State Prison at Walla Walla.

No successor has yet been appointed at San Quentin.

In his new post as planning specialist, O'Malley will succeed Laurence M. Stutsman, who moves to chief of the classification and treatment division.

That post was vacated by Milton Burdman, named to the newly created position of chief of planning and development.

The new planning post was created to seek better methods of operating the state's prisons, which now have a record of 20,000 inmates.

An electric motor and a compressor, worth $300, is gone from the Signcraft shop on Highway 1, sheriff's deputies reported today.

Larkspur To Hire Five Additional Teachers

The Larkspur School District board last night authorized hiring of five new teachers to keep pace with an expected 150-200 pupil increase next September.

Supt. Vaughn D. Seidel said the additional teachers would not change average class sizes, now "pushing 40." The state considers 33 pupils per teacher a desirable maximum.

In a lengthy budget session, the board decided it did not want to eliminate from the school program a speech correctionist, psychologist, dental hygienist and nurses.

"The district is in dire need of finances, yet the board wants to do everything possible to put on as fine an educational program as it can," Seidel said.

After considering figures presented by the superintendent, the board decided the budget would allow enough funds to employ the additional five teachers.

Most of these would be needed at Neil Cummins School, where the teaching load is just over 30 pupils, will need no additional teachers, he noted.

Seidel also observed that if the experimental school lunch program involving pre-cooked heat-and-serve meals continues to prove successful, it would probably mean of a saving of about $4,000 for the district—almost enough to pay the salary of one teacher.

The board considered the possibility of renting the vacant Stewart home next door to Larkspur-Corte Madera School for use as district administrative offices and storage. This would free additional rooms in the school for class space.

There was no discussion of salaries or recommendations made previously by the salary committee of the district teachers Association, the superintendent said.

Novato Aspirants To Speak Tonight

Candidates for Novato City Council in the election on April 12 will speak their minds tonight at 8 o'clock at the West Novato School, when a "candidate night" will be sponsored by the Novato Forum.

Five candidates, three of them incumbents, are seeking election to three vacant council seats.

The incumbents are Everett Pozzi, M. E. (Babe) Silva and Harvey J. Vicchio. Seeking to unseat them are Eugene R. Trombley and William Loewen, both defeated in the city's first election on Jan. 12.

Novato Gets Monte Maria District Assets, Liabilities

E. Donald King, president of the Monte Maria Community Services District, which dissolved when Novato incorporated as a city, last night turned over all assets and liabilities of the district to the city.

The district was formed by residents of the 124 homes in the subdivision to improve and beautify the center strips in the area. The residents pledged to tax themselves for three years to pay for construction and maintenance of the strips.

The strips were landscaped by the Good Earth Landscaping Co. of Mill Valley at a cost of $5,000.

Reading a letter from County Counsel Leland H. Jordan, King explained to the city council that it now had the obligation to set up a special taxing district and levy the necessary taxes.

City Clerk Robert O. Bailey told the council he would include the tax in the 1960-61 budget which he is now preparing.

In other financial matters, the council approved claims totaling $2,948. Of this amount, $1,800 was for services by City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. The remainder covered the city liability insurance policy premiums, office supplies, printing, bonding of the city clerk and treasurer and other miscellaneous items.

The council directed Bailey to refer to the Marin County Department of Public Works a petition by 15 residents of Alice street asking for street lighting.

The petition, circulated by Frank H. Schuck, declared they had been paying taxes to the street lighting district and felt street lights were necessary to "discourage prowlers and peeping toms."

Lee Wise, manager of the Novato office of Pacific Gas and Electric Co., said the law requires lights be furnished within a lighting district on petition of 15 or more residents.

A letter from Grover M. Kelley of 717 Olive street also asked for street lighting on Olive between Chase street and Railroad avenue. The councilmen agreed to investigate the area.

In other action last night, the Novato council:

1. Approved expenditure of $466.37 for an IBM standard model electric typewriter and $130 for a reconditioned Burroughs bookkeeping machine. Councilman Everett Pozzi suggested to Bailey that the typewriter be purchased through a Novato dealer if possible.

2. Approved an inventory of street deficiencies within the city limits prepared by the county department of public works.

3. Voted to send the city's clerk-secretary, Mrs. Garry Cook, to a city clerk training school in Berkeley on May 4, 5 and 6 at a cost of $36.

4. Approved a contract with Harry Faustine for janitorial services at city hall at $22.50 a month.

5. Instructed Bailey to have installeda street sign designating Sun lane, on request of Ted Krutzer, a resident of the lane.

6. Put over for further study a request by the county department of public works that the city take action on a request from the subdivider of Hillside subdivision unit 2 for permission to leave an open drainage ditch in the subdivision.

7. Adjourned until April 18 at 8 p.m. This will be the first Monday following the April 12 city council election and a council meeting is required by law for canvassing of votes.

Australians Visit Marin Seminary

Thirty-eight Australians, on a 10-day tour of the United States, visited the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary at Strawberry Point yesterday. They will attend the Baptist World Allies Conference in Rio de Janiero after their U. S. tour.

All of the young church members plan to study for the ministry on their return to Australia, according to Harry R. Koontz, publicity director at the seminary.

Repair work on the sewage disposal plant in Gallinas Village is moving toward completion, according to reports heard last night by the Gallinas Village Community Services District board.

Members agreed to planting the divider strip on La Posada, at the entrance to the village, and also plan to till and plant the area surrounding the shopping center.

Legislature Passes Measure To Suppress Vehicle Smog

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California, with well over seven million vehicles, is going to require anti-smog devices on cars throughout the state.

The Legislature made that certain last night in taking the biggest single step yet against the eye-smarting pall of air pollution.

The heavily rural Senate, faced with a reapportionment drive in smog-irritated Southern California, passed the bill 34-3. A few hours later the big city Assembly concurred in Senate amendments, 57-10.

In Los Angeles, the director of the county air pollution district declared the enactment means Southern California will be rid of smog within five or six years.

"There is no question," said Smith Griswold.

Who will have to install smog suppressors?

Every new car sold in the state within a year after two or more devices are certified by a state board.

How about used cars and commercial vehicles?

That will be up to each county or air pollution control district. The devices will be required unless excluded by the county or district.

Unless exempted, used cars which change ownership would have to have the devices within one year, used commercial vehicles within two years, and all used cars within three.

How much will the devices cost?

Nobody can say for sure yet. Estimates range from $60 to $200. Best guess: $100 to $150.

The bill appropriates $500,000 to a state board within the Department of Public Health. The board will contract with private laboratories to test the suppressors.

Los Angeles' Sen. Richard Richards called the measure a "giant stride forward" in the war against dirty air.

College Master Plan Nears Final Passage

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A 10-year master plan for higher education was only one step away today from final approval by the Legislature.

The Assembly last night in a rare after-dinner session, voted 70-0 to adopt a bill, already approved in the Senate, which would set the policy for the next decade in the growing development of state colleges and the University of California.

Earlier in the day, the lower house voted 65-0 in favor of a constitutional amendment setting up a separate 16-member board to administer California's 14 state colleges.

The so-called master plan bill for higher education, authored by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez) won approval from the Assembly despite efforts by Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D-Sacramento) to change it.

MacBride tried unsuccessfully to preserve the right of the state Division of Architecture to draw up plans for any buildings constructed in the future by state colleges. But his amendment was tabled on a voice vote.

In the form finally approved by the Assembly, the Miller bill contains some of the provisions originally drafted in a constitutional amendment which was dropped because of fears that it would weaken legislative control over state colleges.

Miller amended the bill in Assembly Ways and Means Committee yesterday to name it the "Donahoe Higher Education Act" to honor Assembly Dorothy M. Donahoe (D-Bakersfield). One of the original framers of the act who died in Sacramento Monday night.

The master plan, formulated by a blue-ribbon committee of educators over a one-year period, is designed to separate state college administration from the state Board of Education and prescribe major instructional territories of each system.

The 16-member board of trustees over state colleges would be appointed by the governor for eight-year terms and would be allowed to run the institutions in much the same way the University of California now is administered.

The bill also creates a coordinating council for higher education comprised of three representatives each from the University of California, state colleges, junior colleges and private institutions.

Bill Allowing Pedestrian Malls Passed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's Legislature has voted final approval to a comprehensive new act permitting cities ad counties to create pedestrian malls.

The bill, by Assemblyman Ernest R. Geddes (R-Claremont, went to Gov. Edmund G. Brown for his expected signature after the Assembly votd 61?0 yesterday to concur in Senate amendments.

The bill was sponsored by 65 cities with an eye toward helping downtown areas in their competition for customers with suburban shopping centers.

The legislation sets up a procedure for creating malls, bringing scattered state laws under one act. It provided that property owners displaced by the malls can seek damages.

Bay Crusade Ups 1960 Goal To $11.2 Million

The United Bay Area Crusade will aim at $11,250,000 in its 1960 "Big Give" drive, which will begin Sept. 19.

The Crusade's 300-member board of governors from all five counties set this goal — $810,000 more than was raised last year—at a meeting today at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco.

Employee groups who helped raise last year's record $10,501,000 learned of the 1960 goal at an awards luncheon immediately after the board of governors' meeting. Present were representatives of groups honored for being outstandingsly generous in their gifts last fall, members of the board of governors, Crusade agency board members and others.

The campaign committee recommended setting the goal 7.7 per cent higher than the total raised last year, because the cost of living has gone up and so have costs facing the Crusade's 263 member agencies, said W. Parmer Fuller III, general campaign chairman. Fuller is vice president of W. P. Fuller and Co.

Raising the higher goal also would provide for the possible admission of new agencies and help the Crusade keep pace with population growth in the Bay Area, Fuller added.

Emmett G. Solomon, chairman of the Crusade board, presided and thanked the award winning employee groups, as well as the trade unions and professional associations they represented. He also expressed appreciation to other generous employee groups which did not qualify for awards last fall.

Kentfield Trustees Eye Bigger Budget

Kentfield School District trustees Monday examined a tentative "first-draft" budget calling for expenditures of $562,354 for the 1960-61 school year.

The current budget lists expenditures of $470,359.

The tentative budget includes $11,000 more in capital outlay than this year. The bulk of these funds will go for proposed ground improvements, student lockers and an intercommunication system at Kent School.

The board will meet again April 18.

Weather Rockets Fired

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government scientists have set up a network of weather rocket stations to check atmospheric conditions twice as high as weather balloons can reach.

The idea was tried for a month, Jan. 18 to Feb. 19, with daily rocket firings from Wallops Island, Va., and Point Mugu.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Southerners Still Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern senators opposed to the House-passed civil rights bill kept hammering away today at its key voting rights section despite the heavy odds against them.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), leader of the Dixie forces, discounted talk that Senate passage of the measure is imminent.

He did not, however, rule out the possibility the Senate might complete action and send the bill back to the House by the weekend.

A 14-hour session yesterday produced only one vote. By a 64-29 tally, the Senate rejected an amendment by Sen. Sam J. Ervin (D-N.C.) to a provision of the bill which would permit federal judges to register Negroes and other minority groups who are victims of discrimination. Ervin's proposal would have required the judges to give advance notice to state officials and let them testify.

Group Backs Castro

NEW YORK (UPI) — A newly formed "Fair Play for Cuba Committee" charged today that a powerful section of the U.S. press is distorting news from Cuba against the regime of Premier Fidel Castro.

In a large advertisement in the New York Times, the group offered to send "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to anyone who wrote asking information.

The committee is headed by author Waldo Frank. Sponsors of the ad included Truman Capote, Simon de Beauvoir, Norman Mailer, Kenneth Tynan and Jean Paul Sartre, the committee said.

Minor Party In Peril

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's Prohibition Party won't get any help from the Legislature this year in its fight to stay alive.

The Assembly yesterday rejected a bill which would have permitted a political party with fewer than 10,000 members in the state or 100 in a county to qualify for the general election by ballot by getting write-in votes in the primary equal to one-tenth of its registered membership.

Bond Vote Slated

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California voters will get a chance, probably in the June primary, to pass upon a 400 million dollar bond issue to continue the veterans farm and home purchase program.

This was assured yesterday by Senate passage of a bill by Assemblyman Myron V. Frew (D-Dinuba) putting the bond issue on the ballot.

More Scholarships

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill to double the number of state scholarships given California students today went to Gov. Edmund G. Brown's desk.

The measure, if signed by Brown, would provide 2,560 state scholarships in the 1960-61 school year with further increases each year on a sliding scale to a maximum of 5,120 state grants in the 1964-65 school year and thereafter.

Latin Aid Urged

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Colombian President Alberto Lleras Camargo asked Congress today to help Latin America quickly before economic backwardness causes a shift to dictatorships or Communism.

Lleras warned there is grave risk if the United States is "too late or too little" in helping Latin America emerge from poverty.

The Colombian chief executive, on a four-day state visit as a guest of President Eisenhower, delivered a speech which was moderate in tone but unmistakably clear regarding Latin America's need for economic aid.

Allied Chiefs Talk

LONDON (AP)—French President Charles de Gaulle and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan met early today on various world issues expected to arise at next month's Big Four summit conference.

It was their second and last formal business session scheduled for de Gaulle's three-day state visit to Britain.

Disarm Hopes Dim

GENEVA (UPI) — The West said today that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's boasts of a "fantastic new weapon" in the Soviet arsenal made his announcement of troop reductions meaningless and underlined the necessity for ironclad disarmament controls.

British delegate David Ormsby-Gore told the 10-nation East-West disarmament conference that Khrushchev's announcement that Russia is cutting her troop strength by another 1,200,000 men in the next two years is not a real disarmament measure.

The 17th session of the conference lasted two hours and 22 minutes, but did nothing to break the East-West deadlock.

Top western cources said they had lost hope of any serious disarmament negotiations before the summit conference next month in Paris.

Shift In Missiles

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today approved plans for bolstering the Atlas and Polaris missile programs. Some continental defense programs, including the Super-Sage and Bomarc projects, will be cut back.

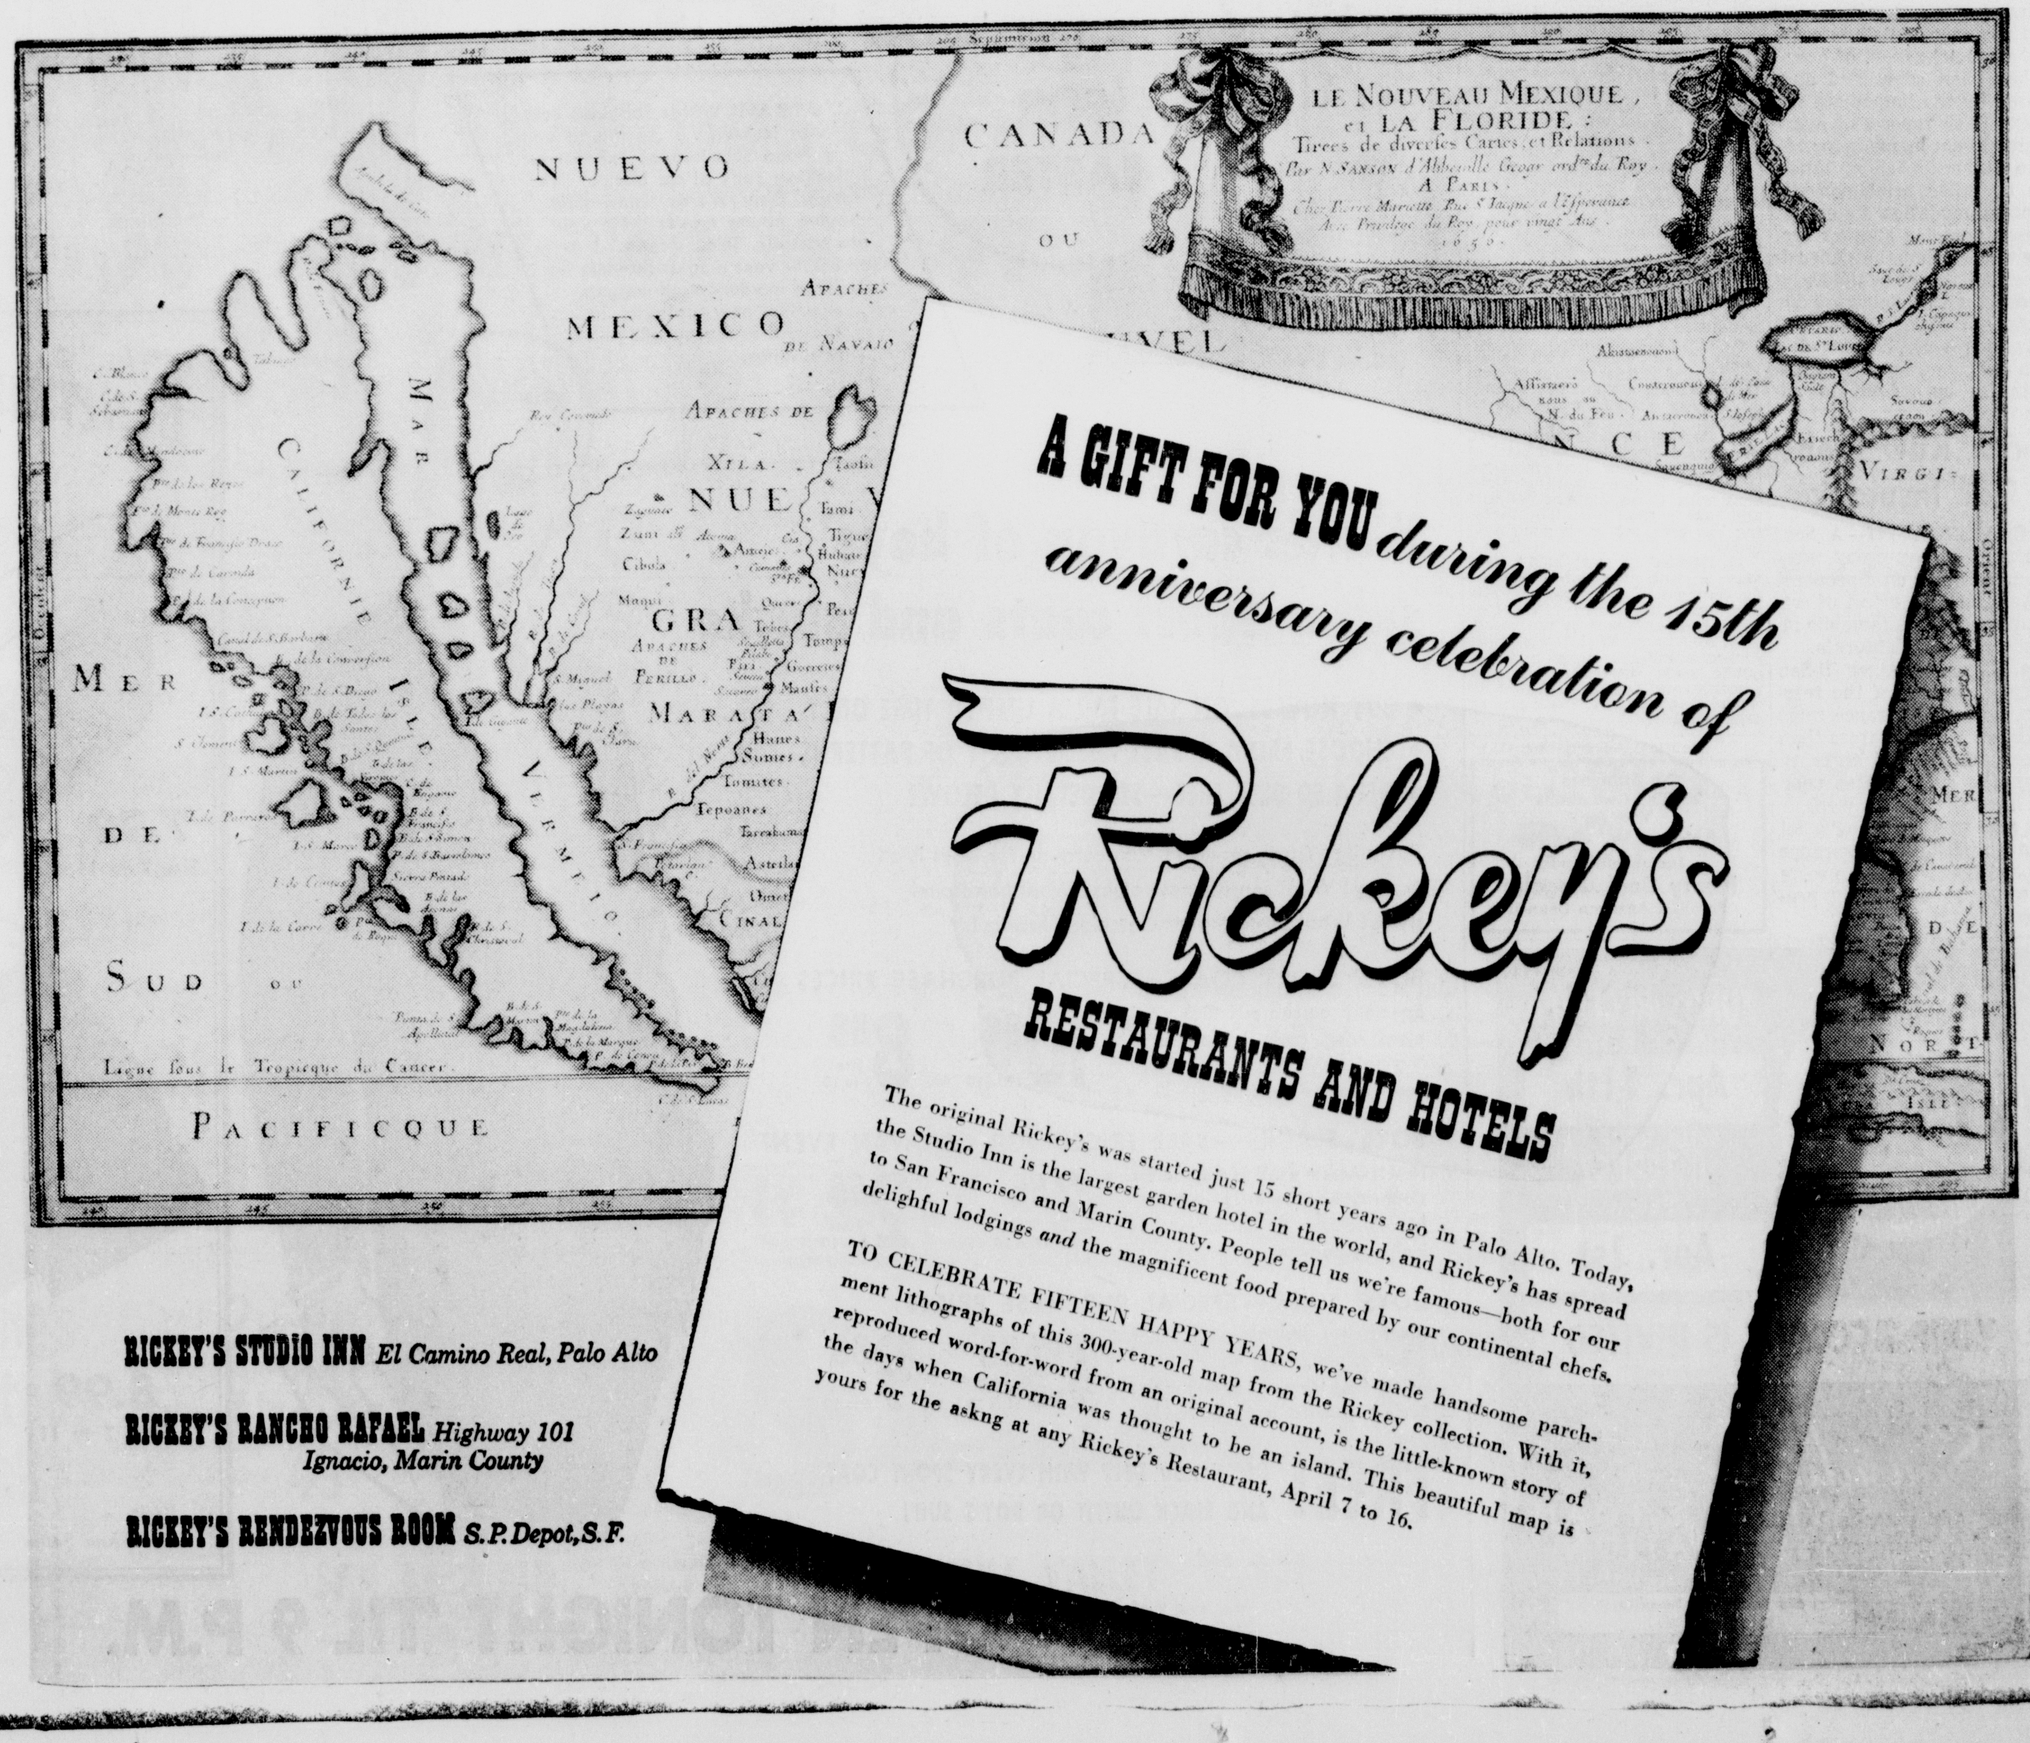
Turks Acquit Cops

IZMIR, Turkey (AP)—A Turkish judge today acquitted three Turkish policemen charged with beating two U.S. Army sergeants after their arrest on suspicion of black market currency deals. The judge said there was no valid evidence to convict the policemen.

Stokowski To Retire

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Leopold Stokowski announced yesterday he will retire as director of the Houston Symphony Orchestra after the 1960-61 season.

Stokowski told a concert audience of his plans at the final performance of the season. He has been under contract here since 1955.



SUPERVISORS ROUNDUP

Minimum Lot Size Set For Big Area

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday voted to amend the county zoning ordinance to provide for interim minimum lot sizes of one acre in a vast area near Stinson Beach and Bolinas.

The interim plan would exclude much of the present built-up area of the two towns, but would include a large area known as Rancho Las Baulinas.

In taking the action, the board satisfied both the county planning commission, which recommended the action, and Felix M. Warburg of Belvedere, who also owns property at Bolinas. Warburg, working independently of the commission, previously had sought a four-acre lot minimum.

Warburg told the board that he and the commission now agree.

Hurford Sharron, chairman of the committee, said that while Warburg should be credited with "giving this thing a kick in the right direction, I think the people of the area should get credit." Both he and Warburg were commended by members of the board.

It was also learned that an application for zoning for a senior citizens' home would be null and void unless an exception is requested and granted prior to formal adoption of the amendment.

The official papers will be prepared by County Counsel Leland H. Jordan and Marvin W. Brigham, director of the department of public works.

In other matters, the supervisors denied a request from Walter Busher, county probation officer, for payment of $745.21 for overtime for seven of his deputy probation officers who had accumulated more than 40 hours of overtime.

It was pointed out that the request did not comply with the salary ordinance.

The board approved a recommendation by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen that compensating time off should be accumulated only where a special report of overtime has been completed and approved by the immediate supervisor. Such reports of overtime should not be made for 15-minute intervals, short lunch hours or other brief periods, the recommendation stated.

Jensen noted in another recommendation that the generally accepted policy was that no paid overtime be approved for professional county employees (such as engineers, doctors, probation officers, etc.), unless specifically authorized in advance by the board of supervisors for a particular project.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said that members of the probation committee should get copies of an audit of overtime in the probation department, prepared by Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell.

County Clerk George S. Jones commented that there was a "lot of laxity around" in county government on the matter of overtime, and it "ought to be checked into." He suggested a representative of the auditor or county administrator should check time books from time to time.

The supervisors also:

1. Approved a recommendation from County School Supt. Virgil S. Hollis for consolidation of tax elections in Dixie, San Jose and Stinson Beach School Districts with the June 7 primary elections. County Clerk Jones said that because of the requests for consolidated elections, the only practical solution was to have special ballots printed for each election. Separate rosters and ballot boxes will be provided, he said.

2. Approved compensation for election officers as suggested by Jones.

3. Received a copy of a letter from the Family Service Agency to the Mental Health Advisory Board urging the board obtain state grant-in-aid funds for Marin County through the Short-Doyle Act.

4. Re-appointed Ralph B. Rogers a commissioner of the Sleepy Hollow Fire District, since no one has filed for the vacancy.

5. Received a letter from Owens-Marin Yacht Sales Inc. urging the board to again add to its budget an allocation of $500 to the California State Chamber of Commerce.

6. Approved a recommendation from the county superintendent to permit Mrs. J. Lee Chaille, in charge of the federal census in the San Rafael area, to use office space in the county school administration building for census purposes.

7. Learned that the First Presbyterian Church of Novato has agreed to provide, rent free, storage for one of the large federal first aid stations previously located at Albert Field in San Rafael. Another has been placed at Pt. Reyes. The City of San Rafael had asked that the stations be moved.

8. Referred to the public works director a letter from City Manager A. E. Almgrants of Mill Valley asking for consideration and cooperation in the matter of improving street lighting at the Camino Alto-Miller avenue intersection.

9. Received a letter from the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council asking for the board position on the Pt. Reyes Park question and inviting the board to attend a forum on the matter at Reed School at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

10. Received a report from the advisory board of Zone 3 of the Marin County Flood and Water Conservation District that three members had approved a recommendation that the county endeavor to solve flood control problems on a county-wide basis: obtain available federal and state funds; and there be an annual county-wide levy to finance other flood control projects in the future.

11. Approved payment of $5,818 in legal fees for the Del Mar Special Assessment District.

12. Received a letter from Sen. Clair Engle asking the board to present its views on the Pt. Reyes Park proposal at the Senate hearing April 14 in Kentfield.

13. Referred to the probation committee a recommendation from the county superintendent that the name of the Juvenile Hall School be changed because records of each of the schools a pupil has attended appear on his transcript of records.

14. Decided that as many board members as possible would meet at the Edgewater Inn, Corte Madera, to discuss master planning problems with Corte Madera officials and take a field tour. The meeting has been set for 2 p.m., Saturday.

15. Decided to meet at 10 a.m., May 11, with the county personnel commission to discuss commission rules that have never formally been approved by the board.

16. Appointed Merl Dean Mauroni as a building inspector in the public works department at $458 monthly, and Louise M. Walter as supervising branch librarian at $376 monthly.

Senate Kills Probe Of Car Insurance

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A Senate committee yesterday turned thumbs down on a proposal to investigate the effect of setting up zones for automobile insurance rates in California.

Sen. Eugene McAteer (D-San Francisco), author of the resolution, said car insurance rates are higher in urban areas than in surrounding rural areas although the suburbanites commute into the cities for work.

He said this leads to "a lot of inequities" in insurance rates and that one way to solve this could be the zoning procedure.

Miller Park Attendant's Pact Junked

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday terminated its contract with Ben Wilson, an attendant at Miller Park on Tomales Bay.

Wilson has been in charge of parking cars and attending to a ramp under a contract with the county's department of public works.

The board said that the contract had to be terminated because of a ruling from the state attorney general's office that the county could not legally collect parking fees at the park.

Wilson had been paid 65 per cent of the fees and the county took 35 per cent. The arrangement had been in effect for about six months.

"For the time being, there will be no maintenance and no attendant out there," said Supervisor James Marshall.

2nd Hopeful Asks For Seat On Transit Board

James H. Rowe Sr. of 109 Orange street, San Rafael, yesterday became the second candidate to seek the position on the Bay Area Rapid Transit District Board of Directors being vacated by John C. Beckett.

He asked the Marin County Board of Supervisors for appointment to the position, noting in a letter that he was "familiar with existing transportation problems of the Bay Area."

Last week Price J. Hall of 48 Frances avenue, Larkspur, also asked the board for the appointment.

Beckett has announced his intention to resign from the board, "probably in May."

Hall was interviewed by the board yesterday afternoon and was told that a decision would be made when all applicants had been heard from.

Rowe, a resident of Marin County for seven years, has a 38-year background in architectural and structural engineering, he told the board. Twenty-one of those years were with the federal government.

He was active in supporting legislation in Southern California for an enabling act to help metropolitan districts with transportation problems.

He lived in Redwood City and San Francisco before moving to Marin.

Honor Among Thiefs

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI) —Highway patrolmen investigating the crash of an automobile into a tree quoted the driver, Alexander Valencia, 21, as saying he was behind the wheel only as a favor to his friend, Serapio Alvarado, 26.

Alvarado, a passenger in the car, was quoted as saying he had stolen the vehicle but didn't feel he ought to drive it since he didn't have an operator's license.

UNINVITED GUEST

Anybody Missing One Gentle Black Bull?

An 18-month-old Angus bull, given the gate by a West Novato rancher before springtime and 35 heifers could turn his head, will be auctioned off at the Marin County Humane Society at noon Saturday.

Two months ago, Manuel Madeiras spotted the black bull grazing amid his dairy herd on his 6,500-acre ranch in the West Novato hills, said Mel L. Morse, the bull's new host and executive secretary of the Humane Society.

With the onset of spring and such, the rancher decided the time had come for his uninvited guest to leave. Since last Thursday the 350-pound Angus has been penned in a corral on the county farm in Lucas Valley.

If the owner doesn't arrive to claim his meandering bull, the Angus will go to the highest bidder at Saturday's auction, to be held at 402 Third street, San Rafael, Morse said.

The one difficult aspect of the misplaced bovine, Morse reported, was that "no one is looking for it." The bull has an ear tag showing he has been vaccinated.

He's a gentle fellow, Morse and county farm attendants agreed.

Quentin Kids May Study In San Rafael

San Rafael School Supt. Frank L. Lucas tonight will attempt to work out an agreement with trustees of the San Quentin School District to send San Quentin seventh and eighth graders to San Rafael schools next fall.

Lucas received a nod of approval from a committee of the San Rafael Board of Education last night during a discussion of the San Rafael Elementary District Budget."

Lucas said the board gave informal approval to the plan which had been requested by the San Quentin board. He said one of the first things he will talk to the San Quentin trustees about will be charges.

Lucas said the matter probably will come up again during a regular board meeting Tuesday night.

The superintendent said he felt the board will be able to hold the 1960-61 tax rate to $1.63. Present rate is $1.50 and the ceiling approved at a recent election is $1.75.

The committee considered revising the salary schedule of elementary teachers to bring them in line wtih the high school salaries, Lucas said.

Most of the discussion centered around addition to the administrative staff. The committee said Lucas probably would take over the duties of board secretary to replace Victor Jones.

Young Job Hunter Runs Into Trouble

An 11-year-old San Rafael girl went job hunting at an upholstery shop on Francisco boulevard yesterday, then ran when the proprietor began asking her questions about her age and why she was not at school.

Police Officer Thomas Cheetham, called to the Adolph Briesh upholstery shop, learned that the girl climbed a wire fence and scampered through the drive-in theater at San Quentin wye, then headed toward Highway 101. Highway patrolmen intercepted her.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The Richmond Fire Department reports a new type emergency call. A baptism was scheduled at a Baptist church and the pastor found that the janitor had failed to turn water into the 500-gallon pool. Firemen quickly filled it.

Fairfax Hopefuls Air Their Views

The three candidates vying for the two posts open on the Fairfax City Council aired their views on community issues last night before about 30 members of the Ridgeway Park Improvement Club.

Candidates Robert E. Nolan, Waldemar E. Radtke and Lawrence F. Walsh said they favored at least parts of the proposed city plan. A discussion period followed their statements.

The next meeting of the improvement group will be May 10 at the Arthur Shapiro residence, 151 Ridgeway avenue.

REDDING (AP)—Bodies of a San Jose couple who vanished March 25 were found in the wreckage of their light plane 40 miles north of Redding yesterday.

DOG BESTED IN RACE PROVES POOR LOSER

A little dachshund dog, leading three highway patrolmen on a merry footrace, at Corte Madera wye, created a near-traffic jam about 5 p.m. yesterday.

Patrolman Duncan D. Snell said motorists were screeching to a stop just south of the wye as the dog toed the white line between the slow and middle lanes of the freeway, then ran to the east side and scampered parallel to the highway.

Patrolman Jerry Walkup was the first officer on the scene. Then Snell and Officer Al Bragg arrived. All three jumped out of their patrol cars and started after the dachshund. Three boys also joined the chase and helped catch the dog.

Tennis Court Plans Told

Plans for a proposed tennis court in Fairfax as a memorial to late Police Chief Andy J. Peri are moving toward completion.

Fairfax Recreation Commission members, meeting last night, heard reports that a citizens' committee is raising funds for courts. The Fairfax School District has approved lease of a lot below Central School for courts.

Commission members spent about two hours in discussion of development of Fairfax City Park. Improvement, to come under regular present city budget allotments, includes construction of a rock barrier around the area formerly used for festivals, planting of grass and shrubs, and possible construction of horseshoe pits and bocci ball facilities.

Prowler On Horseback Seen At Sleepy Hollow

Lester Howard Clark, an attorney of 1444 Butterfield road, called the sheriff about 1:30 a.m. today when he saw a man on horseback on his lawn, peering through the bedroom window.

While Deputy George Tsegeletos was talking to Clark, he heard hoofbeats along the road. He caught up with a horse about a quarter mile away, but there was no rider. The horse had no bridle or saddle.

Three deputies from the sheriff's office and an officer from the Marin County Humane Society corraled the horse and impounded it at the Sleepy Hollow Stables for the night.

There was no sign of the prowling rider.

Larkspur Site Approved For Billboard

Forced by the Corte Madera Town Council to remove a nonconforming billboard from a Highway 101 frontage site, Stockman took his cause to the Larkspur Planning Commission and got a sympathetic reception.

He told the planners he had leased a site on the west side of the freeway, several hundred feet north of the old Corte Madera site and just within the City of Larkspur, from the Northwestern Pacific Railroad. On it, he said, he wants to erect a 480-square-foot billboard visible to northbound and southbound motorists.

The commission gave him permission to do so.

Drunken Driver Gets $150 Fine

Norman L. Buchanan, 44, of 751 Calle de la Mesa, Novato, drew a $150 fine and nine months probation yesterday for his first drunken driving offense.

He must also spend 20 days in county jail beginning Friday night for violating probation on a previous drunkenness conviction. Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court gave Buchanan work-furlough privileges, and allowed him liberty during Easter weekend.

James Maxwell Wilson, 33, of South San Francisco also drew $150 fine and nine months probation for driving while intoxicated on Highway 101 last Saturday.

Parole Denied Two Inmates Of Quentin

Two San Quentin inmates convicted in Marin County — one of murder and the other of robbery—were denied parole by the Adult Authority last week, reported Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff.

Parole consideration was postponed another year for Wallace Cox, who is serving a life sentence for the 1941 slaying of a fellow inmate. Cox, who entered San Quentin in 1939 after conviction of auto theft, participated in the murder of an inmate whose throat was slashed in the prison basement. The victim's body was found stuffed in a ventilator.

Tried in Marin Superior Court, Cox was convicted of the slaying and sentenced to life. In 1952 he was paroled. Three years later he was convicted of attempted robbery in Los Angeles County and returned to San Quentin to resume the life sentence.

William Lawrence Hart, 23, who used a sawed-off shotgun to rob the Owl Drug Store in San Anselmo in July, 1958, was also denied parole. He is serving a one-year-to-life sentence.

Trial Slated For Accused Rapist

A 25-year-old San Francisco waiter and writer, accused of raping a 20-year-old North Beach artist among the rocks near Stinson Beach last September, will be tried by jury on May 10.

He is John Alva Gordon, who is charged with attempted rape and rape of the girl who was accompanied by her 19-year-old cousin from San Gabriel at the time. The girls said Gordon wielded a paring knife and threatened them. They told sheriff's deputies Gordon attacked the older girl while the cousin was forced to stand by.

Gordon appeared in Marin Superior Court Monday before Judge Harold J. Haley and pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity.

County Planners Continue Request

A request for architectural supervision of plans for an addition to the Goodman Building Supply Co. on Redwood Highway at Alto was continued until the next meeting Monday by the Marin County Planning Commission, so the county counsel can investigate the legality of the existing land use.

Mrs. Mary Summers, planning director, said the area in the lumbed company uses for a storage yard is not zoned as light industrial, and the use is in violation of the existing zoning ordinances.

U.S. Funds Asked For San Rafael Canal Dredging

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera) and Dan E. Andersen, San Rafael city manager, urged a federal appropriation for dredging San Rafael Canal in appearances yesterday and today before appropiations committee of the House and Senate.

Miller also urger appropriations for a survey of proposed Bolinas refuge harbor and completion of the Richardson Bay survey.

The Corte Madera congressman said he made the San Rafael project the No. 1 public works project in his six-county district, despite the fact it had not been included in the public works budget.

He and Andersen urged that $185,000 for the dredging be added to the public works bill as a line item.

In urging the appropriation, Miller declared his district "has the longest coastline by far of any congressional district in the United States." He also called attention to "strong local support evidenced for this project."

Andersen displayed pictures of San Rafael Canal, showing developments along it and possibilities if it is dredged to greater depth. He stressed the flood control role of the canal as well as its economic value.

Miller also cited the importance of the Bolinas and Richardson Bay projects.

He pointed out that the Richardson Bay survey had been nearly completed under a previous appropriation, and said $5,000 additional would finish the job. He asked $15,000 for surveys of the Bolinas refuge harbor project.

The congressman said Rep. Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.), chairman of the House committee, and Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), acting chairman of the Senate committee, "expressed great interest" in the San Rafael project.

The committee also heard a plea by Robert H. Langner, manager of the Marine Exchange, for $600,000 to speed up the comprehensive San Francisco Bay survey under way by the Army Corps of Engineers.

Langner, representing the Bay Region Marine Affairs Conference, presented a list of proposed projects exceeding by $5,100,000 the amount allocated for such projects in the President's budget. The list included the $185,000 for San Rafael Canal, but did not include the Richardson Bay and Bolinas surveys.

BUT SITE IS SHIFTED

Trampoline Center Project Wins Approval In Novato

Trampolines for Novato were approved last night by the city council after the site was bounced from a front corner of the Nave Shopping Center to an unobstrusive spot at the rear of Brice Brothers Market.

Appearing before the council to oppose the proposed location of a trampoline center near their Plaza Loma homes were James McConnell and John Forrest.

Al Silver, secretary of the Jumpolene Corp., which plans to install the center, said he was willing to accept any spot the council would approve for him, although he felt the noise objection was being exaggerated.

"I assure you, these kids aren't going to yell 'Whee!' on every jump," he told the neighboring residents. "They're too pooped after a jumps to make any noise at all."

With the help of B. D. Dobbs, principal planner for the Marin County Planning Commission, the council finally located the trampoline area on the southerly corner of the shopping center in the rear of the market.

Details of the exact location of the project and matters of architectural supervision of construction can be worked out later, Dobbs said.

For the second time, the council turned down an application by Louis B. Diaz for an amendment to the zoning ordinance to permit multiple dwellings on his three and three-quarters acres at Center road and Diablo avenue.

The application, turned down by the council some weeks ago, had been again denied by the county planners. Last night's presentation of the request constituted an appeal.

In upholding the planners' rejection of the Diaz request, the council made it possible for the request to be made again for two years.

The council continued until its May 3 meeting a request by Henry Kaehler to allow his contractor's building to remain on a duplex subvision on Second street north of Olive avenue.

The postponement was granted so Kaehler can investigate further a piece of property he said was suitable for his needs and for which he was negotiating.

In other action pertaining to planning, the Novato council:

1. Approved a 240-square foot sign for Lee Brothers market, under construction on Grant avenue. Although the sign is oversize according to county requirements, the county planners had approved it "on its merits."

2. Granted a use permit to allow construction of a Baptist Church in Loma Verde subdivision within the city limits.

3. Amended the zoning ordinance by emergency reading to permit commercial improvements on the Western California Telephone Co. property fronting on Diablo avenue and Novato boulevard. The property, according to Dobbs, had been accepted as commercially zoned and used commercially for many years, but through an oversight had never been legally designated as commercially zoned.

4. Approved construction of improvements including streets and gutters in St. Francis Heights Unit 2, prior to final approval of the subdivision map. The same procedure, allowed by the county planning commission over the objections of its staff, enables the contractor, John Novak, to proceed without filing a construction bond.

OWWWWWWW! — Lloyd Morgan wanted to do it himself. Morgan, manager of Fairfax Lumber Co.'s Home Improvement Center, wanted to nail up his own poster announcing the center's first anniversary and do-it-yourself show Friday and Saturday. How not to get the result he got will be demonstrated at the show. (Ken Molino photo)

Fairfax Firm To Present Do-It-Yourself Program

Customers of Fairfax Lumber Co.'s Home Improvement Center will get a bonus Friday and Saturday when the center stages a first-year anniversary celebration.

Scheduled for the two-day event are specially priced merchandise, demonstrations and displays of tools and building supplies by factory representatives, free gifts for all and prizes including a three-day trip for two to Las Vegas.

The center opened last April as part of the expansion program which has made the company a center for lumber, millwork and hardware supplies and do-it-yourself provisions. The lumber company has been in operation since 1922 and has been under the present management since 1945.

Board Approves Sewer Service To Rec Center

The Tiburon Sanitary District board has agreed to serve the Southern Marin Recreation Center until it is annexed into the sanitary district, according to commission secretary Robert A. Sterling.

Commissioners unanimously voted disapproval of transfer of treatment capacities from one area to another within the district.

COUNCIL CANDIDATE LEE PIERACCINI SAYS:

These are my general aims and feelings on matters that will be facing the Council during the next few years:

The needs and desires of all the citizens of Sausalito must be carefully weighed on subjects that affect all the citizens. This weighing of judgment should stem from the value to be received as it relates to the cost involved to each citizen, whether by specific tax increase or by the use of presently accumulated funds.

Civic improvements and advancements should be made steadily, but orderly, within our ability to pay.

Emphasis should be made to make use of the talents and abilities of our own citizens as well as our elective and appointive offices.

Strong efforts should be expended in attracting new desirable business and light industry. In this respect our zoning ordinances must be carefully designed to properly protect present property owners, not to discourage new property owners to invest and broaden the scope of our local economy. Increased revenue to the City for use in improvements and advancements can only come from higher tax rolls, not higher tax rates.

Our waterfront and our people constitute our most valuable assets. The use of our waterfront should be for the benefit of our people, both economically, esthetically and recreational.

I believe that it is inherently and morally wrong for the City Government to pass on to the next tax-paying generation heavy indebtedness for obsolete works that do not fit that generation.

We must give very careful, sound, forward thinking to all capital expenditures in order that we may be sure our children and their children view their inheritance with pride and gratitude.

A political platform during election times is sometimes a tricky device. I am not a politician and the above words are not a platform. They are words that reflect my honest desires in serving my fellow citizens if I am elected to the City Council.

LEE PIERACCINI

SAUSALITO CITY ELECTION APRIL 12

Services Unit In Terra Linda Appoints Aide

The district board of directors accepted "with regret" the resignation of Jack Brandon of 649 Bamboo Terrace, who held the position since the district was created in 1958. Brandon resigned to campaign for election as director on the June 7 ballot. The board gave him a letter of commendation.

Brandon, who previously was manager of the Terra Linda League which preceded the services district, has been sharply critical of some board policies, particularly as they concern possible annexation of Terra Linda to San Rafael.

Mrs. Gurin, 38, is the wife of Norman Gurin, a soils engineer for Dames and Moore, San Francisco. They have one child, Patricia, 9.

She has served for one month as paid secretary to the board. She receives $25 a month for that job and will get another $25 a month as clerk and general manager.

In other business, the board:

1. Adopted a fire hydrant law that will require contractors to obtain a permit from the Terra Linda Fire Department, as well as from the Marin Municipal Water District, for use of district fire hydrants. The law makes the contractor liable for any damage to a hydrant.

2. Gave official support to the establishment of a seashore recreation area on the Pt. Reyes Peninsula after a written request from the Pt. Reyes National Seashore Foundation.

3. Gave an engraved gavel to John P. Namle, a director, in recognition of his services as board president during 1958 and 1959. Namle, who term is expiring, is a candidate for re-election.

Building Permit Total Down In Belvedere

Permits for three new houses in Belvedere were taken out last month in the amount of $82,360 and permits for six alterations in the amount of $27,691, according to City Manager Britton Rey.

Weissich Gives Warning On Misleading Ads

The person who mailed "misleading advertising" to solicit money from Marin businessmen last week will be prosecuted in criminal court if he does not make the necessary corrections, Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich declared today.

Furthermore, anyone who sent in money may get a refund by asking for it.

Weissich got this assurance yesterday from Richard Lundegard of Pleasant Hill, who mailed the advertisements to various merchants last Thursday.

Weissich said Lundegard's letters of solicitation constitute misleading advertising, a violation of the state Business and Professional Code. At first glance, the advertisement appears to be a bill for yellow-page telephone directory listings, although the fine print says otherwise.

Weissich met in his office yesterday with Lundegard and his attorney, Harry Glassman, Richard L. Shirley of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, and E. G. Beeley of the San Francisco Better Business Bureau.

Weissich said Lundegard agreed to submit to him by Friday proposed changes in forms and stationery of the advertisement to make sure it is no longer misleading.

"If they do not make the changes, I will file a criminal complaint against Mr. Lundegard," said Weissich.

The district attorney said Lundegard gave this assurance: If anyone feels he has been mislead or wants his money back, all he has to do is ask for it. Lundegard will refund the money.

Deadline Monday On Tax Payments

About four million dollars in tax payments must pour into the county tax collector's office by Monday night if taxpayers want to avoid penalties.

M. F. Donohue, county tax collector, today warned taxpayers that the deadline for payment is 5 p.m. Monday. The deadline is set by law as April 10. But since it falls on a Sunday this year, taxpayers get a day of grace. They may take their payments to the courthouse or mail them in, with the postmark not later than 5 p.m. Monday.

As of yesterday, $2,508,000 of the second installment taxes had been paid, Donohue reported. This leaves about four million dollars still to go.

"Everything points to a last-minute rush," he said.

The total tax bill for Marin this year was $16,104,000.

The tax collector reported that this year, more tax bills have been reported lost and more post-dated checks are being mailed than in past years. Donohue pointed out that he is not allowed to take post-dated checks. In some instances, he has been mailing them back to the senders.

Motel Owner Gives Clue To Fugitive

DENVER (UPI) — A suburban motel owner disclosed yesterday that a man he now believes was Joseph Corbett Jr. tried to rent a room from him the night of Feb. 9, shortly after millionaire Adolph Coors III disappeared under circumstances indicating he was kidnaped.

Corbett last Wednesday was placed on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted men as a fugitive from a California prison. He also is wanted for questioning about Coors' disappearance.

(Corbett was convicted of the murder of Sgt. Alan L. Reed of the Western Air Defense Force in Larkspur on Dec. 22, 1950. He escaped from Chino Prison five years ago.)

The motel owner, Fred Schmidt, said he was so suspicious of the man at the time he notified the Jefferson County sheriff's office. However, Schmidt said he did not connect his would-be patron with Coors' disappearance until last week when Corbett's picture was first published locally and he was linked with the Coors case.

Schmidt then reported the incident to the FBI, whose agents have questioned him since at length.

Belvedere Candidates Discuss The Issues

Belvedere residents turned out 300 strong last night to hear nine candidates for three seats on the Belvedere City Council expound their views on four subjects of prime interest to Belvedereans.

1. The western tideland development off Belvedere Island;
2. Annexation of Tiburon;
3. The fall sewer bond issue election;
4. Rising taxes.

Candidates bypassed the 20-minute self-interrogation period set for the evening and let the audience take over with written questions.

The aspirants were divided on the western tidelands development issue, ranging from Vice Adm. Frank E. Beatty's view that "it is not in keeping with the spirit of Belvedere" to Dr. John H. Flint's question, "Can we afford to purchase this land for recreation? . . . There are other issues that take precedence."

Candidate Robert M. Joses agreed with Flint and added, referring to a remark made the previous evening at the Belvedere City Council, "If anything built with an open structure is immoral, so are all the carports in Belvedere." Laughter followed.

All nine candidates disapproved of Belvedere's annexing Tiburon for various reasons, including Robert A. Davies' assertion that "Belvedere has a future population of 2,900 and Tiburon of 10,000 . . . If we annex, Belvedere would have one city councilman and Tiburon four."

Herbert H. Scheier and Merritt K. Ruddock agreed that benefits would have to be proved before money was spent on investigation. Horace L. Hill said, "Let's keep Belvedere small."

Dr. Flint started the answers on the sewer bond issue, saying that we have no alternative and I am all for it." All agreed.

Incumbent Councilman E. G. (Ned) Weed led a discussion of changing the city manager system by saying "I see no reason to change." All agreed.

The question of rising taxes was carefully criticized by all candidates, but not one had a concrete suggestion on how to lower them. General consensus was "an increase is inevitable but we shall try to hold them down."

Following the question and answer period, the two organizers, Mrs. Chester Vargas and Mrs. James Heynemann, received an ovation from the crowd.

Hospital Board Backs 2 Nursing Programs

The board of trustees of San Rafael General Hospital Foundation has endorsed the establishment of a licensed vocational nurse program at the College of Marin, according to John H. Prescott, hospital administrator.

The trustees also endorsed a proposed two-year associate in arts graduate nurse program, Prescott said.

Larkspur May Adopt Zoning Law Tonight

The Larkspur City Council is scheduled to hold a public hearing tonight on the city's proposed new zoning ordinance, but it may not come off.

At their latest meeting, councilmen gave strong indication the measure would be adopted tonight as an interim emergency ordinance, then sent back to the city planning commission for "refinement."

Lesly A. Daveler, city council candidate and former planning commission member, urged interim adoption "for the purpose of controlling building activity" before a permanent new ordinance is enacted.

The council, to convene at 8 o'clock in Larkspur City Hall, again will take up the problem of Redwood High School traffic congestion on William avenue. City manager Ronald E. Piper will propose that the city corporation yard, now located behind the city hall, be moved to city-owned land at the Larkspur dump near Henry C. Hall School.

The council will receive a request by Greenbrae boardwalk residents for city maintenance of the boardwalk access road. Piper will recommend acceptance of Jones way into Larkspur's street system.

Larkspur's proposed share of the 1960-61 budget for the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission will be studied, along with a request by the commission's Fourth of July fireworks committee for an increased city contribution.

Council Delays Action On Sausalito Project

Rob Rose must wait two more weeks for a decision on whether he will be permitted 10 shops, a restaurant and a cocktail lounge on his El Portal property, the Sausalito City Council decided last night.

Rose applied last October for a variance and use permit.

The council decided to study further, with Rose, the lack of offstreet parking for the proposed establishments.

Rose asked the council for action on his request for a variance from offstreet parking on two shops only. He was then asked by acting Mayor John E. Koenig Jr. if he would be willing to have the council consider just the building which formerly housed the post office.

"Something is better than nothing," Rose said. The post office has been vacant since October, he added. "We ask permission to continue the commercial use of the post office. It is a hardship case. We cannot provide any offstreet parking space."

Koenig said he would be willing to move that the variance from offstreet parking requirements be granted Rose in connection with the use of the old post office building.

Councilman Marjorie Brady said she thought Rose had waited a "long, long time very patiently. However, I think Mr. Rose would be the first to recognize we cannot maintain a policy which developments have forced us to change. We're not the same town we were a year ago because of the tremendous increase in traffic."

Councilman Phillip S. Ehrlich Jr. said he was not ready to decide.

Rose asked for a "quarter of a loaf"—just the post office property. Koenig moved for this, but the council split 2-2, with Mrs. Brady and Ehrlich voting "no." Mayor Howard Sievers was absent.

Mrs. Marian Frick, in the audience, recommended a parking district be set up. She said she felt each business in downtown Sausalito would be willing to contribute to it.

Rose said he is all for parking districts but "we don't know the area or the conditions of a proposed parking district, and we are not able to buy a pig in a poke at this time."

Willard Hall, from the floor, declared: "I am a businessman. You can't penalize people that way. The post office was more or less cluttered with people. No shop will have that many people coming in." "Another thing," he added. "If you're not going to do any business tonight, why don't we adjourn until after the election and go home?"

Councilman George E. Keeney moved that a variance from offstreet parking requirements for the restaurant, cocktail lounge and one shop be denied. This was on a separate application. But the motion did not come to a vote.

Panel Discussion Set On Flood Control Jobs

The Marin County Flood Control will hold a panel discussion at 8 p.m. Monday on the results of flood control projects for the future.

Sausalito Restaurant Gets Permit For Mooring Buoys

The Sausalito City Council last night approved by 3-to-1 vote the placing of three mooring buoys on city property adjoining the Ondine Restaurant.

Benjamin Dreyfus, representing the restaurant, was told the city would charge a rental to be set by the council, and that it would be for a trial period of one year. The buoys are not to be used for excursions, Dreyfus was told.

Councilman George E. Keeney voted against it, declaring, "The first thing we're going to have is a honkytonk. Next thing you know, someone will want to put balloons up on the roof."

Dreyfus said, "We have constant requests from monied people who desire to dine at Ondine, but have no place to tie up. It's merely an accommodation for the larger and finer boats which we cannot tie to a fragile little float."

Frank Pistolesi, who owns apartments across the street from Ondine, objected to the buoys on the grounds they would block the view and add to the parking problem.

Dreyfus, who originally asked permission to put in five buoys, withdrew his request for two of them so all buoys could be placed behind the restaurant building and thus not obstruct the view.

The Sausalito council also:

1. Authorized the city engineer to obtain bids for construction of a tennis court at South View Park.
2. Called for bids to be opened May 5 for construction of a parking lot at Bridgeway and Bay street, assuming that there is no objection from the subcommittee studying the matter. The lot is to hold 157 cars and is estimated to cost $14,000.
3. Approved warrants totaling $35,310.
4. Authorized City Manager Charles A. Brown to work out a plan whereby people parking on the city's monthly plan parking lot might have windshield stickers allowing them to park any place in the area.
5. Voted 3-0, Councilman George E. Keeney abstaining, to refer to a committee revisions to the ordinance regulating the use of boats, arks or barges as dwellings. The primary purpose is to look into regulation of water pollution.
6. Adopted an ordinance entering into contract with the state employees retirement system, as of May 1.
7. Voted 3-1, Keeney opposing, that the city manager and building inspector be instructed to refuse a building permit to Alta Mira Hotel to enlarge its dining area by 400 spaces until the correct use for the zoning of the hotel is decided.
8. Authorized the city manager to investigate setting up a fire hazard inspection program, and to investigate the water pressure when the city is fighting a large fire.
9. Approved Rudy Lang Jr.'s request to change name of Sacramento avenue to Ebbtide avenue.

Motherwell To Gamble

WASHINGTON (AP) — Larry Lord Motherwell will seek a new California trial, even though it could lead to the gas chamber, his attorney said yesterday.

The construction worker was sentenced in Sierra County Superior Court to life imprisonment for the 1958 murder of Mrs. Pearl Putney, 72, a widow from Washington, D.C.

Motherwell's attorney, John T. Reges, said here that his client insists on filing for a new trial although a second conviction could lead to San Quentin Prison's gas chamber.

Sausalito Youths Slate Car Wash

Boys of the Sausalito Athletic Club will hold a car wash Saturday and Sunday, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Cash's Flying A Station at Bridgeway and Caledonia streets.

Money raised by the teenagers will be used to buy sports equipment for their club and for charity, according to Juvenile Officer Peter Lampros of the Sausalito police.

Meeting At Alto

The Alto Sanitary District, which normally meets the first Monday of the month, will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Alto Firehouse. Monday's meeting was postponed because some board members were out of town.

OAKLAND BOUT

Fans Boo Verdict Against Scanlon

By JIM GILMARTIN

The fuming mad co-managers of Irish Bobby Scanlon have placed the City of Oakland on "off limits" status and today vowed their lightweight fighter will never again set foot on the East Bay community.

Their anti-Oakland attitude reached the boiling point last night after Oaklander Johnny Gonsalves was awarded a split decision over Scanlon in 10 rounds.

"That," stormed Nick Kobseff of Nicasio, "was strictly a hometown decision. To put it bluntly, it stunk." His partner, Lou Sabella, nodded in agreement and told Scanlon, "Take a good look around this auditorium because it's the last time you'll see it." Kobseff and Sabella recently took over management of Scanlon and this was their taste of the disappointments of boxing.

Most of the fans in attendance booed the verdict and tossed paraphernalia into the ring —including a wooden chair!

FAVOR SCANLON

An informal poll of sports writers gave Scanlon the edge —five to three. The I-J card had Bobby a 98-96 winner. Art Rosenbaum of the Chronicle, Eddie Muller of the Examiner, Gordon Raddue of the Richmond Independent and United Press International agreed. Voting for Gonsalves were Jack Fiske of the Chronicle, Harvey Rockwell of the News Call-Bulletin and Scotty Sterling of the Oakland Tribune.

The official balloting went like this: Judge Jack Silver, 98-93 for Gonsalves; Referee Matt Zidich, 98-95 for the winner and Judge Elmer Costa 98-97 Scanlon. It was the winner's second split decision over Scanlon.

The I-J gave Scanlon his two-point edge for a sizzling seventh round and his aggressiveness. Scanlon scored at least six solid shots in the seventh for the only real heavy bombardment of the fight.

BOBBY AGGRESSIVE

What action that took place was prompted by Scanlon who constantly pursued his lanky and more experienced foe. Bobby got in trouble when Gonsalves tied him up and cuffed his ear into a purple bruise. "I guess that's how they score points," said the dejected Scanlon who was making a comeback after a nine-month layoff.

"Sure I'd like to fight him again," he added, "but not in Oakland."

Bobby admitted "My timing was off a bit, but I was in good condition. I just got a little tired in the 10th round." It was in that session that Bobby did most of the grabbing and Gonsalves turned aggressor, at one time wrestling Scanlon to the canvas.

Neither man was in serious trouble at any time.

Trainer Freddie Apostoli of Fairfax said Scanlon will take a three-week rest and then start training again, although his next opponent has not yet been lined up.

Said Apostoli: "I thought Bobby did a good job and deserved the decision. His timing was a bit off, but his left jab and hook were working good."

Pre-fight publicity said Gonsalves was undergoing hypnotic treatment to change his style from that of a patty-cake puncher to a tiger. Obviously it didn't work, for Gonsalves was still the same old slap, run, grab Gonsalves.

Scanlon, 24, outweighed the 30-year-old Oaklander 136¼ to 135½. Gross gate was $9,527.

Folley Scores 6th Straight Ring Win

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Heavyweight contender Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., won his sixth straight ring victory last night, a unanimous decision over unranked Clarence Williams of Hayward.

49ers To Open Home Schedule Against Giants

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League have announced a six-game home schedule for the 1960 season.

The schedule includes: Sept. 25—New York Giants; Oct. 2—Los Angeles Rams; Oct. 30—Chicago Bears; Nov. 6—Detroit Lions; Dec. 11—Green Bay Packers; Dec. 18—Baltimore Colts.

Forty-Niner officials said their "open date" in the new league set-up would be Nov. 13. They added that there was a possibility the Dec. 11 game with Green Bay may be placed on Dec. 10, depending on television commitments.

Cousy Hot, Sparks Celts To Victory

BOSTON (AP)—Bob Cousy, snapping out of a bad slump, scored 21 points and made 10 assists last night in leading the Boston Celtics to a vital 127-102 victory over the St. Louis Hawks in the National Basketball Assn. playoffs.

The decision gave Boston a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven series that shifts to St. Louis tomorrow night. The seventh game, if necessary, will be in Boston Saturday afternoon.

Redwood Defeats Oakland Preps

Redwood's Giants exploded for three runs in the seventh inning yesterday to eke out an 8-7 victory over McClymonds High in Oakland.

Will Giant Trades Backfire On Them?

PHOENIX (AP)—Familiar faces could haunt the San Francisco Giants Tuesday when they open their 1960 season in brand new Candlestick Park.

They face the St. Louis Cardinals and it was some ex-Giants who provided the Missourians with a 9-6 exhibition game victory yesterday in the only preseason contest between the two clubs.

Daryl Spencer's home run sparked the Cardinals to a five-run ninth inning. Spencer traded to St. Louis with Leon Wagner for Don Blasingame in a winter exchange, bashed his solo homer with one out and the score tied 4-4.

BROGLIO WINS

Bill White, traded by the Giants after the 1959 season, got two hits in four times at bat and Wagner drew two walks and singled in four appearances. The winning pitcher was another former Giant, Ernie Broglio.

Friday the Dodgers and Giants meet at Bakersfield, Saturday at Fresno and Sunday at Sacramento.

San Francisco probably wound up its pre-season dealing with the acquisition of veteran first baseman Dale Long via purchase from the Chicago Cubs. The price was believed near the $25,000 mark.

Long provides more of the bench strength that Manager Bill Rigney sought. Earlier he acquired Jim Marshall from the Boston Red Sox. Both newcomers are left-handed hitters with power. Long appeared in 110 games for Chicago last season and batted .236, hitting 14 homers and driving in 37 runs.

San Francisco showed power against the Cards. Jimmy Davenport, Orlando Cepeda and McCovey all homered. It was the first of the spring for McCovey, the 1959 rookie-of-the-year.

Drake Swimmers Edge San Rafael

Freestyle ace Pete Sagues won the 100 and 50-yard events in the times of 54.3 and 23.9 seconds yesterday to pace Drake High School's swim team to a 53-42 victory over San Rafael at Drake's pool.

Drake also won Class B, 45-32.

Other varsity winners were: Lindenbaum (D), 400 free, 5:10.3; Stokeley (SR), 100 butterfly, 1:00.7; Dawson (D), 200 free, 2:12.2; Yuvan (SR) 100 back, 1:08.4; Hendry (D), 100 breast, 1:10.1; Miller (SR), diving; Crossler (D), 200 individual medley, 2:35.4. San Rafael won the medley relay and Drake the freestyle relay.

FEW LIKE NEW NAME FOR OAKLAND TEAM

The City Council last disapproved it 4-1.

"I haven't come across anybody who likes it," Mayor Clifford E. Rishell said.

Councilman Robert L. Osborne, one of the owner-directors of the club, declared if the name were allowed to stand he would be tempted to sell out his interest in the team.

Senors—from the Spanish "senores"—was suggested by Policewoman Helen A. Davis, one of 10,000 persons submitting names in a contest by the Oakland Tribune and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Report Dykes Out As Tiger Manager

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Times said today Jimmie Dykes' days as manager of the Detroit Tigers appear to be numbered. President Bill DeWitt of the Tigers quickly denied the story.

The Times said Dykes and DeWitt do not see eye-to-eye and "an explosion may be forthcoming" when the Tigers experience their first serious slump.

Palmer Solid Masters Pick; Venturi 2nd

Palmer, the year's leading money winner with more than $26,000 in earnings, himself places the barrel-chested Souchak at the head of the half-dozen or so whom he regards as players to beat for the title.

"I figure the men who are tough on the tour will be toughest here," said the 30-year-old Ligonier, Pa., professional, winner in 1958 and loser by two strokes last year.

Bookmakers have a slightly differing and a more definite view of the outcome of the four-day, 72-hole medal play over the Augusta National course.

SOLID CHOICE

They have made Palmer the solid favorite at 6-1, followed by Venturi, who blew the championship as an amateur in 1956, at 8-1, Cary Middlecoff and three-time winner, Sam Snead are bracketed at 10-1. Then comes an out-of-shape Ben Hogan, and Souchak, 12-1, and Finsterwald and South Africa's Gary Player, 15-1. Other prices range from 20-1 to 100-1.

Player, the young British Open champion, heads the strong foreign delegation which includes Canada Cup individual winner, Stan Leonard of Canada, and leading players from Australia, Spain, Brazil and England.

The weather ceased to be a factor. The 6,850-yard, par 72 course, drenched by a week of rains, was whipped by strong biting winds and warmed by a benign sun yesterday. The weather man promises clear, cool weather — temperature in the low 70s—for the rest of the week.

Hey, Skipper, Take Us Out To The Ball Game

San Francisco Bay Area yachtsmen plan to make major league history next week by sailing to Candlestick Park for the Giants' home baseball games.

Some 30 of them in three yachts and a landing craft rendezvoused 600 yards from home plate Tuesday to make sure they could establish a beachhead.

The three yachts from the city's Great Golden Fleet anchored in about five feet of water off centerfield and put ashore in the landing craft on a spit of land jutting from the stadium parking area.

Tomorrow the Navy will attach a floating dock—a 60 by 18-foot pontoon—to the spit to enable the yachts to discharge their passengers directly before anchoring in the cove. The pontoon is a loan for the first week. After that the yachtsmen hope to interest a boatman in shuttling passengers from anchorages to land.

Sidney Keil, secretary of the Great Golden Fleet and one of the originators of the seagoing commuting scheme, said every boat owner in the Bay Area is welcome to use the pontoon.

"Right now I'd say a couple of hundred people will get to the opener Tuesday by boat," Keil remarked.

They'll miss an expected land traffic jam but may cause a boat jam, Keil feared, if too many mariners showed up.

Fullmer Brother Fights Kerwin In TV Tiff Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A hotel ballroom will be the lavish setting of a 10-round fight tonight between Jay Fullmer, brother of middleweight champion Gene, and Gale Kerwin.

Kerwin, who fights out of Valley Stream, N. Y., is billed as welterweight champion of Canada. Both are in the lighter brackets of the welterweight class and probably will go in at about 140 pounds for their match to be nationally televised (ABC, 7 o'clock PST).

Fullmer, 23, has won 19 of 24 fights, including seven by knockout. Kerwin, 24, was victorious in 28 of 38 ring appearances.

CHEVROLET

That's a 6303 medium-duty Chevrolet powered by a 283-cu.-in. V8. But there's sure nothing medium-duty about the load. Mr. J. E. Blankinship, Arkansas logging contractor, says both of his torsion-spring 6303's "move along at 40 to 50 miles per hour with 55,000 pounds gross weight and maintain a 5-trip-a-day schedule with no trouble at all." Figure the money you save when you've got a medium-duty truck that can cover 30,000 back-country miles a year with a high-tonnage load!

We've never seen anything like the amount of praise truck owners are heaping on Chevy's new torsion spring suspension. Owners like the fact the truck handles a whole lot easier, can move faster off the road without beating the driver to death and shaking loose all the sheet metal. They like the idea of extra thousands of miles before trade-in! . . . Drive a '60 Chevy just once. It's a whole new experience.

Chevy middleweight averages 200 miles of back roads a day dogging timber out of the woods and delivering it to the mill at Crossett, Arkansas.

GONSALVES SCORES WITH JAB

Race Slated For Sunday In Petaluma

A new special event for the Redwood Empire, the National Junior Individual and Team 25-Kilometer Championship, will be held at Petaluma this Sunday.

A fine field of runners is expected to be on hand for the starting gun, according to Ed Fratini, meet chairman, who will be assisted by Arnold Scott, Louis Kaiser and other long-distance race enthusiasts. Thomas Laughran, long-distance running commissioner for the Pacific Assn. of the A.A.U., the organization sanctioning the race, will be present for the event.

Runners will start on the jaunt of about 15½ miles at 1 p.m. Start and finish will be at the Vallejo Adobe.

The new event takes the place of the Spartans Marathon which was run over the same course at Petaluma for 25 years. This year's race is sponsored by the Spartans Athletic Club.

Wes Hildreth of Mill Valley, a student at Harvard University and frequent top competitor in the Petaluma and Dipsea races, flew in from Cambridge Monday night and will take part in the run.

Giants Sign Famous Name—McGillicuddy

SANFORD, Fla. (AP)—The famed name of McGillicuddy is back in baseball.

Donald McGillicuddy, 21-year-old great, great nephew of the late Connie Mack, has been signed to a contract with the Springfield, Mass., Giants, farm club of the San Francisco Giants in the Class A Eastern League.

McGillicuddy, whom Giant scouts have appraised as being an unusually bright prospect as a first baseman, is in the Marines until April 15.

Redwood Swimmers Set Three Marks, But Lose To Tam

Tamalpais Indians won the team honors but Redwood's Giants walked off with a lion's share of individual glory yesterday in the opening of the Marin County Athletic League dual swimming meet season at Tam's pool.

The Indians won Class A by a 53-42 margin and the Class B Tamites prevailed 66-11, but Redwood's varsity natators accounted for three of the four pool records broken in the meet.

Redwood's Dick Chambers set two records with a 4:21.9 clocking in the 400-yard freestyle and 2:22.2 performance in the 200 individual medley. Ken Frost of Redwood broke the 100 breaststroke mark in a sizzling 1:08.6 and Tam's Rick Snow accounted for the final record with his 2:05.8 time in the 200 free.

Stoneham Bubbling With Optimism As Season Opener Draws Near

CONNOLLY

"There could be trouble ahead. We're not looking for it, nor expecting it. But we're ready for it, if it comes, and I'm sure we will hurdle it without too much alarm being felt."

Those are pretty firm words coming from Horace Stoneham at Phoenix. In a phone fanning bee last evening the Giant boss went over his 1960 Giant lineup, player for player, position for position and in no uncertain terms expressed himself as confident, satisfied and really determined that a bright future is in store for S.F. fans.

"All a clubowner can do is prepare cautiously and solidly," Stoneham states. "I think we've done it that way.

"Don't worry too much about Willie McCovey, our first baseman. "He hasn't knocked down any fences and he hasn't mimicked Babe Ruth. But the kid is a solid hitter, an improved fielder and a lot wiser and smarter than some of you base ball writers think.

"LAST SPRING," Stoneham continued, "McCovey looked awful. "We thought the extra weight would help him and I still think it will. But we've tried to keep McCovey from having too much pressure placed on his shoulders. Now that we have Marshall to help him out, he will be relieved of a lot of tension, and I'm sure will find himself right at the start of the season.

"I'd say McCovey isn't going to disappoint Giant fans in 1960."

About Don Blasingame, the new Giant second baseman, Stoneham was very positive.

"HE'S NEARING the peak of his training. I'd rather have Don ready for the opener than tired from starring in spring exhibitions. Just watch him from the kickoff. His fielding has been superb and as a pivot companion to Eddie Bressoud, I think we have as nice a second base combination as we could ever get."

Speaking of Bressoud, the youngster really figures deeply in Stoneham's plan for 1960.

WE THINK Bressoud will be the standout defensive shortstop in our league and one of the most timely and dangerous batters in the clutch. Eddie never wavers. He's steady and reliable and now has the confidence his second base companion affords."

When Stoneham gets wound up on a phone he really spreads himself and with the Independent-Journal footing the bill he was rather loquacious.

"WE GAVE orders to take Jimmy Davenport along cautiously and I think Bill Rigney has done that very thing," Horace declared.

Davenport is no scary personality and while he dislikes caution, he has obeyed his bosses and has not taken any unnecessary chances.

"JIMMY DOESN'T know what fear means," the Giant owner says. "And we had to explain the dangers of injuries during exhibition games. We wanted Jimmy to be in shape for our season's opener. And I think Rig has done an excellent baby sitting job, keeping an eye on him all the time."

Catching in some quarters has been regarded as the Giants' one weak spot, or at least weaker than other spots. But this opinion is not shared by Stoneham.

"SURE I'D like to have a Yogi Berra around," he says. "And maybe we have in young Bob Schmidt. The sky is the limit with this kid as I size him ready for the opener if we need him up, and if he wants more time to be safe, I think he has nothing to worry about."

"WE'RE SET right in every spot in the outfield and with Willie Mays, Willie Kirkland, Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou around, it really is a great combination. But I think these fellows have convinced the league as a whole, that they rank with the finest, so there isn't much more to be said. But I really believe Willie Mays will be his old self in our new park."

"WE SHOULD get the best pitching in the National League," he says. "We have numbers and we have quality. The combination is truly gratifying. Our lefthanders are standouts and of course I'd be silly to say anything but great when I talk about our righthanders."

So if one has to wonder about the Giants, the one guy who is vitally concerned is Horace Stoneham. And when he lets his hair down and gives out such as he has to this writer, then I'd say the Giants are ready, eager and willing to back him and his judgement and his bankroll up to the hilt.

Fish-Game Unit Meet Starts Tomorrow

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The Fish and Game Commission meets in Sacramento tomorrow and Friday for the first go-round in setting hunting regulations, seasons and limits for 1960.

As was mentioned previously in this column, taking of one hen pheasant in Northern California will be one of the lively and controversial topics.

But there may be even bigger news on pheasants and, who knows, if the commission takes some action on it, the shooting of one hen per hunter in the north might be accepted.

We're referring to a proposal to change a much-discussed and long-studied pheasant policy proposal. After years of study, re-evaluation and re-evaluation of the re-evaluated studies, the department proposed a new pheasant policy last fall. Action on it has been delayed but a vote should be taken in May.

At this month's meeting, the commission will discuss changes in the proposal.

Originally, the proposal set out to do what most other states (who didn't have Seth Gordon as a fish and game director) did—that is, to take the accent off put-and-take pheasant hunting.

Other states have found that releasing of the expensive, mature birds doesn't bolster brood stocks in natural habitat areas and doesn't start brood stocks in non-habitat areas such as Southern California.

After seeing the changes now proposed in the proposed policy, it would appear the commission did well to wait for its adoption. It finally is making a lot of sense, in our opinion.

The new proposal provides that, after 1963, put-take hunting would be confined to two cooperative areas in Southern California, and this at a charge of $2 per day per hunter.

The department noted that game farm pheasants have made up only 10 per cent of the statewide kill and have not been much help lately with brood stocks. Co-ops have been receiving a disproportionate share of each year's game farm production of pheasants as other areas suitable under the pheasant policy dwindled.

Elimination of put-take pheasant hunting in Northern California would save $120,000 and another $40,000 could be saved by combining the three southern game farms into one, at Chino.

The department admitted $2 a day per hunter would not begin to cover the costs of raising and releasing pheasants but this is the maximum charge currently allowed. It noted changes in this law might be made in the future.

Win In Wisconsin Adds Punch To Kennedy Drive

Demo Hopefuls Both Top Nixon In Votes

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Victory over a formidable opponent in the Wisconsin primary election put new punch and power today behind Sen. John F. Kennedy's bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The result was clear-cut, but not as big as his aides had hoped.

Kennedy said, however, "I would think the Democratic leaders would find it very helpful."

'CAN ATTRACT VOTES'

The election demonstrated, he claimed, that he can attract votes among the farmers, labor unions, and non-Catholics.

Kennedy, a Massachusetts Catholic, defeated Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, a Protestant. For years, Humphrey has championed the Midwest farmers.

In yesterday's election, he was supported by top leadership of the Wisconsin AFL-CIO.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, unopposed in the Republican primary, did not come into the hard-fought campaign. He ran third.

With 3,404 of the state's 3,446 precincts reported, the unofficial tabulations showed Kennedy 468,501; Humphrey 366,394; Nixon 366,869.

This gave Kennedy slightly more than 56 per cent of the Democratic vote and victories in six of the 10 congressional districts.

It also allocated 20 Wisconsin delegates votes in the Democratic National Convention to Kennedy and 10 to Humphrey. Each also will receive a half-vote from the ballot shared by the state's two national committee members, who split their support.

Even before the final count was in, the vote broke the previous record, set in 1952 of 1,018,149.

SECOND VICTORY

Coming on the heels of his spectacular sweep in New Hampshire last month, this was Kennedy's second straight victory in an important presidential primary.

Wisconsin was not a spectacular triumph for him.

He said that winning six district races, plus a majority of the popular vote, would constitute a victory for him. "Anything else would be gravy," Kennedy said.

There was no gravy.

But Kennedy said he was delighted with the result. He added, "I never took the view that we could win all 10 districts despite the pollsters. If we end up with 57 per cent of the Democratic vote we will be doing very well."

Humphrey said the election caused him no pain.

"I suppose numerically I'm the defeated candidate," he said, "but if I'm defeated I certainly don't hurt. In light of the predictions made, we have every reason to believe we did well."

The vote for Nixon also was open to interpretation. He had no opposition to stir GOP interest and he did not campaign in Wisconsin.

Four years ago, 438,000 Republicans cast ballots for President Eisenhower in a virtually uncontested election. In 1952, the late Sen. Robert A. Taft rolled up 315,000 GOP votes to 262,000 cast for Earl Warren, then governor of California.

The size of the "cross over" ballot, in which Wisconsin Republicans may vote in the Democratic primary, and vice versa, will never be known.

In Sheboygan where Catholic voters constitute 22 per cent of the total, he had 55.5 per cent of the vote. He took 44.3 per cent in Madison which has 22 per cent Catholics, and 48.3 per cent of the vote in Lacrosse where the Catholic vote is 23 per cent.

As for his draw with the farmers, Kennedy pointed to his victory in the Seventh District, an agricultural area.

He was a big winner in three of Wisconsin's major industrial areas, Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha. The AFL-CIO leadership in the state opposed him and urged union men to support Humphrey.

Both Humphrey and Kennedy took the occasion to comment happily on the vote for Nixon.

START SAVING DAYLIGHT ON APRIL 24

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Daylight Saving Time begins again April 24—bringing with it some confusion over transportation schedules, protests from farmers and approval from lovers of the outdoors.

Many communities in 27 states, including California, will set their clocks an hour ahead to get an extra hour of sunlight during the summer months. Daylight saving time starts officially at 12:01 a.m., Sunday, April 24.

It will remain in effect in 18 of the states and the District of Columbia through Oct. 30. Localities in eight states, including California, will adhere to the old five-month period.

The jury was scheduled to begin consideration of criminal proceedings today. Jurors will serve to Sept. 30.

Hundreds Forced To Leave Homes By Rampaging Rivers

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Rising rivers in the Midwest and Northeast forced hundreds to flee their homes today and threatened some areas with the worst floods in nearly 20 years.

The Mississippi River rose to new crests in hard-hit western Illinois, but observers doubted that any more levees would be broken.

Army engineers aid the river would crest at 24.3 feet today at Quincy, Ill., and 23.4 feet tomorrow at Hannibal, Mo.

But the runoff from two earlier levee breaks near Quincy was expected to ease the pressure on other dikes along the river.

Work on the levees went on through the night from Quincy to Louisiana, Mo., in an effort to shore up the dikes before the new crests are reached.

National guardsmen and volunteer rescue workers raced from crisis to crisis along the Missouri River as the Big Muddy cracked dozens of small dikes and flowed over hundreds of acres of Missouri bottomland.

A small farm levee protecting Corning, Mo., broke early today and water began seeping into the tiny Missouri River town. Most of Corning's 200 residents moved out several days ago and a convoy of trucks began taking out the few remaining families.

The Missouri flowed a mile wide between Glasgow, Mo., and the state capital at Jefferson City, carrying wheat and fresh soil with it as it headed toward its confluence with the Mississippi near St. Louis.

Officials said river towns were well protected, but feared that thousands more acres of rich river bottomland would wash away before one of the worst Midwestern floods subsides.

Meanwhile, Connecticut and upstate New York residents faced their worst flood threat since the hurricane Diane deluge in 1955, and their second worst in 22 years.

Emergency crews threw up a sandbag barrier along the rapidly rising Connecticut River, but other swollen streams flowed over their banks to block roads and inundate thousands of farm acres.

At least 800,000 acres of Illinois and Missouri farmland were under water and the figure mounted hourly as new breakthrough were reported in small, badly weakened dikes.

But loss of life and damage to property other than farm buildings was almost negligible.

Galveston Integrates Its Lunch Counters

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Most downtown Galveston, Tex., stores opened integrated lunch counters today while Nashville, Tenn., merchants studied a biracial committee recommendation they desegregate part of their restaurant facilities.

The moves were made in the face of growing racial tension in much of the South more than two months after the sit-downs started at Greensboro, N.C. One variety store has closed its lunch counter in that city.

New demonstrations were reported in Florida and Georgia yesterday while 50 more Negroes were convicted at Orangeburg, S.C., and eight were sentenced in Memphis, Tenn.

Store managers and religious and civic leaders conferred in Galveston and announced it was decided "it is in the best interest of the entire community to open lunch counters to all patrons."

At Nashville, the mayor's biracial committee studying lunch counter sit-ins recommended downtown stores refusing to serve Negroes desegregate a portion of their restaurant facilities.

The committee said it felt integration of part of the dining facilities would reduce racial tension, and recommended a 90-day trial period.

Hub Asks County Aid For Drake Boulevard Repairs

The City of San Anselmo yesterday received the assurance of the Marin County Board of Supervisors that the two governmental subdivisions will work together to find a solution to the costly repairing of Sir Francis Drake boulevard.

The Hub City, through its administrator, Douglas Flautt, asked for "monetary assistance to provide for the proper maintenance and reconstruction of that portion of Sir Francis Drake boulevard, Red Hill and Miracle Mile inside the city. Total cost was estimated by City Engineer John C. Oglesby at $218,812.

Also present at the board meeting were Mayor Arthur W. Smith and Councilmen William Franchini and Carleton G. Little.

The board instructed Marvin W. Brigham, director of the county department of public works, to confer with Oglesby and come up with a report for the forthcoming 1960-61 fiscal budget.

"There is no question about the need for the work," said Supervisor William D. Fusselman. "We don't know what we can put in the budget, but your request is just, and certainly I will do what I can to support you."

Flautt declared:

"I am sure the board realizes the extent of use that these streets are put to by traffic which originates outside of the corporate limits of San Anselmo. A recent count showed some 40,000 cars pass through . . . the Hub each working day.

"In checking with the state Division of Highways, we find that their planning office may not consider Sir Francis Drake in the designation of the new route (from Highway 101 west) because of the cost . . .

"I suggest a long-range plan of sharing the cost."

Sausalito Building Permit Total Up

William L. Hynes, Sausalito building inspector, said today that permits for new construction as well as for alterations and repairs were much greater last month than during March of 1959.

There were seven permits for 11 units of new construction, amounting to $157,400, and 14 permits for alterations and repairs in the amount of $37,000.

In March of 1959 there were 13 permits for alterations and repairs totaling $10,805, and four permits for seven units of new construction totaling $73,000, Hynes said.

AN INNOVATION this year at the 8th annual Antiques Show to be held at the IDESST Hall in Sausalito April 21 through 24 wil be "Grandmother's Cupboard", headed by Mrs. Eleanor Perry, chairman, above a member of the Rector's Guild of the Church of Our Saviour, Mill Valley. She promises it will be filled with all kinds of home made goodies to take home. (Steve Allen photo.)

'Cupboard' At Antiques Show To Feature Famous Recipes

When "Grandmother's Cupboard" opens for the first time at the Eighth Annual Antiques Show and Sale this year in Sausalito, April 21-24 it will feature many famous recipes from members of the Rector's Guild of the Church of Our Saviour, sponsoring group.

Mrs. Eleanor V. Perry will make two of her own grandmother's recipes, Mrs. John Botha, who married a Dutchman of English descent and moved to South Africa where she lived for many years and made a hobby of collecting Dutch recipes. The two recipes given below have been favorites in the family and Mrs. Perry is pleased to present them at the Eighth Annual Antiques Show and Sale in Sausalito.

3 lbs. brown sugar
1 lb. butter
½ lb Crisco or other shortening
1 lb. ground almonds
4 eggs
1 tbsp. baking soda
1 tbsp. cloves
2 tbsp. cinnamon
1 wine-glass Claret wine

First rub flour, sugar, butter, spices and soda together. Add beaten eggs. Last, add wine. Knead well together. Best mixed overnight. Roll out with rolling pin and cut into shapes. Bake in rather brisk (450°) oven for about 20 minutes.

KOESISTERS

3 cups flour
1 cup brown sugar
2 tsp. cinnamon
1 tsp. mixed spices
4 eggs, well beaten
⅓ cup fat, or butter melted
1 cake yeast

Dip immediately into hot syrup made of 3 cups brown sugar and 2 cups water, well boiled and flavored with cinnamon. These keep for months.

Mrs. Philip Smith, chairman of this year's four-day event, is expecting the largest crowd ever because of the expanded space in the Sausalito locale. A snack bar will also present goodies to eat during the open hours of the show from noon to 10 p.m. daily.

Thrill The Family Easter Morn With Egg Buns For Breakfast

EASTER EGG BUNS FOR EASTER BREAKFAST

If you want to thrill the children on Easter morning and delight husbands and guests as well, greet them at breakfast with these Easter buns baked around an egg. The egg is dyed pale yellow with Easter egg dye but not cooked before baking. While the bun bakes the egg cooks. For eating, lift out the egg and shell it as you would any hard cooked egg. Present the bun, all snug and warm in a petal napkin fold. Decorate the top with Easter egg dress-ups that come in the package of pure certified food color.

EASTER EGG BUNS

1 cup milk
½ cup sugar
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ cup corn oil
1 package active dry yeast or 1 cake compressed yeast
¼ cup warm (not hot) water
2 eggs, well beaten
5 cups flour
6 uncooked eggs in shell.
Pure certified food color

Scald milk; remove from heat. Add sugar, salt and corn oil. Cool to lukewarm. Sprinkle yeast over warm water in a large mixing bowl; stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk mixture and eggs. Add 3 cups flour and beat until smooth. Gradually add remaining flour, or enough to make soft dough. Turn dough out on lightly floured board. Knead well (about 10 minutes), or until dough is smooth. Place in bowl which has been lightly oiled with corn oil. Brush top of dough lightly with corn oil to prevent crusting. Cover and let rise in warm place, free from draft, until double in bulk, about 1½ hours. Punch dough down and turn on lightly floured board. Divide in half. Form ½ dough into a round, place on greased cookie sheet. Cover and let rise, until double in bulk, about 1 hour. Form other half of dough into 6 small rounds. Place rounds on greased cooky sheet. Let dough rest 15 minutes. Meanwhile, follow package directions on the Easter egg dye and color eggs. Cut dough half way through in center top, place a colored egg in each cut. Cover and let rise until double in about 1 hour. Bake in slow oven (325°F.) about 45 minutes for the large bread, about 25 minutes for the small buns. Makes 1 round loaf and 6 Easter egg buns.

To make glazes or finishes try:

1. Sprinkle with sugar before second rising.
2. Combine 1 egg white and 1 tablespoon sugar and use as a wash before placing in oven.
3. Mix 2 tablespoons milk with 1 egg yolk and use to brush over shapes just before baking.
4. Bake plain and then cover immediately with a glaze made this way. Combine ½ cup dark corn sugar, 2 tablespoons margarine or butter and ¼ cup sugar in a saucepan and bring to a boil. Pour over freshly baked hot bread before removing from baking sheets.
5. Cover with confectioners' sugar frosting made with ¾ cup sifted confectioners' sugar and 1 tablespoon top milk or water. Decorate with lightly toasted almonds, if desired.

To make the petal napkin fold:

Select napkins about 12 inches square. Wash them and while they are still wet, starch them in a light solution of instant cold water starch (¼ cup instant cold water starch dissolved in 2 quarts water). Roll in a towel, unroll and iron smooth. Place napkin on a flat surface, bring the four corners in to meet at a center point. Repeat step with the new formed square. Turn folded napkin over, bring four points to center again. Turn back to original side. Pull out topmost points to form petals. Place roll in center.

THESE EASTER Egg Buns were adapted from the many European Easter breads made with a whole egg, shell and all, nestled within the rich yeast dough.

New Macroni And Cheese Recipe Has Wheat Germ

Macaroni and cheese is a time-honored standby, but it's likely to invoke a "what again?" complaint from fussy folks in the family unless the taste appeal is varied from time to time. And here's an appetizing, easy and economical way to do it.

This recipe is perked up with dehydrated minced onions, pimientoes, dry mustard and Worcestershire sauce; and it is enriched with toasted wheat germ, which also adds a nut-like flavor overtone. It's a hearty dish, since the macaroni and cheese are good protein foods. Wheat germ adds more quality protein, B vitamins, iron and phosphorus, among other nutrients.

Yielding six servings, the recipe can be baked in individual casseroles or a 1½ quart baking dish. You can double the recipe if one or more members of the family are wont to ask for seconds, and they probably will.

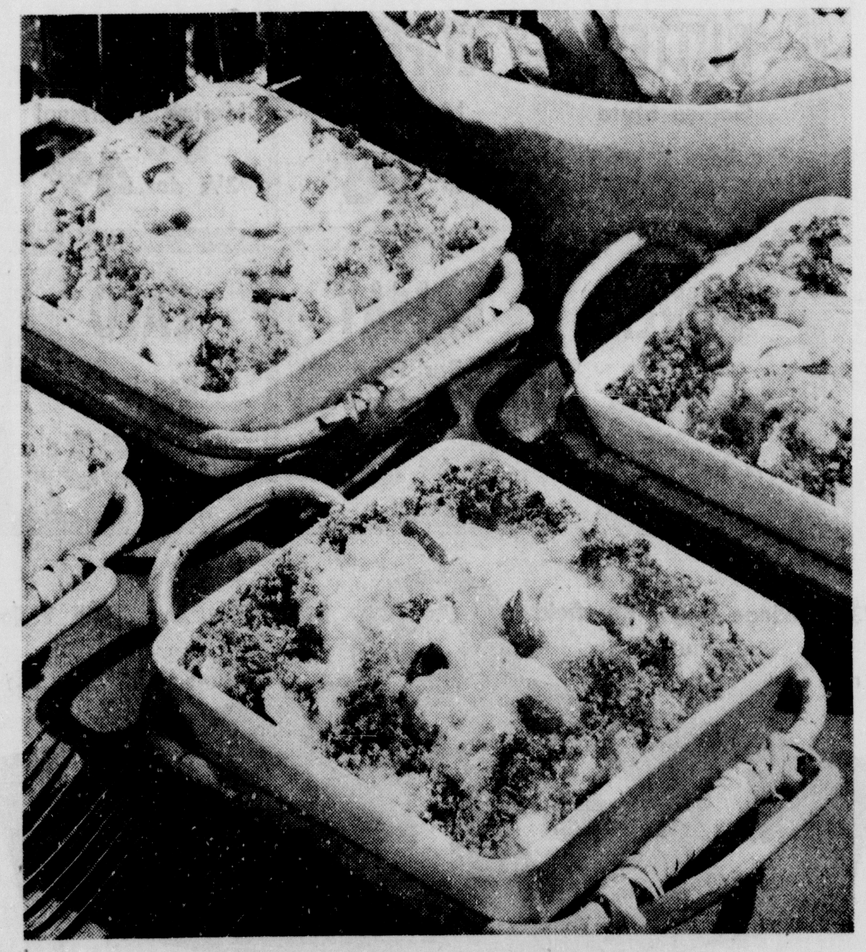
MACARONI AND CHEESE

¼ cup butter or margarine
3 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
1 7-ounce package elbow macaroni, cooked.
½ pound American cheese, shredded (about 2 cups).
1 teaspoon dehydrated minced onions
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon dry mustard.
2 tablespoons chopped pimientoes.
⅔ cup wheat germ.

Melt butter or margarine; blend in flour and salt. Stir in milk and cook until smooth and thickened, stirring constantly. Stir in remaining ingredients, except ⅓ cup wheat germ. Pour mixture into buttered individual or 1½ quart casserole. Sprinkle with remaining wheat germ. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) until hot and bubbly around edges, about 25 minutes. Yield; 6 servings.



MACARONI AND CHEESE, enriched with wheat germ and flavored with dehydrated minced onions, dry mustard, pimientoes and Worcestershire sauce, is a tasty, economical and nutritious meatless main course.

Zonta Club Elects Officers; Told Of Rapid Transit, Civic Center

The San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District and plans to alleviate commuter transportation problems, were explained by Richard J. Shephard, administrative assistant of the district, at the luncheon meeting of the Zonta Club of Marin County at the Wye Club in San Rafael with Mrs. Courtland Benites, presiding. Guests were Mrs. Maynard Redmond and Mrs. Nora Helton.

Mrs. Margaret Hedden, vice president, introduced Shephard who said the Bay Area in 120 years has come to its present population of 3,500,000, but in the next 20 to 25 years, it will increase to 7,000,000, with a problem of traffic congestion, particularly at peak hours.

Established by the legislature in 1957, the Rapid Transit District is a five county public agency, governed by a 16 man board. The first of three steps in this undertaking is now taking place—planning the system, next will come construction and the third is operation. Shephard said that this necessitates consultants in egineering, economics and finance, and that the system will be unlike any in the world.

It is planned that in Marin County, the route will go through San Rafael, and as far north as Ignacio, with a tunnel under the hills in Sausalito.

At the recent meeting in the Loch Lomond home of Mrs. John McPhail, Mrs. Hedden presided. Mrs. Jean Hand of Corte Madera, a member of the Las Vegas Zonta Club was a guest. Report of the nominating committee was given: Mrs. Hedden was named for president; Dr. Anne Brady, vice president; Miss Virginia Shattuck, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Williams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Americo Oberto, treasurer; Mrs. Oliver R. Hartzell, Miss Stella Hughes and Mrs. Richard Keating, board members. These officers were unanimously elected and will be installed at the meeting on April 21.

The speaker was Mrs. Vera Schultz, a club member, and supervisor from the third District of Marin County. She told of attending a conference on education at Asilomar.

Mrs. Schultz state a long-range plan has been adopted with the building of the Civic Center on a pay-as-you-go basis. The new Civic Center will be ready for occupancy in 18 months, with weather permitting, otherwise in 24 months; the cost will be $1.64 per square foot less than was paid for the court house annex.

The supervisor declared Marin is unique in that it has not one cent of bonded indebtness. The pay-as-you-go plan has saved the taxpayers 1,500,000 dollars in bond interest. The lease and lease back plan is being used in building both the county farm and juvenile hall. The spiraling tax rate is caused by various districts; school, fire, sanitary and lighting.

Marin is seventh from the bottom or No. 51 in per capita cost of county government. The county has 600 employees — the number has doubled in seven years. Mrs. Schultz stated that the county needs more industries and commercial establishments to help with the tax load. She explained there are four reasons which make it difficult to attract these industries: high price of land; high price of water and the inadequacies of it; not enough level land; inadequate transportation.

Mrs. Schultz spoke of the proposed Pt. Reyes National Seashore Foundation. She said even if it means a loss of taxes to the county, will be more than compensated by the money spent on recreation.

Marin nurses interested in attending the institute may obtain further information by contacting Mrs. Patricia Leonard, director of nurses, San Rafael General Hospital.

The kids might tell you themselves (if they weren't so busy eating): Philadelphia Brand Cream Cheese and Kraft Pure Jelly are the best things to spread on bread! Philadelphia Brand is the freshest-tasting cream cheese because it's the fastest-selling. So the flavor's always delightful. Spread it nice and thick for snacks, sandwiches, breakfast toast. You'll see it's quite right that this is America's favorite brand of cream cheese.

School P-TA Leaders At San Rafael Meet

Education was compared to a triangle by a school official speaking before 200 Marin County school administrators and Parent-Teachers Association leaders at a Wednesday meeting at San Rafael High School.

Richard L. Foster, former acting superintendent of Marin County Schools and now superintendent of the Jefferson Elementary School District in Daly City, said that three sides of the "Triangle" were: School boards, Administrators, and the P-TA. He stressed that each side should support and counterbalance the other two in order to provide maximum in educational opportunities for children.

Two sections discussing "P-TA Influence without Interference" concluded that maximum effectiveness can be gained when school policies are clearly defined to P-TAs and respected by them. Parents, on the other hand, should not interfere in the hiring and firing of school personnel, and should always work through recognized channels in attempting to effect other changes.

"Funds are necessary in order to carry out the objects of P-TA," was the conclusion of the section discussing "Use and Misuse of P-TA Funds."

In his concluding remarks, Foster credited P-TA in Marin County for many of the advances already made in education, and challenged the organization to strive even harder in the future for better educational standards. "What is happening in classrooms today," he said, "will determine what happens in the world in years to come."

Capacity Crowd Attends Beta Sigma Phi Style Show

An April Fool theme was carried out Friday afternoon at the fashion luncheon staged by Mill Valley's Mu Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at Ondine's Restaurant in Sausalito.

A capacity crowd of fashionably dressed women attended the event sponsored by the chapter as a benefit for "Marin Parents of Hearing-Handicapped Children, Inc."

Opening the parade of styles provided by a Belvedere shop and modeled by chapter members was a real April Fool trick when the first model turned out to be a man (one of Ondine's proprietors) dressed as a woman.

Programs in black and gold were cut-outs of the traditional fool in cap and bells, a motif repeated in wands carried by some of the models.

Extraordinary as a commentator, since it was his first experience in the role, was Ed Tangen of San Rafael. "We asked him to do the commentary," said general chairman Mrs. Doyle Lockabey, "because of the outstanding job he did as an impromptu auctioneer for the sale conducted recently in Sausalito to benefit a family there who suffered severe losses in a fire."

A brand new swim suit with jacket in the pink and white gingham made so popular this year by Brigitte Bardot, was pretty on Mrs. Fred Martinez.

Becoming to Mrs. J. A. Jacobs was a two-piece powder blue linen-like fabric with cross stitch pattern in the skirt repeated on the blouse, and two outstanding sweater dresses, the brown silk dress and white wool sweater modeled effectively by Mrs. Lockabey, and a white dress with navy sweater banded in white, trim on Mrs. Sidney Vogensen.

A striking ensemble modeled by Mrs. William J. Wright was a champagne corduroy skirt with pastel striped blouse and full length corduroy coat.

Most unusual among the formals and lovely on Mrs. Byron Tardiff was a strapless silk organza in deeper and lighter toast fashioned with billowing skirt and softly draped bodice.

Camping And Gardening Enjoyed By Girl Scouts

Camping in a primitive cabin at Girl Scout Camp Ski Oaks, Fairfax, eighth graders of Troop 285 from San Anselmo fulfilled requirements for the Campcraft Badge, which is the last step towards their completion of the Curved Bar Rank, the highest award in Girl Scouting.

Joining them for a hike to Bon Tempe filter plant were the eighth grade members of Corte Madera Troop 173, who are also completing their Curved Bar Rank, with the assistance of their leader, Mrs. Howard Perry. Together, with two troops, both working on the Conservation Badge, toured the plant with James Turman as their guide. Troop 285's weekend trip was completely planned by the girls, with Mrs. Robert Jones and Mrs. Warner Bagley accompanying them.

Giving their mothers a preview of day camp activities, the Brownie Scouts of Terra Linda Troop 266 played hostess for a Mother-Daughter Cookout at Sky Oaks, at their last March meeting. The third graders who had attended last summer's day camp session built the fires, and they all enjoyed an afternoon of trail blazing, singing and roasting hot dogs. Helping the 16 girls with the arrangements were their leaders, Mesdames W. B. Hardin, S. W. Dragnich and T. S. Strathairn, outdoor chairman.

Brownie Scout Troop 98 and Intermediate Scout Troop 148, who attend the new Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur, purchased 10 "Pinkie" rose bushes for the school, as part of their Community Life requirements for Fly-Up and Second Class Rank. After both troops presented the bushes to Mervin Gootherts, principal, the fifth graders did the planting. Their leaders are Mesdames Joseph Johnson, James Lannert, Robert Easter and Lawrance Kramer.

Brownie Scouts from Mill Valley Troop 293 and Marinwood Troop 8 were March visitors at Marin General Hospital. Besides seeing the emergency operating room, physiotherapy room, laundry, kitchen and other hospital facilities, the girls enjoyed refreshments in the hospital coffee shop.

Junior Mill Valley Teens will have their regular dance and party Friday night from 8 to 11 p.m. at the Outdoor Art Clubhouse in Mill Valley.

Announced at that time will be a contest to select an emblem for the organization identical with that planned by the senior Mill Valley teens and announced at their party last week.

The contests will continue until May 26 when the winner of the senior contest and winner of the junior one will each receive 10 dollars.

Rules are that the emblem must consist of no more than two colors, incorporate the initials of Mill Valley teens and be suitable for membership cards, signs, jewelry and clothing.

The entry must be on paper of any quality no larger than 9" x 12", and may be in any medium, such as crayon, pencil, oil or water colors. The contestant must be a member of Mill Valley teens, and name, address, telephone number, age and school must appear on the back of the entry.

Entries will be judged for originality and neatness by three local artists having no relatives in the organization.

Seniors may obtain further information at the dances or by calling Lynn Farnsworth, Bunky Robertson, Jim Hall or any member of the adult committee, and juniors may call Linda Varney, Valerie Sainz, John Lem or Mrs. Kenneth Bauder.

Flying To Paris

Today she took off on one of her own as a special guest on Air France's inaugural jet flight to Paris where she will have four days of sight seeing.

Mrs. Diehl Again President Of San Rafael P-TA Council

Highlight of Friday's meeting of San Rafael Council of Parents and Teachers at the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael was election followed by installation of officers. Installed for a second term were:

Mesdames S. H. Diehl, president; Roderick Chisholm, first vice president; Byron Eshelman, historian; and Harry Wall, parliamentarian. Serving for the first time in their respective capacities are Mrs. Donald Crist, secretary, and Mrs. Louis Avedano, treasurer. Frank Lucas, superintendent of San Rafael schools, was once again installed as second vice president.

The council voted to set aside $140 as a scholarship fund to enable one or more students from San Rafael High School to attend the Junior Statesmen Summer School, which will be in session for six weeks on the University of California campus this summer. The program permits selected students from throughout the state to participate in an intensive study of government and governmental functions.

Other action taken by the council included passage of a motion, made by Mrs. Finley, that San Rafael P-TA Council go on record as being in favor of the establishment of the proposed Pt. Reyes National Seashore Park Area. A hearing will be held at College of Marin April 14 to determine the opinion of Marin County citizens in the matter.

Following reports from unit presidents and council chairmen, the meeting was adjourned. Luncheon was served in the church recreation hall, at which time Mrs. Diehl introduced the following guests of honor: the Rev. Wesley C. Baker, pastor of the San Rafael Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. Baker; Dr. Virgil Hollis, Marin County superintendent of schools; Frank Lucas, superintendent of San Rafael schools; Mrs. Samuel Goldbaum, president of Ross Valley P-TA Council; and past San Rafael Council presidents Mesdames Glenn Ensign, George Alpers, William Patching, William Fletcher, Malcolm Finley and John Sauter.

Unit presidents then introduced their school principals.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies, Mrs. Harold Fulkerson, honorary life membership chairman, presented an Honorary Life Membership to Mrs. Diehl in recognition of her outstanding service to youth.

The next meeting of the council will be April 29.

Tam Girls League Honoring Faculty

A luncheon honoring the Tamalpais High School faculty members will be given Saturday, April 30, in the school cafeteria by the Tamalpais Girls' League.

The decoration committee, headed by Debbie Stetson will carry out an oriental theme in pink and gray .The luncheon will be prepared by Kathie Silva and her committee, and Pam Miller and her committee will serve.

Entertainment arranged by a committee headed by Winnie Watkins will include a Japanese folk dance by Arlene Okubara and singing by Johnny Barnes.

Marin County's newest social organization for single people over the age of 21, The Marin Club, Inc., formalized itself recently with election of permanent officers.

Representatives of its members assembled at the home of Irene Williams in Tiburon for adoption of a constitution and bylaws and balloting on officers.

Elected are Kermit Kors, president; Loraine Hall, vice president; Mary Stumm, secretary; Tula Schuster, treasurer; Jean Stevens, chairman audit committee; Margaret Schaeffer, chairman membership committee; Virginia Von Der Hiede, chairman publications committee; Slavka Gibilich, chairman publicity committee; Evelyn Kirchner, chairman activities committee; Bobbie Moore, chairman dance committee. The new officials will be introduced formally Friday at the scheduled Marin Club dance at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera.

The Marin Club was first organized in January of 1960. The first organized dance, held at the Edgewater Inn, was attended by 250 people. Subsequent dances held on the third Friday of each month have increased in numbers until the members now number more than 500.

The membership is not limited to residents of Marin County. Registry indicates guest members from Palo Alto, Oakland, Berkeley, San Mateo and San Francisco. Future plans call for greater diversification of activities including dancing instruction, tennis, bowling, card games, theater and swimming. Inquiries regarding The Marin Club may be directed to Margaret Shaeffer, Box 495, San Rafael.

In 1866, veterans of the Union Army organized the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) in Decatur, Ill.

In 1909, after 23 years of effort, Robert Peary became the first civilized man to reach the North Pole.

In 1917, the United States declared war on Germany.

In 1955, Queen Elizabeth II summoned Sir Anthony Eden to Buckingham Palace to inform him he was to succeed Sir Winston Churchill as prime minister.

A thought for today: U.S. President Woodrow Wilson said: "There is such a thing as a man being too proud to fight."

Do State Teachers Colleges Teach Canards About Press?

Most people live by rules. Many of these are set down for us in laws. Others by social custom. Still others are called ethics.

The moral principles and practices known as ethics have real meaning to those who practice them. They are the basis for many professional decisions, for personal actions, and for public contacts. Breaking them may not even be visible to an outsider, but there are many, many individuals who would subject themselves to personal criticism and loss rather than go against these principles.

Practically all professions, doctors, lawyers, architects, accountants, teachers and newspapermen among others, have such ethical standards. Therefore it is disturbing to us when one of these groups apparently disregards the ethical standards of another. Particularly so when we newspapermen are the ones being attacked.

In recent weeks we have run across example after example of teachers informing classes that newspapermen violate their ethics. The hoary canard which they have been trotting out is that newspapermen are controlled by the wishes of the advertisers.

We have been fighting back on the local level, attempting to talk to teachers and to classes, individually or in groups, explaining that one of our most revered ethical policies is the divorcing of the advertising and the news columns.

It makes sense, even to the advertisers, that we should not permit our advertisers to control the news. If the people know they can rely on the news columns to present the facts uncensored, they will have more tendency to rely on the advertising columns as well. As the reliability of the newspaper increases, so does the value to the advertisers.

Why then, do we seem to be under attack in classrooms of the county? This has puzzled us. Last week we found a clue.

A professor from one of the state colleges, the institutions which teach the teachers, was speaking in Marin to a group which had nothing to do with education. He, in answer to a question, used the opportunity to make an attack on the press, particularly in relationship to the influence of advertisers.

It struck us like a bolt from the blue. Perhaps the reason teachers have the wrong information about newspapers is that the state teachers colleges are teaching the wrong information. It appears they are using a broad brush to smear the whole newspaper profession.

We would not want to be accused of the same destructive blanketing in all state colleges, so we'd like to pose a few questions:

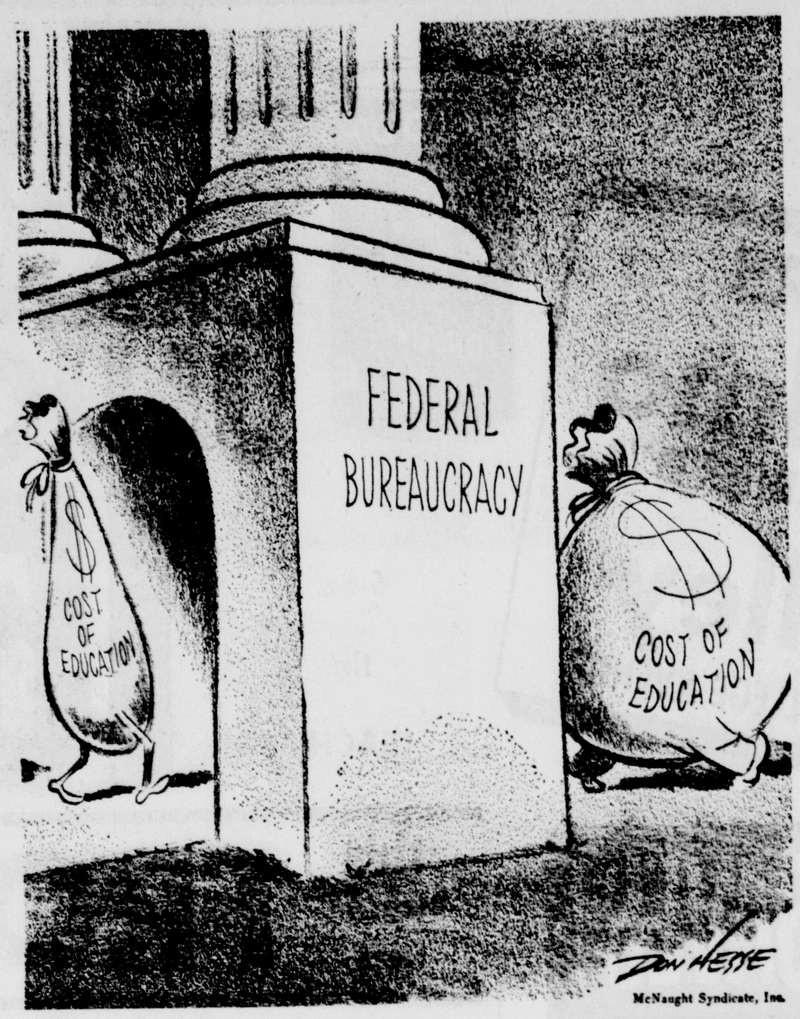
Newspapers have become a valuable teaching aid in many of our schools, how long has it been since the state teachers colleges have reviewed the material being taught about newspapers?

Is any real attempt being made to teach new teachers about the press or are the students merely given snatches of incomplete information from which they draw their own conclusions?

We don't claim to be perfect. But we strenuously object to untrue attacks from sources which should be dedicated to truth.

This situation should have serious consideration from the State Board of Education on down. And we hereby offer any help we can give to the state, the colleges, the county, the districts, the schools or the individual teachers in trying to set the record straight.

THE FATTENING MACHINE



REPORT ON CONGRESS

Next 100 Days Vital For Major Legislation

By CLEMENT W. MILLER

The next 100 days could be memorable ones in the Congress.

Major legislation in many areas of need should be moving along rather rapidly now that the House has disposed of civil rights legislation for this year.

The civil rights debate not only kept the House occupied in discussing merits of the legislation. It also caused emotional blocks for many members who were reluctant to advance any other business until the civil rights question was settled.

The House Civil Rights Bill was approved by a 311 to 109 roll call vote last week, following 10 days of debate. The bill has been sent to the Senate where action may have been taken by the time you are reading this. Or, it could drag on for weeks.

The House bill provides for voting referees to enforce constitutional voting rights through the courts. (I voted for the bill, as well as for strengthening amendments offered prior to final passage.)

Here are some of the key issues to be settled in the next three months:

AID TO EDUCATION—The Senate has passed an education bill providing for federal assistance for classroom construction and teachers' salaries. A House measure has been approved by the Education and Labor Committee and is now awaiting Rules Committee clearance for House action. Final form of the bill is uncertain.

MINIMUM WAGE — Hearings began last week in the House Education and Labor Committee on measures to raise the minimum for workers in interstate commerce to $1.25 an hour and extend it to 7.5 million more people. Senate committee hearings were held last year. Final outcome: uncertain.

SOCIAL SECURITY—Hearings have been underway for two weeks in the House Ways and Means Committee on proposals to broaden Social Security coverage, including health benefits; disability payments and general increases increases in the program. Final outcome is uncertain; health coverage is becoming a major issue.

BOND INTEREST Increases — The Administration continues to press for increases in the bond interest-rate ceiling, but opposition has grown in recent weeks. The outcome is still uncertain. This is one of the major battlegrounds of the year.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEE Pay — Hearings have been underway in the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee for two weeks now, and are scheduled to continue until April 30 on measures to increase pay for postal and classified employees.

MUTUAL SECURITY—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee last week opened hearings on the President's $4.1-billion foreign aid program. House hearings are about over. Some reductions seem certain.

FARM LEGISLATION — Both House and Senate Agriculture committees have been considering overall farm legislation. This is one area in which basic policy disagreement between the Congress and the Administration gives little encouragement for presidential signing of a bill into law this year. The Administration has not made specific proposals although the President has sent Congress general "guidelines."

HOUSING — The House Banking and Currency Committee last week approved legislation aimed at remedying the tight-money slowdown in the home construction market and to make financing easier. House action is expected soon. This bill has great implications for the North Coast's lumber industry.

POSTAL RATE Increases—The Administration has again asked for increases in first-class postal rates. Hearings are scheduled following the pay hearings.

Other legislation on which action is scheduled includes: Mexican farm labor, immigration, appropriations, student disclaimer affidavits, highway aid, GI peacetime education, area redevelopment, corporate and excise tax extension, regulatory agency rules, foreign investment incentives, passports, and construction site picketing.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Michael Harris Spoke Too

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The Independent-Journal's account of the candidates' night program at the Sausalito Women's Club listed the names of the timekeeper, the moderator, the program chairman, an absent candidate and seven of the eight speakers. The only name omitted was that of Michael Harris, whose thoughtful talk and direct answers to questions were among the best received by the audience.

He urged that the city buy Shelter Cove. He called for the completion of the downtown plan so an intelligent approach could be taken in tackling the downtown parking and traffic problem. He called for thoughtful amending of the proposed zoning ordinance so it could offer reasonable protection to Sausalito without unreasonable restraints.

I know the Independent-Journal prides itself on the fairness and impartiality of its coverage of local campaigns. The hundreds of Harris supporters will appreciate the correction of this unintentional omission.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By CARLETON WILLIAMS

Riflemen, Fisherman Should Be Able To Compromise Hamilton Problem

As one who was shooting squirrels out of the tops of Tennessee hickory nut trees by the time I was big enough to carry a .22 rifle, it is hard to realize there are those to whom the operation of a gun is a mystery.

However, such seems to be the case among, of all people, the personnel of the Air Force I am told that many airmen haven't fired a gun since their basic training days and that few qualify as marksman, the lowest grade on the shooters' totem pole.

The fact was sadly demonstrated during the Korean War by one of our pilots, shot down in enemy territory, who was hiding in the woods while an enemy patrol beat the brush for him.

ACCORDING TO HIS own admission later, the patrol passed so close he could have reached out and clubbed them one by one with his pistol.

Instead, he chose to use the business end of the .45 and emptied it at them point blank.

His score was a perfect zero After the first couple of shots they apparently realized they were safer there than at home and merely waited for him to empty the rooty-toot before putting the arm on him and hustling him off to their pokey.

All of which points up a certain need for the Hamilton Field rifle and pistol range — the only national match range, incidentally, in the area — and which the Bay Area fishermen are trying to close down because they insist it interferes with their fishing.

It also explains why the Air Force has recently stepped up its pistol and rifle training program and are going all-out for marksmanship.

THE BEEF BEGAN some weeks ago when the Air Force asked the army engineers to prohibit boats from entering a two-and-one-half mile long pie-shaped wedge of water and mud beyond the range. Stray shells from the guns of careless tyros, they said, make the water unsafe for traffic.

Naturally, the hook-and-worm boys, to whom taking away even a cupfull of fishing water is the same as coming out four - square against motherhood, hit the ceiling. The circulated petitions asking the army to deny the closure and have begun a letter campaign to congerssmen and senators demanding the status quo in San Pablo Bay.

Even though some of my best friends are fishermen, I must say at least some of them pulled a Sneaky Pete when they circulated the petitions at the recent sports and boat show at Bermuda Palms.

One of the visitors to the show, asking what the petition was all about, was told that the Air Force was closing the waters so "the top brass could set up a private duck club."

Offhand, I would estimate they could get at least 500,000 ex-GI's to sign the petition on this basis alone.

THE FACTS ARE the area should have been closed to boat traffic the day the range was opened in 1937. The regulation, however, was somehow lost and only recently found by an eager beaver looking up regulations on his own time.

My Air Force spies, operating in the area since the closure was requested, tell me only one corner of the restricted area is ever used by fishermen, and this on rare occasions. As a matter of fact of some 200 boats counted last weekend, only one, they tell me, ventured into the restricted zone.

THE FACTS ARE that the rifle range cannot be moved as the rod and gun boys have suggested. I verified this by flying over the area last week as a sort of one-man planning commission.

Even if they had the location, the hard cash isn't forthcoming from the hallowed halls of Congress. The rifle butts cost some $300,000 back in the days when cement was not mixed with gold dust and the cost today would probably put a small sputnik in orbit.

As a compromise to the mess, the Air Force boys are suggesting to the fishermen that they get together and talk the matter over. They have suggested closing down the range on certain days and are inviting the rod and gunners to share the range with them.

No one has asked my advice, but it seems logical that the two groups could get together and work out a solution that would keep both the shooters and the fishermen happy.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

TENANTS ARE THE VICTIMS

A landlord who pleaded guilty to 61 violations of the law in a 5-story Harlem tenement, was given 120 days in jail.

In imposing sentence, the judge referred to the man as "about as bad a landlord as we could have." The violations included a broken chimney, a rusty fire escape, dirty broken walls and ceilings, and an accumulation of rubbish and ashes in the cellar.

In another court, during the same week, one magistrate imposed 325 fines totalling $9,195 for similar violations involving hazardous leaks in ceilings, roach-infested apartments and illegal increase in the number of tenants.

All through history those who defy God's laws of charity and of justice show pitiful disregard for their fellowman.

Help lessen man's inhumanity to man in small ways as well as large by spreading on a far wider scale a divine sense of love and truth.

"Christ died for all, in order that they who are alive may live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them."
(II Corinthians 5:15)

By FRANCIS STILLEY
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody has his pet peeves, such as: When the television set goes blooey just before the ball game.

People who gripe all the time about their troubles.

People who don't want to listen to gripes about other' troubles.

Children who do not seem to perceive their elders' great wisdom, understanding, intelligence, fairness, generosity, magnificent achievements, wit humor — or why I sometimes holler at mine.

Trying to shave in the morning when something has gone wrong with the hot water heater.

Trying to save any time when there isn't any hot water.

Just having to shave at all.

The driver who has fits to get around you on the highway, then gets in front and pokes along so you can't get around him.

Cool coffee.

Warm beer.

Barbers who ask for detailed instructions as to how you want your hair cut, then do whatever they please.

The long-shot horse that ALMOST comes in first — after you've bet him on the nose.

Failure to answer letters from friends within six months.

The necessity of getting up in the morning. The necessity of having to go to work. The necessity of explaining not being able to work faster and better. The necessity of explaining to the family why there's no more pay from the inspired, competent, ingenious and utterly great work I perform.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Rockefeller Lurks In Background As Polls Show Nixon Slipping

It isn't just a shadow he sees, but the solid figure of the governor of New York who is neither seeking the Republican presidential nomination nor turning from it.

The fact is that Rockefeller is not to be ruled out as the man who could still come from behind — and win on the last ballot at the Chicago convention.

NIXON HIMSELF, who is not at all disposed to count himself already nominated, does not dismiss it as something that couldn't happen. It would be bad strategy for him to do so under any circumstances.

But there is another reason why Rockefeller remains in the picture. There are two "ifs" — two haunting question marks — which stand in the way of the certainty of the Nixon nomination:

1 — The continued decline of Nixon strength in the public opinion polls in trial heats against Sen. Kennedy and Adlai Stevenson with the prospect of more such news to come.

2 — The danger that the Vice President will make a weak showing in the uncontested Republican primaries.

NIXON PEOPLE are somewhat worried although Nixon himself is not going to be panicked into major campaigning before the convention. But if his decline in the polls becomes too sharp, he is going to be hurt. How badly hurt remains to be seen.

The decline is already becoming embarrassing. Only three months ago the Vice President led every Democrat in every trial heat. Kennedy had edged up a little, but it was still Nixon 53 per cent to Kennedy's 47 per cent, a tidy margin. A month ago Kennedy pulled even and last week Nixon fell back to 47 per cent and Kennedy went to 53 per cent. Also, a survey by Louis Bean, economist and political statistician, showed Stevenson leading both Kennedy and Nixon in four of the largest cities.

If this should keep up — and there is no guarantee it won't, Nelson Rockefeller could begin to look mighty attractive and there would be Republican leaders, who cold-shouldered him a few months ago, having second thoughts. Rockefeller wouldn't have to do anything to abet it; just tend to his knitting in Albany — and wait.

Now, Nixon is a resourceful politician. He isn't going to stand glued to third base. But the fact that these "ifs" now hover over the near-certainty of his nomination give the Rockefeller supporters some glimmerings of hope.

Senate Downs Bill Requiring Text Costs

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A resolution calling for detailed cost breakdowns on publishers' bids for state textbooks was unanimously rejected by the Senate Rules Committee yesterday.

Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael), Senate minority leader, said the proposal by Assemblyman Edwin L. Z'berg (D-Sacramento) struck at private enterprise by forcing publishers to reavel their operations.

Z'berg argued that the Legislature cannot make an intelligent decision on bids unless it knows how they are arrived at.

The resolution was adopted by the Assembly last week by a bare majority.

The Legislature, amid demands for more information on why private texts cost 21 per cent more than those printed by the state, refused to vote extra money for private texts.

The state Board of Education had approved purchasing a series of "superior" privately printed readers at a cost of some four million dollars over the cost of state-printed books.

In doing so the board overturned the state's 29-year policy of printing its own texts from leased plates.

The Legislature turned down the 2½ million dollars that was needed this year to buy the extra books, but approved a 12.3 million dollar textbook appropriation.

Hours Announced For Tam High Pool

Weather permitting, the Tamalpais High School swimming pool will open Monday and remain open daily through the week with the exception of Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

Hours are from 1 to 5 p.m. These hours are special for the Easter vacation week, Charles Crawford, recreation director, said.

Beginning April 23, the pool will be open regularly on weekenks, weather permitting, the same hours, until summer vacation. A fee will be charged, Crawford said.

Dixie School Board Meets Tomorrow

Plans for the June 7 tax election and dedication of Lucas Valley School will be discussed by the Dixie School District board at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the district office. The meeting was originally scheduled to be held April 13.

Also on the agenda are summer school plans, employment of probationary personnel, contracts for a landscape architect at Hoffman School and inspector for the Vallecito School addition.

TELETYPES, PHONES

New System To Boost Libraries' Services

This summer, if you're a bookworm or want to know the latest figures on the number of Afghanistanian yaks, a network of teletypes and phones will ferret out books and information from 16 libraries—at no extra cost to you.

Libraries in five counties, including two in Marin, will begin a Federally financed demonstration project aimed at cutting costs while raising the number of library services and available books.

An estimated 473,000 persons could benefit from the two-year $100,000 program—a program linking small libraries, rather than the more common plan of pushing the facilities of a large library to the outskirts.

A teletype network will link libraries and their branches in San Rafael, Ukiah, Santa Rosa, Petaluma, Vallejo, Napa, Fairfield, and the state library in Sacramento. Special telephone arrangements will tie in Sausalito, Sebastopol, Sonoma, St. Helena, Vacaville, Benicia and Cloverdale.

The plan will allow the two Marin libraries to specialize in the arts: Petaluma, geography; Santa Rosa, business, finance, government and law; Sonoma, agriculture. Ukiah will build up its collection on forestry and wood products; Vallejo will specialize in technology.

For the library user, it will mean that a book or magazine not available in one library will be brought from another on the teletype-phone system by daily truck delivery. Library officials hope to have library cards interchangeable within the system so readers can browse wherever their specialties are housed.

Libraries will "weed out" out-of-date and seldom-used materials, pool them in one collection, and store them in a central location for use when a teletype or phone message says they are needed.

The system will benefit not only the library user, but also every taxpayer, believes Mrs. Virginia Keating, Marin County librarian. A proposed system of centralized purchasing and processing is expected to save participating libraries about two-thirds of the federal grant in the two years. The processing necessary to put a book on the shelf often costs as much as the purchase price, library officials said.

Other features of the project: A roving children's librarian will be available to advise librarians of smaller collections; a collection of 100 educational films will be housed in Fairfield but available through cooperating libraries.

The system will attempt to make the facilities of a big-town library available to small-towners.

Attends Convention

Mrs. Louise Lamb of Corte Madera is attending a convention of Mutual of New York, life insurance firm, in Dallas, Tex. Before her return Sunday she plans to spend a few days sight-seeing and visiting friends in New Orleans.

Marin City Move Won't Upset Voting

Mrs. Gene Beard, secretary, read a letter from County Clerk George S. Jones to this effect.

The council voted to engage in an active campaign to get Marin City residents to register for voting, Mrs. Beard said.

There will be no April town meeting, she announced. The next town meeting was set tentatively for May 2, at which time discussions will be held concerning private homes and apartments that are to be built at Marin City.

It was announced that James Morgan, president of the Marin City Youth Council, will meet with a committee of young men at 2 p.m. Saturday to help clean, up, paint and repair the community center gym.

For the first time in hundreds of years, no flax was grown commercially in Northern Ireland in 1959.

Supervisors Slate Fluoridation Forum

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday voted to sponsor a public forum on fluoridation, but set no date for it.

The action came after Mrs. William Loran of Mill Valley, chairman of the Children's Dental Health Committee of Marin County, read a statement castigating Dr. Rafael G. Duffey Jr., county medical officer, for "disseminating incorrect information which we feel can have only a damaging effect on the voters."

Whether water supplied to users in the Marin Municipal Water District should be fluoridated will be on the June 7 ballot.

Mrs. Loran said the committee's campaign for fluoridation is based on three points: It is effective, it is safe and it is cheap.

"All other statements about fluoridation—for or against—cannot shake the irrefutable facts supporting these three points," she said.

She said Dr. Duffey's information has been "delivered to the board of supervisors, to the medical and dental professions, to the county board of education, to the newspapers, and possibly elsewhere."

"Last month," she said, "in his 17 statements entitled 'Artificial Fluoridation of Marin Water,' published from his office . . . Dr. Duffey made numerous charges to cast a poor light on fluoridation by fear of its effects." Dr. Duffey's charges that the American Medical Assn and the American Dental Assn. have not endorsed fluoridation have been repudiated," she said.

Mrs. Loran said Dr. Duffey's "claim to speak as a private citizen seems to us far-fetched since it clearly is impossible for a public figure to speak as a private figure in a field in which he is judged by laymen to have competence."

PROPOSE PANEL

Although the supervisors "has proclaimed disinterest in fluoridation . . . we propose that members of a panel of five men of science . . . challenge Dr. Duffey to prove his statements," she went on.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman, before a vote was taken, suggested that Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, county health officer, be invited to appear on a voluntary basis to give her views. This was suggested at a previous meeting of the board when Fusselman was absent. (Supervisor Vera Schultz later said the motion and the vote had been left out of the minutes.)

"I say she should appear only if she wants to," said Fusselman.

DIFFICULT POSITION

"These recent developments put Dr. Albrecht in a difficult position," Mrs. Schultz said. "I think the best thing to get a balanced position is to have a forum."

"I agree," said Fusselman. "I just wanted to remove any objection to have Dr. Albrecht appear on a voluntary basis."

The vote to hold a forum was unanimous, but the motion did not contain any statement such as suggested by Mrs. Loran that a panel of scientists quiz Dr. Duffey. The vote simply approved a public forum at which both sides would be debated, with the board of supervisors sponsoring the meeting and taking no action.

NEXT TIME HE BETTER TAKE 'CHUTE ALONG

Embassy counselor Sudio Gandaram was still on board when the four engines of Sukarno's plane were started up and the gangway was removed.

After some hasty signaling, the platform was pushed back to the door. But as Gandaram stepped toward it, the prop wash hurled the structure backward and the diplomat nearly pitched into space.

When the gangway finally was worked back into position, Gandaram got on it but the plane lurched forward and sent it reeling again. Gandaram clung to the top as airport workers struggled to keep it from toppling.

Mill Valley's Fire Horn Not Working

The Mill Valley Fire Department will sound the city hall siren for the next three weeks to call out volunteer firemen, because the valve in the fire horn is out of order and is being repaired, Fire Chief Leslie Armager said today.

Armager said the siren will be sounded with five blasts of 30 seconds duration to call volunteers. "We will be unable to notify the particular area," he said, "but just notify that there is a fire."

Grammar Schools Give Courses In Languages

Eleven of the county's 24 elementary school districts offer at least one foreign language to their pupils. And these 11 include the greater proportion of county pupils.

In a report to the Marin County Board of Education Monday night, and in an interview yesterday, Richard H. Hinze, assistant county superintendent of schools, gave much of the credit for such programs to parental interest and pressure, and school district willingness to experiment.

All but one district in the county with more than 900 pupils in average daily attendance offer foreign languages in the elementary grades, Hinze said. The exception is the San Anselmo District, which is "exploring" the possibility.

Spanish is the most popular language, with all of the districts offering it at some grade level. French is offered in seven districts, German in three districts.

Russian is offered in the Kentfield district, because of teacher availability, one of the prime considerations in foreign language programs in all the schools, Hinze said.

The 11 districts offering foreign languages on some level are Dixie, Kentfield, Larkspur, Mill Valley, Novato, Reed-Union, Ross, San Jose, San Rafael, Sausalito. All but Mill Valley and Novato offer languages in the seventh and eighth grades.

But the range in grade offering is great, Hinze pointed out, with San Rafael teaching some languages in kindergarten.

The Dixie district offers some language in grades 2, 3, 4, 6, 7 and 8.

There are six schools in the Dixie district; foreign language classes are available for students in those grades, but not all schools in the district have such classes, he said.

Hinze said he had no figures on the number of students in the language programs and could not compare it to the growing national trend of teaching languages at the elementary level. The Marin program includes 16 schools.

Eight of the 11 districts offering languages give it during the regular school day; two offer it before or after school; one district combines both plans.

Seven of the 11 districts are "looking into it" to see if a change in the program is indicated, Hinze explained. Few studies on the effectiveness of teaching languages in the grades are available, so experimentation is necessary, he said.

Major problem in the programs is cost, both for materials and special teachers. In addition, there is some question whether it is beneficial for a student to study a foreign language in the grades unless he continues it later.

Another problem with such programs appears on the high school level, he added. High schools are watching development of elementary language programs because they will have to adjust their curriculum to accommodate students who already have some language training.

New Tiburon Firehouse Approved

A new Tiburon fire station to be built at the intersection of Trestle Glen boulevard and Paradise drive has been approved by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The commission voted unanimously to recommend granting a use permit for the new building on the condition that it is subject to architectural supervision.

Enthusiastic approval was given for construction of an office and storage facility on the site of the Tennis Club adjacent to the Little Reed Park in Belvedere.

Commissioner Margaret Azevedo, calling plans for the proposed building "very attractive" made the motion to accept the plans that was approved unanimously by the commission.

Two Airmen Deny Assault Charge

Two Hamilton Air Force Base airmen pleaded innocent Monday in San Francisco Municipal Court to charges of assault.

A preliminary hearing for A/1c Lawrence L. Dow and A/2c Eugene W. Bell was set for April 26 at 10 a.m. The two men were arrested last Thursday night after an altercation in the Universal Restaurant on Grant avenue in San Francisco.

Woman Admits Forging Checks

Mrs. Dorothy J. Boothe, 28, Novato secretary-bookkeeper, pleaded guilty Monday to three counts of forgery and one count of grand theft.

She was charged with forging checks and grand theft from real estate man Robert C. Campbell of Novato, for whom she worked last August through January. Sheriff's inspectors said Campbell's losses amounted to about $1800.

Judge Harold J. Haley sitting in Marin Superior Court ordered Mrs. Boothe to appear in court next Monday for a report from the probation office and for sentencing. She is free on bail.

APPEARANCE PROVES DECEPTIVE

The streamlined body of the Citroen, built in France and shown above, with wheels located near corners without excessive body overhang, at first glance gives the appearance of being small — in the sports car size range. There's nothing small about the car—its 123-inch wheelbase matches that of the Rolls Royce and is only three inches short of the wheelbase of the Lincoln. Citroen's oil-air suspension system and automatic compensation for loads give the French import a beautifully smooth ride quality. Citroen is handled in Marin by Shamrock Motors, 375 Miller avenue, Mill Valley.

Kentfield Woman Gets Democratic Appointment

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Kentfield was one of 14 national Democratic committee members appointed today to the arrangements committee for the party's July convention in Los Angeles.

Democratic Party chairman Paul M. Butler, who made the appointments, said the committee will meet April 18-20 in Los Angeles to inspect convention facilities, the Associated Press reported from Washington. Butler is chairman of the arrangements group.

One function of the committee is to recommend to the national party committee selections for temporary chairman, keynote speaker, permanent chairman and chairman of the committee on resolutions and platform.

California, as host state, got two seats on the arrangements committee. The other Californian is Paul Ziffren, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Smith has been a national committeewoman since 1956 and was a delegate to the national convention in that year, when she backed Stevenson.

Trucking On Up

DETROIT (UPI)—Trucks haul 1,600,000,000 tons of freight a year — more than any other type of carrier, according to the 1959 edition of Motor Truck Facts.

The statistical handbook also reveals that truck transportation now employes 7,400,000 persons or one out of every 10 workers in the nation.

Our Modern Kids Are Far Too Busy For Schoolyard Fistfights

Does your son have many real fistfights?

Let's look at boys' fist fights:

As a child did you go to a school where the playgrounds were not organized, and where your recesses and noon hours were spent roaming with your gang, looking for trouble? I went to such a school a short time. I roamed with my gang. We had many fights. We learned to be bullies, or cowards.

Nowadays nearly all schools plan the playground activities carefully. Every boy is on a team. He knows where he should go, and what he should do. He works off steam trying to win the game — not trying to knock the head off another boy.

Teachers are on hand. They stop trouble before it gets started.

Also, there are fewer fights after school lets out. One reason probably is that our sons are very busy. They have hobbies. They take part in sports like Little League. They lack time to loaf around, and squabble.

Another reason for the change is Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts. Millions of boys belong to them. They learn about helping one another. They develop high standards of honesty, decency, fair play. There is no place for fist fights in Scouting.

Does this mean our boys are sissies?

No. The truth is they are bigger than we were at the same age. They are stronger. They have better coordination. They can walk farther, climb higher and run faster than we could. They're husky, healthy kids. They're just a bit more civilized than we were.

A good thing, isn't it ?

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "At what age should a boy go camping? My son is 11. He recently joined the Boy Scouts. His troop has many weekend outings. I have been afraid to let him go. Isn't he too young for camping?"

F.J.K.

(A) Not if his troop has a good scoutmaster, and the scoutmaster goes along. Boys learn some important lessons on the outings. Scout affairs usually are well planned, and reasonably safe. Your boy is growing up. Let him go.

FHA Eyes Lower Down Payments

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Housing Administrator Norman P. Mason said yesterday the Federal Housing Administration is restudying the possibility of lowering minimum cash payments on houses bought with FHA-backed mortgages.

Congress last year authorized lower down payments on houses costing $13,500 or more. FHA chief Julian H. Zimmerman refused last autumn to use the authority. He said until credit conditions eased it would not stimulate the sale and building of new homes.

Mason, Zimmerman's boss, indicated that improved availability of home loans in the past two months has led to a second look at lowering the down payments.

Home Again

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP) — Except for the jail cook, deputies might still be questioning a lost 9-year-old boy who refused to state his name or home address. The cook recognized the youngster as the son of a friend, prepared him a big plate of ham and eggs, and directed deputies to his home.

Enrique Jorda To Talk To Students

The conductor of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra will answer questions on various facets of the musical world in the lounge of Pennafort Hall on the Dominican College campus at 4 p.m. tomorrow.

Enrique Jorda has been invited by the Dominican College Music Club to address and answer questions of the students, alumnae and friends of the music department, said Sister M. Dominic, O.P., piano instructor at the college. Refreshments will be served during the meeting.

He Gets Promotion

An enterprising young first lieutenant got his bars. He spotted the bars on the store dummy and traded them for a set of captain's insignia.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

Is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Opera Groups Planning Association

NEW YORK (AP)—The Metropolitan Opera, the Chicago Lyric Opera and the San Francisco Opera are planning to form an association to provide mutual aid to present a united front in coping with their problems.

Among the aims of the three major U.S. opera companies are cutting costs, sharing artists and repertory and popularizing opera in this country.

The proposed association also would deal with the problem of hard-to-handle artists who cause managerial headaches. Bargaining with unions and arranging tours are other items for joint consideration.

Rudolf Bing, general manager of the Metropolitan, revealed the project Monday. He had discussed it in February with Kurt Herbert Adler, general director of the San Francisco Opera, and Miss Carol Fox, general manager of the Lyric Opera of Chicago.

Bolinas Property Owners Group To Meet On April 16

Members of the newly formed Bolinas Property Owners Assn. will meet April 16 to discuss articles and bylaws of the group aimed at providing a "strong, united voice for the expression of opinions by the property owners. . . ."

Temporary chairman of the group, John Hamilton, explained at the organizational meeting in March that the association wants "orderly development and preservation of Bolinas' rural and recreational character."

Regular officers and directors will be elected at the meeting at 8 p.m. in the Bolinas Community Center. Other temporary officers are Mrs. W. G. Messimer, secretary, and M. L. Ryan, treasurer.

The articles and bylaws committee consists of Arthur DeLorimier, M. A. Dowdall, W. E. Hettman and Robert Knauss.

Mrs. James Jenkins, Mrs. Gene McDaniel, Dr. Charles Ryan, Norman Ford and Richard Downey are on the nominating committee.

Fairfax Building Permit Total Dips

Building permits totaling $109,980 were issued in Fairfax during March, $20,125 less than for the same month last year, according to City Clerk Alice Leonesio.

A $46,700 six-unit apartment house is slated to be built at Oak Tree lane and Sir Francis Drake boulevard, said Mrs. Leonesio. Also issued were building permits for four homes totaling $45,500; 11 alterations, $14,980, and one swimming pool, $2,800.

During March, 1959, permits were issued for: nine homes totaling $119,250; one swimming pool, $3,400, and six alterations, $7,455.

Dragsters' Driving Records Watched

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The department of Motor Vehicles warned yesterday it would "watch closely" the driving records of all dragsters and hot-rod racers.

Department director Robert McCarthy, in a news statement, challenged all teen-age drivers and members of hot-rod clubs to "demonstrate that you are the responsible individuals and citizens you so often claim to be in defending your hot-rod sporting events."

NEW FIREHOUSE NEAR TERRA LINDA

San Rafael's fire fighting capacity moves north to keep pace with the rapid expansion into Terra Linda Valley. Plans for this station, at the Professional Center across Highway 101 from Terra Linda, won the approval of the San Rafael City Council Monday night. Architects Malone and Hooper of San Francisco were authorized to draw up plans and specifications so that bids can be called. Estimated cost is $50,000. The city's third firehouse, named in honor of the late Councilman Joseph F. Sauer, should be ready early next year.

Senate Unit Kills Smog Control Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill allowing San Francisco Bay Area air pollution officials control over all local agencies of the six-county district apparently is dead for this session of the state Legislature.

Chairman James McBride (D-Ventura) said no one had asked for a hearing on the bill and "I couldn't even get one vote on it."

The bill, approved last week by the upper chamber local government committee and passed to the Senate floor, was sent to Finance Committee on a motion by Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael).

McCarthy said he had received a communication from the Marin County Board of Supervisors opposing the measure.

Board Opposes Bill To Up Smog Unit's Power

P40—230 BOARD OPPOSES ..

Action yesterday in Sacramento by State Sen. John F. McCarthy to block legislation which would grant Bay Area air pollution authorities more control was reaffirmed yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The board previously had gone on record as opposed to a bill that would give smog officials more power over public agencies.

In a last-ditch effort to save the bill, Matthew Walker, attorney for the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, told the board the bill was not designed to take away local power, and asked the board to reverse itself.

County Fire Chief Charles Reilley told the board he was opposed to the bill. He said it "would take away Marin's authority, and control would fall to the air pollution board."

Supervisor William Gnoss, a member of the air pollution control board, said, "Just to bring this matter to a head I move we rescind our previous action." The vote was 3 to 2, with Supervisors Vera Schultz favoring Gnoss' motion.

More Agriculture Stipends Asked

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A long-range increase in the state agricultural scholarship program has been approved by the Assembly.

The house passed, 65-1, a bill by Assemblyman Charles B. Garigus (D-Reedley) to add 100 scholarships each year until the total reaches 400. There will be 100 in 1960-61.

Radio Panel To Discuss Forand Bill

Should persons over 65 drawing social security benefits receive medical care as part of those benefits?

This is the question that will be debated on tomorrow's broadcast of "Marin Sounding Board" on KTIM from 9 to 10 a.m. Two physicians, a labor leader and a senior citizen will discuss the pros and cons of the Forand Bill.

Moderator Kitty Oppenheimer will have as her guests: Dr. Warren Bostick, member of Marin County Medical Society and president-elect of the California Medical Assn.; Dr. Michael Franzblau, Terra Linda skin specialist; Hugh Cassidy, Marin County Labor Council secretary-treasurer, and William Voorheis of San Rafael, a director of the Marin Senior Assn.

The panel will answer questions submitted by listeners during the program.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Bill Too Big? Have Your Employer Withhold More

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

Do you have a big tax bill to pay this year in addition to what your employer has already withheld from your 1959 paychecks?

Peter J. Wikel

If you do, then consider making a written agreement with your employer to have a greater amount withheld from your 1960 paychecks so that you will not have a big bill to pay in 1961.

Withholding, at the regular rates, only covers the tax on your income from salary or wages and is inadequate, if you have a large salary or earnings from sources not subject to withholding.

The law provides that you can agree with your employer to have him take more than the regular rate of withholding out of your paycheck so that you will have your taxes fully paid at the end of the year.

Your employer must be willing and you and your employer must make an agreement, in writing, in such form as your employer may require, to have your employer take a stated extra amount of withholding from your wages. Your employer handles this just exactly the same way as other withholding and you also handle your reporting of this extra withholding on your tax return the same as any other withholding. This will let you pay your 1960 income tax in 1960, as you receive your income, and not all in a lump sum in 1961.

If this applies to you, then make such an arrangement with your employer now, so that you can spread the payment over as long a period as possible.
